AND ALL LEADING CANDIDATES FOR HIGH POLITICAL OFFICE SAY:

"VOTE 15 YES"
DON'T BE MISLED:

Billboard Control Measure 15 meets all fair requirements and will protect Oregon's No. 1 tourist attraction . . . scenery. Your Vote Yes:

WILL increase Oregon's $176,000,000 tourist income.

WILL create more jobs in restaurants, motels, gas stations and other tourist facilities to serve the greater number of travelers.

WILL give Oregon a federal bonus of from $500,000 to $800,000 for highway construction at NO additional cost to Oregon taxpayers.

WILL protect your tax dollar. Under existing law, the highway commission can establish information sites. This bill provides that, if established, the cost will be paid by the advertisers, not by you the taxpayer.

YOUR VOTE YES ON MEASURE 15

WILL NOT "put men out of work" or "abolish the billboard industry." Fewer than 150 union members in Oregon are employed by the billboard industry. More than 90% of the billboards are in city limits and other areas not affected by Measure 15. Existing signs are not affected for 5 years. Normal growth and relocation of signs will keep the men at work.
