

Among the charter members who attended the Heritage tea given by Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church last week were (left to right) Mrs. Kitty Smylie, Mrs. F. S. Brandon and Mrs. Grace L. Walker. Mrs. Smylie was the last president of the former Methodist Ladies' Aid society before it became a part of the new WSCS, and Mrs. Walker was the first president of the new society. The 20th anniversary of organization of the WSCS was observed at the tea. The women are examining a John Wesley Wedgewood tea service owned by Mrs. George Roseberry, wife of the pastor of First Methodist church and hostess for the tea. It is a replica of one in the British Museum in London which was made by Josiah Wedgewood for John Wesley.

Glimpses at Glamour

From DOROTHY ELLIOTT

New hair styling is exciting and fun. Exploring with you the latest fashions can be a big adventure. They're lovely, pure inspiration, and there is a right one for you.

Bangs? They are popular season after season, swept a cross your forehead or left to fall naturally straight. Flippan and perky are some of the curly off-face brushups. New treatment of the perennially favorite page-boy sweeps the ends under in a huge classic swirl. Grey hair in undefined waves, carefully upswep, achieve softness and lift. Close-to-the-head coils are artfully simple for youthful casualness.

Endless variety is high-fashion today!

For hair fresh as sunshine, try a new color tone. Don't improvise, though, consult your favorite hair dresser at De-Na's Beauty Salon in the Medford Shopping Center, SPring 2-2096.

Methodist Tea Attended By More Than 150 Guests

More than 150 guests attended the Heritage and Harvest Home tea given by the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Roseberry, 3310 Hollywood avenue, Tuesday, November 1.

The tea was in honor of the 20th anniversary of the society and in recognition of the Methodist Home, Salem, which will have an annual Harvest Home tea in Salem, on Sunday, November 20.

Mrs. W. W. Walker served as president of the organization which was created in September 1940 when the Home and Foreign Missionary societies and the Ladies Aid merged into one group. She served until 1945 when Mrs. Harry Meyers was elected for a two year term. Mrs. J. Scott Heatherington was president in 1948, followed by Mrs. John Kent in 1949. Mrs. Jessie Minear was elected in 1950 and served for four years. Mrs. Floyd Lewis was president in 1954 and Mrs. L. G. Rankin began a four year term in 1955. She was succeeded in 1959 by Mrs. Milton Snow, the present president.

The Methodist Home in Salem is a project supported by the Woman's Society of Christian Service. There are 82 older men and women living in the home now, representing several denominations. The silver offering and the many gifts of canned fruits and jellies will be given to the home for their use.

Guests found a cornucopia filled with gold chrysanthemums hanging by the door as they arrived at the parsonage. Mrs. Minear and Mrs. W. R. Peabody had decorated the room with gold and yellow chrysanthemums and the other rooms with many varieties of lavender chrysanthemums.

Many charter members of the Woman's society poured during the afternoon. They included Mrs. Edna Pursel, Mrs. Floyd Burk, Mrs. Clarence Jordan, Mrs. Harry Olsen, Mrs. Minear, Mrs. Mary Igo, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Clarence Pankey. Also pouring were Mrs. Everett Faber and Mrs. Edward Bolen and representing the Wesleyan Service Guilds, Mrs. Charles Adamson.
