GOVERNOR'S WIDOW DIES

Dayton, Ohio - Mrs. Margaretta Cox, 70, widow of the late James M. Cox, former Democratic Ohio governor and 1920 presidential nominee, died Sunday, apparently asphyxiated by a fire which started while she was smoking in bed.

NEXT FIRST FAMILY?—Voters will go to the polls Tuesday to decide who will be the First Family of the United States for the next four years. The Democratic party hopes it will be Sen. John F. Kennedy and his family. Kennedy is shown with his wife, Jacqueline, and daughter, Caroline 2 1/2. (UPI Telephoto)

Kennedy Climaxes Election Bid In Tour of New England States

En Route with Kennedy - Sen. John F. Kennedy climaxes his presidential campaign in his native New England today with a broad final offensive against his Republican opponent, Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The Democratic nominee started his day by throwing ice cold water on Nixon's proposal to send President Eisenhower and former Presidents Harry S. Truman and Herbert Hoover to the Iron Curtain nations next year. Then, in remarks prepared for delivery at a Democratic rally in Springfield, Mass., Kennedy said:

Clear Demonstration

"I believe that Mr. Nixon's failure to tell the truth to the American people - or, perhaps, his failure to understand the truth himself - is a clear demonstration of his incapacity to lead this nation through the troubling and hazardous years which lie ahead."

Kennedy planned to appear on a national television hookup between 6 and 8 p.m., EST to discuss points made by Nixon during the GOP nominee's four-hour telethon from 2 to 6 p.m. EST. Kennedy also will appear on a 30-minute nationwide telecast at 11 p.m., EST on the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Nixon's proposal for sending Eisenhower, Truman and Hoover to Eastern Europe reached Kennedy while the Democratic candidate was flying to Providence from Lewiston, Maine, last stop in a full day of Sunday campaigning in Connecticut, New York state and New Jersey.

Kennedy called the four-state tour "the greatest day of the campaign thus far."

He issued a statement in reply to Nixon's plan for the Iron Curtain visits by the former presidents.

"Mr. Nixon does not seem to understand that the road to peace and security is not by goodwill missions but by building the power and prestige of the United States so that Communists would no longer believe the balance of power is moving in their direction," Kennedy said.

"I would have thought that the humiliating withdrawal of the President's invitation by Khrushchev to visit Russia would have indicated to Mr. Nixon that the new president himself - however distinguished his predecessor - must lay the groundwork here in the United States for successful negotiations abroad."

This echoed a theme which Kennedy stressed heavily

Wall Street Chatter

New York - (UPI) - The Value Line Investment Survey reports that a massive decline in earnings seems in store next year for railway equipment manufacturers.

The September 30th backlog of orders is below even the recession-ridden results of 1958 and the rate of new orders is alarmingly meager, the survey says. As a result, it adds, deliveries next year will be down and profit margins are expected to narrow.

Value Line also says that the carriers themselves face declining earnings and revenues in 1961.

B. K. Thurlow of Winslow, Conn. & Stetson says this is the time to sell cyclical stocks and over-exploited glamor issues. Many of these, he says, have only recently completed massive distributive tops indicating substantially lower prices over the long term.

Thursday Reception To Honor Teachers

The two teachers of the Jackson County Board of Christian Education will be honored at a reception Thursday, Nov. 10, at Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., at 7:30 p.m.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

PROTEST TRAINING

WON'T REVEAL AGE
