Compare Porter's Record...

- CONGRESSMAN Charles O. Porter is an active, 41-year-old attorney. He has represented Oregon's Fourth District in Congress for two full terms.
- PORTER has been an active Congressman. He maintains year-round offices in Eugene and Medford... regularly holds office hours throughout the District... returned to Oregon nine times during two years of 86th Congress.
- PORTER sends a monthly report to 12,500 constituents to explain his views... has developed an annual questionnaire (131,000 mailed this spring) to learn his constituents' views.
- PORTER has been an effective Congressman for the Fourth District: New construction start at Green Peter Dam, to cost $64 million... $25,000 (first money in 40 years!) for repair of Port of Siuslaw North Jetty... new construction start at Gold Beach Harbor... Rogue River Harbor... revived Rogue River basin flood control plan, etc.
- PORTER takes a clear position on the major issues of the day: He SUPPORTS liberalized housing programs to increase housing starts (down 17% this year) and end the Republican "tight money" recession crippling Oregon's lumber industry.
- PORTER SUPPORTS Federal aid to education, opposes higher local property taxes as a solution to the pressing problem of over-crowded schools and insufficient teachers.
- PORTER SUPPORTS Oregon Dunes National Seashore Park and development of Oregon's vast recreational resources.
- PORTER has lived up to the only promise made before his election: To spend at least one-third of his time doing whatever he can to work for peace. (Porter is a combat veteran of World War II.)

These Important Newspapers Compared the Candidates!

... "Voters should have no difficulty in lining up their own opinions with one man or the other... The World recommends the re-election of Congressman Charles O. Porter, Democrat."

—Coos Bay World, Oct. 11, 1960

"... it is our considered belief that Porter would be, by far, the better Congressman, particularly in a world which is crying for courage, brains, and the ability to seek new solutions, new answers, new approaches..."

—Medford Mail-Tribune, Sept. 27, 1960

- The Republican candidate is a retired physician... elective experience limited to part of one term in Oregon Senate.
- As State senator, the Republican candidate voted AGAINST Federal aid to education... AGAINST allowing state agencies to bargain with employees' unions... AGAINST expanding the state Veterans' Loan program.
- The Republican candidate also voted AGAINST allowing counties to provide group medical insurance for employees... AGAINST modernization of Oregon's medical code... AGAINST allowing counties to provide civil service protection to employees.
- The Republican candidate also voted AGAINST repealing the "anti-picketing" law... AGAINST creating a state scholarship commission to assist worthy students... AGAINST requiring school districts to protect employees against damage suits... AGAINST modernizing state government by elimination of the Board of Control.
- The Republican candidate cast two "for" votes as state senator: (1) for a general retail sales tax, (2) for forcing insured motorists to buy additional policies to insure themselves against uninsured drivers.
- The Republican candidate is AGAINST liberalized housing programs... AGAINST medical care for the aged through Social Security (he favors "Medicare," which requires a Pauper's Oath and which even Republican Governor Rockefeller terms unworkable).
- The Republican candidate is AGAINST Federal aid to education (even though his own party favors it)... AGAINST a National Seashore Park in Oregon (even though President Eisenhower and Governor Hatfield favor it).

Frank Bash Named Officer in OSBA

Eugene - Frank Bash, Medford school board member, was named second vice president of the Oregon School Boards association during its annual business meeting at the University of Oregon Friday.

Elected president was Jack Duff of Adams.

During its legislative session, the association supported Ballot Measure 6. In addition, the group opposed the expansion of driver training in the schools and legislation which seeks to legislate certain curriculum requirements.

The two-day conference closed Friday afternoon.

Re-elect Porter to Congress Comm., 1109 Willamette, Eugene. Al Fiegl, Chm'n.
