Christians End Attendance Contest in Church School

The month of October has been observed as Loyalty Month at the First Christian church. Sunday will end the attendance contest of the church school.

"Jesus Was a Protestant" is the title of the sermon which Dr. Frederick Ross Evans will preach at both services. It will be in keeping with the theme of Reformation Sunday which is observed by churches throughout the world.

The youth choir will sing "Pray On" at the 8:30 a.m. service. "I will dwell in the House of the Lord" is the anthem to be sung by the chancel choir at the second service.

Congregational Church Plans Measures Forum

The Reformation Sunday sermon of the Rev. Thomas McCamant at the Congregational church will be on "Protestant and Catholic Christians."

New members will be received. The service is at 10 a.m. with the church school meeting at the same hour. Nursery care is also provided for younger children.

The Fun and Fellowship club will meet Saturday evening at Pilgrim House for a Halloween party. All are welcome.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. at the home of Vance Welty for a Halloween party.

Tuesday there will be a forum on the Measures at the church at 8 p.m. All of the ballot measures will be presented and discussed, with the opportunity of questions from the floor. A feature of the forum will be the attendance of the four candidates for the legislature to give their views on the various measures. Donald Walters will preside.

The Laymen's breakfast will be held Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. with Floyd Fogelquist as speaker.

There will be a meeting of the church council on Wednesday evening for the primary purpose of preparing the budget for 1961, which will then be presented to the congregation for its approval.

Revival Services Set at Foursquare

A revival service will begin Tuesday, Nov. 1, at the Foursquare church, 2200 Roberts rd., with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Westberg, evangelists, and alternate speakers.

There will be services at 7:30 p.m. daily except Monday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Westberg are from Los Angeles, Calif., and have held revival services in almost every state. The public is invited to attend every service.

Sunday will be observed as Proclamation Day. Mrs. Loyd Rasmussen, church school superintendent, has announced that each one taking a guest to the 9:45 a.m. service will be given the chance to fish in the fish pond, and that each guest will also be given a gift.

At the 11 a.m. service the Rev. R. H. Materson will speak. The junior and senior choirs will sing with the congregation. An accordion number will be played by Miss Sharon Simmons, entitled "The Lord's Prayer."

"The junior boys and girls' classes will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Dan Haas for a Halloween party.

Schedule Told For Masses, Devotions At Sacred Heart

A full week of masses and devotions is scheduled for Sacred Heart church members and foremost Roman Catholics throughout the world, beginning Sunday with the celebration of the feast of Christ the King.

In all parish churches on this particular feast day the "Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus" and the litany of the Sacred Heart are recited before the exposed Eucharist. According to the Very Rev. Carl Mai, pastor of the local parish, any more extensive celebration of the feast, as may be customary in some areas, is prohibitive here because of the heavy Sunday mass schedule.

It is, however, he said, a day when all Catholics are urged to receive Holy Communion and to renew their allegiance to Christ their King.

All Saints Day
Tuesday, Nov. 1, is All Saints Day. Father Mai stated, a holy day of obligation upon which all Catholics are required to attend mass, and all the souls in heaven are honored as saints. Masses in the church will be said at 6, 7, 8, and 9 a.m. and at 12:10 and 6 p.m.

Mass attendance is encouraged for all Catholics, but is not obligatory, on Wednesday, Nov. 2, he said, which is the feast of All Souls, and continuous masses for the suffering souls in purgatory will be said beginning at 6 a.m., and ending with a Requiem High mass at 8 a.m.

The usual Perpetual Help devotions will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, followed by benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The high school of religion for public schools students meets that day at 7 p.m., as does the New Testament class for adults, in St. Mary's High school.

First Friday
On Nov. 4 the regular First Friday schedule of masses will be followed, with mass times at 6, 8 and 11 a.m. (school mass) and at 6 p.m.

The 8 a.m. mass on Saturday, Nov. 5, will be followed by Fatima devotions and a special mass will be said at 11 a.m. the same date for the children attending Saturday catechism classes.

The catechism classes for students enrolled in public grade schools meet at 10 a.m. every Saturday, except in the holiday seasons, during the school year.

Presbyterians Tell Activities Set in Medford
Dr. D. Kirkland West will preach on the subject "What Is Right and Wrong With the Churches," at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday at the First Presbyterian church.

At the first service the youth choir will sing the Reformation hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." At the 11 a.m. service the chancel choir will sing "The Trumpeters and Singers Were as One."

The Junior High Fellowship will meet at the church Sunday at 5 p.m. Betty Lou Hatch will conduct the meeting, "Just the Facts."

Youth Fellowship for senior highs will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Frohmayer, 1656 Spring st., for a sing-along. Lynn Sjolund will direct the singing.

During the evening, senior highs will have an opportunity to share in an offering for UNICEF, the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

Geneva Fellowship for college-age young people will meet Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wolf, 1517 South Ivy st., at 7 p.m. The program will be presented by Jim Johnston, physics teacher at Medford High school on the theme, "Teaching-Vocation and Mission." A Halloween party will follow.

Church members and friends are reminded of the family night Wednesday. A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. and at 7 p.m. the movie, "All That I Have," will be shown. This movie has been shown commercially in theaters throughout the nation under the title, "God Is My Partner." Reservations for this dinner should be made Sunday.

Westminister
"What Have You Done With What God Gave You?" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday by the Rev. John O. Reynolds at the Westminister Presbyterian church.

The adult choir will sing the anthem "The King of Love by Shepherd's Isle." During the service there will be a message for the children during children's church. Nursery care will be available for the pre-school age children.

Church school classes gather for study and worship at 9:45 a.m. In addition to classes for all ages of youth, there is an adult study program conducted by the pastor in the church office. The whole church school is currently studying on the theme "Jesus Christ."

The Junior High Fellowship will meet from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, 2248 Dellwood ave. David Collins will lead the meeting on "What Does Christianity Have To Do With My Money?"

The Senior High Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Youth building of the church. After opening worship Barbara Whalin will lead a discussion on the topic

Fundamental Churches Hold Regional Meeting

Cave Junction - The Independent Fundamental Churches of America held their Pacific Northwest regional fall conference at the Cave Junction Community church Oct. 17 through 19.

Dr. Elmer L. Wilder, Portland, chaplain of the University of Oregon Medical School hospital, conducted a workshop on "General Principles of Pastoral Counseling." The Rev. Margin G. Stuck, Lake City Community church, Tacoma, Wash., presided at the workshop on "Marital and Pre-Marital Counseling Techniques."

Officers Elected
Mr. Stuck was elected president and other officers included the Rev. E. J. Ruff, Venona, Ore., vice president; the Rev. Charles Lyman, Sumner, Wash., secretary; the Rev. Daniel Sauerwein, Tacoma, treasurer; Mr. Olsen, promotional secretary; and Henry Boyd, Loomis, Wash., field director of the Northwest Independent extension.

Other speakers at the conference were Mr. Denning, the Rev. Chester Dyer, Yakima, Wash., Ahtanum Pioneer Congregational church; the Rev. Wallace Wilson, Renton, Wash., Highlands Community church.

Sessions for the women were held simultaneously with the men's sessions. The next session will be held March 13 to 15 at Bremerton, Wash. The conferences are held twice yearly.

Mrs. W. M. Arrants was in charge of the kitchen staff with women of the church preparing the meals for the delegates. Girls from the young peoples department served.

During the conference delegates toured the Oregon Caves National Monument.

'Seed Time' Is 1st Baptist Topic

"Seed Time and Harvest" will be the subject of the Rev. Edward C. Stauffer's message at the 11 a.m. worship service at the First Baptist church Sunday. Mrs. Donn Platt will be soloist, and Maynard Hadley will sing "How Great Thou Art," assisted by the adult choir.

Following the youth meetings of the church at 6:30 p.m., the evening gospel hour will be held at 7:45 p.m. Music for this service will include a vocal solo by Miss Julia Gandt and a number by the youth choir, with Roland Gangstee as soloist. A mixed quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Donn Platt will also sing. The pastor's message will be entitled "Sanctification."

At the midweek service on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., the film, "Martin Luther," will be shown, followed by the regular prayer time.

The church also announces that the Boys' Brigade work for those 12 to 18 years of age will be held each Thursday at 7 p.m., beginning Nov. 3. The Brigade program, which is followed nationally by churches of different denominations, emphasizes Christian character development, craft, sports and outdoor life. Any interested boys in the community is invited to attend.
