Holiday Wedding Planned

The Christmas holidays are a popular time for weddings, and a number of couples will be married here in late December.

Miss Sheila Ann Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendel S. Spence, 118 Medford heights, has set December 27 as the date of her marriage to Gary A. Gasaway. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvis P. Gasaway, Hermiston, Ore.

The wedding will be held at four o'clock in the afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Miss Spence is a graduate of Medford High school and Oregon State college, and is employed by the Salem YWCA as director of health, physical education and recreation. She is a member of Alpha Phi social sorority.

Mr. Gasaway is a senior at Oregon State college in the field of agricultural engineering. He is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Rites Held In Carmel

Of interest in the Rogue valley is news of the wedding of Callista Farrell Aubert to Eric Handweg. The marriage ceremony was held Saturday, October 29, at the Church of the Wayfarer, Carmel, Calif.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrell, 1510 East Main street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Handweg, Palo Alto, Calif.

For the ceremony, read at 12 o'clock, the bride wore a charcoal colored two-piece knit suit with white feather hat and white orchid corsage and black accessories. Her necklace and earrings were of matching crystal.

Only immediate members of the two families were present for the ceremony at the church and the wedding breakfast which followed at the La Playa hotel in Carmel. In addition to the parents of the bride and the bridegroom, the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gain Robinson, Medford, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Zelver, Menlo Park, Calif., were present. Also present was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Karen Handweg.

Mr. and Mrs. Handweg will live in Palo Alto.

December Rites Planned by Pair

Talent - Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Davis, Talent, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of Mrs. Davis' daughter, Miss Peggy La Jean Rowe, to Clinton L. Millard, son of A. C. Millard, McLeod.

Miss Rowe is an employee at the Veterans Administration domiciliary, White City, and her fiancé is employed by Slate and Hall Construction company, Prospect.

Their wedding is set for December 17 at First Methodist church.

Shower Honors Ashland Woman

Mrs. W. B. Blackmer, Ashland, was honored guest at a shower given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. P. F. Brainerd at her home, 226 Valley View drive. Mrs. Brainerd was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ralph Swartsley.

Mrs. Blackmer is to become the bride of John Henry, Lincoln, Ore., with the wedding planned for the near future.

The refreshment table centerpiece was of white and rust colored chrysanthemums, and the gifts were arranged in two umbrellas decorated with small white chrysanthemums and ribbons.

About 20 guests were present for the party.

Temple To Mark Founders' Day

Founder's day will be observed at a stated session of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, in the Grants Pass Masonic temple November 12 at 1 p.m. A tea will be given by the Woodland Nile club of Glendale following the meeting, with Mrs. Maud McQueen and Mrs. Gertrude Scheiferstein assisting.

Members of Zuleima temple are reminded that a box has been made available at Weeks and Orr Furniture store for the collection of Thanksgiving gifts for children at the Shriners hospital, Portland.

Items needed include homemade cookies in cans, hard candies, jams, jellies and juices, postcards and stamps, "rock and roll" records, crochet thread and hooks, wool and knitting needles.

November 15 is the last day the gifts can be received, according to Mrs. Eugene Orr and Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Medford chairmen.

Medford Youth Has Lead Role

Eugene-Michael Stearns of Medford has a lead role in "The Cherry Orchard," scheduled to open November 11 at the University of Oregon.

Mr. Stearns is cast as Lopahin, a land speculator. He is a junior, majoring in sculpture, at the university.

Anton Chekhov's dramatic comedy, the last University Theatre production of 1960, will be performed 15 nights between the opening date and December 3.

The UT group is producing the play as a tribute to Chekhov on his 100th anniversary.

Meeting Postponed By District Nurses

The regular meeting of District 4, Oregon Nurses association has been postponed from Tuesday, November 8, until Tuesday, November 15. It will begin at 8 p.m. at Sacred Heart hospital.

Annual Style Show Set By Junior Women's Club

Medford Junior Women's club will complete plans for the annual style show at a meeting Wednesday, November 9, at 8 p.m. Members will meet at the home of Mrs. L. E. McConnell, 1401 South Whitman avenue.

The style show is set for Friday, November 18, at Rogue Valley Country club. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

The theme of the show will be "Holiday Portraits".

Through the cooperation of George G. Johnson, president of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists, works of regional artists will be exhibited.

Town and Country shop of Eagle Point will provide the clothing. Shoes will be from Burelson's of Medford, and make-up will be under the direction of Mrs. Vel Halgren, Charles of Ritz consultant from Burelson's.
