Pickin' Pears News and Notes From Camp White

By WALTER TOWNSEND
Miss Enid Holmes, of Auburn hair, and attractive in black dress with white blouse and blue bodice, told the Readers and Writers club Tuesday afternoon, that to be a good conversationalist one should have a good vocabulary; but many times a good listener is more appreciated.

Many new members were present. The entire group was impressed with the chief librarian's comments, as she said, "We have twice as many first rank symphony orchestras in the United States as in all of Europe."

Among those who took part in the discussion on America, were Charles Reynolds, formerly of the FBI, and John E. Powell, who, before his retirement, was a university professor. Later, as the meeting progressed, Michael Dillon, educator and instructor at the domiciliary, was drawn into the talk, as well as J. W. (Walt) Edwards, ex-rancher and cattlemaster of Colorado, each of them long-time members and participants in the weekly literary study, provided by Miss Holmes, chief librarian of the domiciliary.

she inquired modestly. "The Europeans horde — Americans spend — for the home, the family." This set the group off in a high key. But at last the talk died down.

"America is a wonderful country," she said. "Speaks of Culture"

Disputes arose, and opinions hurled among the men. The librarian let the hotness of the discussion subside, then resumed her talk. She began to speak of America's armistice power. Its air bases, missile sites, bombers, underground central room for defense at Omaha. Told how some of our air men play golf, with a "walkie talkie" behind — to warn them of attack or approaching danger.

"Unchanged since 1884" is what you read on an European label, Charles Reynolds broke in. He has traveled a lot, and said it depressed him to see "culture" used, to strike at America with.

For the first time in months, the Readers and Writers group appeared spellbound.

Dillon seemed fearful of the rising tension, and appeared about to leave.

Additional information about the program may be obtained from the YMCA at SPring 2-6295.

Play Day Planned At Medford YMCA

The Medford Young Men's Christian association will hold an after school play day program during the coming months for most of the Medford schools.

The YMCA truck will pick up the fifth and sixth grade boys Thursdays and take them to and from the Y. At the Y, they will split into two groups, one group will go swimming while the other group will play in the gym and on the trampoline. Instruction will be given the boys on swimming and on the correct use of the trampoline.

Exciting America, they had each served as soldier, sailor, or marine, in two world wars.

George Frank Ward, 667 Park st., Ashland, said a transmitter and receiver were taken from his airplane in a locked hanger.

The "writing" group, reluctantly filed out at last, still excited about the country in which they lived.

At this point, Edwards, former bronc rider of Colorado, was suddenly aroused, "I would rather dance," he said. He is well known in both Medford and the domiciliary, and is a popular ballroom dancer of note.

Before Miss Holmes could answer him, coffee and refreshments from the American Legion auxiliary was brought in. The discussion, however, continued for another hour, apparently because Chief Librarian Enid A. Holmes had thoroughly aroused the emotions of the men about the America, the
