

Truck Drivers Are Honored for Acts

John Tompkins and John Clark, Pierce Freight Lines professional drivers, were among more than 30 Oregon truck drivers who have been honored with "Good Joe" awards for outstanding acts of highway safety and courtesy, the Oregon Trucking association has announced.

The awards are made on the basis of reports received by OTA from grateful motorists who have been given emergency highway assistance by the truck drivers. Services performed ranged from changing flat tires to rendering first aid at the scene of an accident.

The "Good Joe" recognition program has been carried on by the OTA for the past several years. It originated in Oregon and since has been adopted by associations in other states and Canada.
