

Hornbrook Residents Home From Travels
 Hornbrook - Several Hornbrook residents returned home this week from visits elsewhere in the state.
 Mrs. Marshall Horn arrived Monday after spending ten days in San Francisco at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Jain.
 Mrs. Grace Quigley returned Tuesday after two weeks in Vallejo with her daughter, Mrs. D. F. Metzger, and Mr. Metzger and children, former Hornbrook residents. En route south Mrs. Quigley visited her sister, Mrs. Ruth Lobsien, Artois, Calif.

Many of the young people and men attending the annual open house of the Rev. and Mrs. George R. V. Bolster last Sunday divided their attention between the party festivities and the television screen where a football game was being shown. Absorbed in the telecast here are (at back) Edward Ehrlich and Tom Winder. Young Ehrlich is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Theodore J. Ehrlich and his companion is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Winder. The Ehrlichs, newcomers to the city, were honored at the open house. Edward and his sister, Miss Hermina Ehrlich, are both students at Medford High school. (Knackstedt photo)

an important message
 to all citizens
 from Oregon Ministers

THE following statement was issued to the press last Thursday by Bishop A. Raymond Grant on behalf of the undersigned Oregon clergymen representing many denominations:

"We, the undersigned, deplore the distribution of hate literature designed to foment religious hostilities and make a candidate's religious affiliation the criterion for his fitness for public office.

"We urge our fellow citizens to cast their vote in the coming election only in accordance with their deepest concern for our nation's welfare, and to judge all candidates in the light of their political principles as expressed by their words and deeds."

George Washington said: TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH IN BALTIMORE...

"We have abundant reason to rejoice, that in this land, the light of truth and reason has triumphed over the power of bigotry and superstition, and that every person here may worship God according to the dictates of his own heart. In this enlightened age, and in this land of equal liberty, it is our boast, that a man's religious tenets will not forfeit the protection of the laws, nor deprive him of the right of attaining and holding the highest offices that are known in the United States."

Officer Election Planned Tuesday

Election of officers for 1961 will be held at the meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the First Baptist church, Tuesday, November 8, in the church annex.

The program will begin with a dessert luncheon served by the members of Esther White Cross circle directed by the chairman, Mrs. M. L. Daily, starting at 12:30 p.m. After the business meeting the different circles will give a summary of their missionary's activities during the year. Mrs. Fred Landers will give the devotional.

Members are reminded that the Shasta-Cascade association meeting will be held in Ashland November 10. Persons needing transportation may contact Mrs. Roy Rolls at SPring 2-7039.
