

Party Held
Wa-Ke-Ku-Wa Camp Fire group held a Halloween party October 29 at Mrs. Charles Fletcher's house. Eight girls who came to the party were Donna Jahnke, Linda Dalbec, Helen Norris, Kevin Rainey, Penny Mayhew, Judy Pershall, Terry Fletcher, Joy Willson and our leader, Mrs. Fletcher.

All the girls came in costumes. We played several games, then had refreshments. We danced and bobbed for apples with each girl getting an apple. We had our pictures taken.

Poll of Finch Trial Jury Certain

Los Angeles—UPI—A poll of the jury hearing the second Finch-Tregoff murder trial appeared a certainty today if no verdict is reached by midafternoon.

Superior Judge Leroy Dawson told the 11 women and 1 man on the panel Wednesday he regarded the case as one "in which I think you should be able to reach a verdict."

The panel at day's end had weighed the fate of Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 43, and Carole Tregoff, 23, for 51 hours and 50 minutes with no sign of an outcome in the 19-week-old trial. The illicit lovers are accused of murdering Finch's wife, Barbara, 33, on July 18, 1959.

Intravenous Feeding Developer Dies

Chicago—UPI—Dr. Ralph Falk, 76, pioneer in the development of intravenous feeding, died Wednesday night after a short illness.

Falk was co-founder in 1931 of Baxter Laboratories, Inc., Morton Grove, Ill., and became the firm's first president. Two years later, Baxter began production with six employees of intravenous feeding solutions in Glenview, Ill.

Baxter, which produced the first ready-to-use intravenous feeding solutions accepted by medical associations, now employs 2,000 persons in manufacturing facilities in this country and abroad.

Close Watch To Be Kept on All Polls

Washington—UPI—Attorney General William P. Rogers says the Justice Department will keep a close eye on the nation's polls and take "immediate action" on any election day voting irregularities.

Rogers said in a statement Wednesday that he had asked all federal district attorneys to be on the alert for such federal violations as intimidation of voters, vote-buying and conspiracies to threaten or intimidate any citizen because of race or for any other reason.

Hatfield's Staff Behind Closed Doors

Salem—UPI—The secretarial staff of Gov. Mark Hatfield is working behind closed doors now.

Folding doors adjacent to the reception room in the governor's office have always been open before, giving the public a view of the secretaries.

Travis Cross, Hatfield's news secretary, said closure of the doors is in keeping with the "architectural intent" of the executive suite.

A receptionist has been posted outside.
