

Frau Ilse Albert, Salzburg, Austria, was a recent guest in Medford of Miss Mary Ellen Bell and Miss Elizabeth McGalliard, Madrona lane, Frau Albert, who teaches music and language in a Salzburg school, arrived in the United States with Miss Bell September 8. The Medford woman, a former public health nurse for Jackson county, met Frau Albert while spending several months in Europe. The visitor was taken to the Oregon coast and to see the redwood forests during her visit here, and left here for California. Frau Albert will return to Austria later this winter to resume her teaching.

Meeting Place Said City Need; Candidate Talks

Townsend Harmony auxiliary club will elect a chairman for the coming fiscal year at a meeting Wednesday, November 2, at Walker's Dreamland. Mrs. Ida Kelly was recently elected president of the Townsend club council at last week's meeting.

Eight club members were honored in recognition of their birthdays last month. Eight visitors were present.

It was suggested that the City of Medford provide a civic meeting place for elderly citizens to hold social functions. The group considered a suggestion that the old Armory building at Fifth and Bartlett streets be acquired and transformed into a social club center.

Mrs. Ellen Townsend, Ashland, and J. P. Graham, Medford, furnished music. Visitors are welcome at all meetings of the Townsend club.

State Sen. Edwin R. Durno discussed problems facing the senior citizen at last Wednesday's meeting of the Townsend club.

The Republican candidate for election as congressman from the fourth district stressed the importance of a balanced budget and of maintaining the purchasing power of the dollar.

"Our current problem of providing proper medical care for the aging is the outcome of adding 20 years of longevity," he told his audience, adding that it was a social and economic problem, not a political one. Emphasizing the vital need for a more adequate health program, the speaker pointed out that recommendations would result from the White House Conference on Aging scheduled for January.

John Dellenback Chapter Speaker

John Dellenback, Medford attorney and candidate for the Oregon house of representatives, spoke to the Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Saturday, October 22. His subject was "For what avail, if freedom fall?"

Mrs. M. M. Morris, regent, presided at the meeting in Girls Community club. Guests were Dr. Anthony DeSoto, Romance languages teacher at Southern Oregon college, and Mrs. DeSoto.

Several songs were sung by Mrs. Effie H. Kuriz, accompanied by Mrs. O. C. Failing, pianist.
