

Kennedy To Retain Dulles, Hoover

Communist Leaders Open Summit Meeting

Secrecy Shrouds Gathering of Heads

Moscow — UPI — Leaders of the Communist world were reported starting a week long summit meeting today.

There was no public announcement and the arrangements were shrouded in secrecy but reliable sources said a major aim will be to draft a document saying the Communist nations, including Red China, are united under Moscow's leadership.

There was no indication what specific items would be on the agenda but it seemed certain the election of John F. Kennedy as president of the United States would command some attention.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev cabled his congratulations to Kennedy Wednesday, urging him to follow in the footsteps of Franklin D. Roosevelt on international cooperation.

The Soviet press and radio pounced on the defeat of Vice President Richard M. Nixon as justification of previous Red denunciations of the Eisenhower administration.

Communist leaders on hand for the celebration of the 43rd anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution took all this in before the start of the summit meeting.

The two main figures in Moscow are Khrushchev and Communist Chinese Chairman President Liu Shao-chi. Communist China's top man, Mao Tse-tung, did not come but he sent a message Monday acknowledging Soviet leadership of the Communist world.

For district attorney: Alan B. Holmes (R), 15,091; Gerald J. Scannell Jr., (D), 14,514.

For county assessor: Herbert Hunter (R), 12,822; Ray J. Schumacher (D), 16,726.

For county commissioner: Paul B. Rynning (R), 12,293; Edwin H. Taylor (D), 17,014.

For county treasurer: Karl L. Janouch (D), 16,088; Chester L. Rapp (R), 13,107.

For county surveyor: Mark E. Boyden (R), 15,162; Edward A. McGinty (D), 14,253.

JUDICIARY BALLOT
For judge of Supreme Court: William C. Perry, 20,262.

For judge of Supreme Court: Alfred T. Goodwin, 20,084.

For circuit court judge, first judicial district: Orval J. Millard, 21,189.

For Ashland justice of the peace: Frances I. Gallatin, 10,521.

For Gold Hill justice of the peace: Norman Matteson, 2,012.

No. 16, for dogs running at large: yes, 13,246; no, 12,175.

Unemployed Figure Reaches 3.6 Million

Washington — UPI — The number of unemployed reached 3.6 million in October, increasing 200,000 from the previous month and hitting the highest rate since the 1958 recession, the Labor Department reported today.

The new figures pushed the jobless rate—the proportion of unemployed to the total work force—from 5.7 in September to 6.4 in October.

This was the highest rate since December, 1958, when the nation was recovering from an economic recession. An unemployment rate of 6 per cent is used by the Labor Department as the yardstick to determine whether an area is economically "depressed."

The department does not, however, make such determinations for the entire nation. Total employment fell by about 300,000 in October for a total of 67.5 million, "mainly as a result of post-harvest reductions in agriculture," the department said.

The report on unemployment was the subject of a heated pre-election clash between the administration and the Democrats.

Democratic National Chairman Henry M. Jackson and AFL-CIO President George Meany accused the administration of withholding the monthly figures until after Tuesday's election.

Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell said the report would be released when it was ready and denied that the gloomy news was being held back.

The department attributed the increase in the jobless rate primarily to cutbacks in manufacturing, especially in the steel and electronics industries.

In his first press conference since winning the national election, the Democratic victor also announced plans for cooperating with President Eisenhower in the transition of one administration to another.

Kennedy expects to meet with Eisenhower, probably in Washington, late this month.

He also disclosed plans to fly to Texas next week to visit briefly with Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson at LBJ Ranch.

Message to Khrushchev
Tackling a vast amount of organizational work at his Cape Cod home here today, the president also sent a message to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, saying "the achievement of a just and lasting peace will remain a fundamental goal of this nation."

Laying the foundation of an administration in the living room of the cottage of his brother, Robert, the incoming president also made his first formal White House staff appointments.

Theodore C. Sorensen, Lincoln, Neb., as special counsel to the president.

Kenneth O'Donnell, Worcester, Mass., special assistant.

Pierre Salinger, Falls Church, Va., press secretary.

Andrew Hatcher, a Negro and California State Labor Department official on leave, as associate press secretary.

Replies to Eisenhower
In response to Eisenhower's offer to help speed the transition of government, Kennedy telegraphed the President his appreciation. He said he looked forward to meeting with Eisenhower in the near future.

The Democratic winner designated Clark M. Clifford, former special counsel at the White House during the Truman administration, as his representative to meet with Gen. Wilton B. Persons, the assistant to President Eisenhower, for co-ordinating the handover of authority.

Clifford also will arrange for meetings between specialists on the Kennedy staff with representatives of cabinet departments designated by the White House.

Talks With Stevenson
Before holding his crowded news conference in the National Guard Armory, Kennedy had extended telephone conversations with Adlai E. Stevenson, as well as Johnson.

He declined to say whether he was preparing to offer Stevenson a post in the government.

Kennedy will leave Friday for a vacation in Palm Beach, Fla., interrupting his holiday next Thursday for a one-day visit on the Johnson ranch in Texas, then returning to Palm Beach.

The president-elect said he hoped to remain in Florida for a few more days, and then return to Washington two weeks from today.

The president-elect's first press conference was swift, and the questions were rapid, and the answers for the most part concise and to the point.

President-Elect Plans To Meet Eisenhower Soon

Message Sent To Khrushchev

Hyannis Port, Mass. — UPI — President-elect John F. Kennedy today began the construction of a new administration by announcing that he will retain Allan W. Dulles as head of the Central Intelligence Agency and J. Edgar Hoover as director of the FBI.

In his first press conference since winning the national election, the Democratic victor also announced plans for cooperating with President Eisenhower in the transition of one administration to another.

Kennedy expects to meet with Eisenhower, probably in Washington, late this month.

He also disclosed plans to fly to Texas next week to visit briefly with Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson at LBJ Ranch.

Message to Khrushchev
Tackling a vast amount of organizational work at his Cape Cod home here today, the president also sent a message to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, saying "the achievement of a just and lasting peace will remain a fundamental goal of this nation."

Laying the foundation of an administration in the living room of the cottage of his brother, Robert, the incoming president also made his first formal White House staff appointments.

Theodore C. Sorensen, Lincoln, Neb., as special counsel to the president.

Kenneth O'Donnell, Worcester, Mass., special assistant.

Pierre Salinger, Falls Church, Va., press secretary.

Andrew Hatcher, a Negro and California State Labor Department official on leave, as associate press secretary.

Replies to Eisenhower
In response to Eisenhower's offer to help speed the transition of government, Kennedy telegraphed the President his appreciation. He said he looked forward to meeting with Eisenhower in the near future.

The Democratic winner designated Clark M. Clifford, former special counsel at the White House during the Truman administration, as his representative to meet with Gen. Wilton B. Persons, the assistant to President Eisenhower, for co-ordinating the handover of authority.

Clifford also will arrange for meetings between specialists on the Kennedy staff with representatives of cabinet departments designated by the White House.

Talks With Stevenson
Before holding his crowded news conference in the National Guard Armory, Kennedy had extended telephone conversations with Adlai E. Stevenson, as well as Johnson.

He declined to say whether he was preparing to offer Stevenson a post in the government.

Kennedy will leave Friday for a vacation in Palm Beach, Fla., interrupting his holiday next Thursday for a one-day visit on the Johnson ranch in Texas, then returning to Palm Beach.

The president-elect said he hoped to remain in Florida for a few more days, and then return to Washington two weeks from today.

The president-elect's first press conference was swift, and the questions were rapid, and the answers for the most part concise and to the point.

BUYS TICKETS—Dr. Edwin R. Durno, Medford Republican, is shown above obtaining tickets to the Medford High School-South Eugene High school football game in Medford tomorrow night. Dr. Durno, although trailing Congressman Charles O. Porter in Jackson county, has 91,501 votes in the fourth congressional district to Porter's 87,873. Dr. Durno coached a state championship football team in 1922 when he was head coach at Medford High school.

Porter Leading Durno in County

Congressman Charles O. Porter, the Democratic incumbent, held a 23-vote margin over Dr. Edwin R. Durno, Medford Republican, in Jackson county today.

With all 113 precincts in the county completed, Porter had 15,114 to Dr. Durno's 15,091.

There are 1,593 absentee ballots being counted by elections department personnel. County Clerk Marvin Madden said the absentee ballot counting probably will not be completed before Saturday.

Based on the total number of votes cast for President in Jackson county — 30,486—the number of registered voters casting ballots was about 79.95 per cent.

Jackson county voters cast 16,543 votes for Richard M. Nixon, Republican candidate, and 15,943 for Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic candidate for President.

In all other election returns, earlier results were confirmed in the completed count.

Following is the way other voting went in the county's 113 precincts:

For U.S. senator (short term): Mrs. Maurine Neuberger (D), 15,043; Elmo Smith (R), 15,214.

For U.S. senator (regular term): Mrs. Neuberger, 14,677; Smith, 14,956.

For representative from fourth congressional district: Charles O. Porter (D), 15,114; Dr. Edwin R. Durno (R), 15,091.

For secretary of state: Howell Appling Jr., (R), 16,468; Monroe Sweetland (D), 13,401.

For state treasurer: Howard C. Belton (R), 16,636; Ward H. Cook (D), 12,858.

For attorney general: Carl H. Francis (R), 14,629; Robert Y. Thornton (D), 14,766.

For district representative, Jackson county: John R. Delenback (R), 15,193; Robert B. Duncan (D), 17,767; John L. Gregory (D), 10,314; Mrs. Evelyn Nye (R), 13,748.

For county assessor: Alan B. Holmes (R), 15,091; Gerald J. Scannell Jr., (D), 14,514.

For county commissioner: Paul B. Rynning (R), 12,293; Edwin H. Taylor (D), 17,014.

For county treasurer: Karl L. Janouch (D), 16,088; Chester L. Rapp (R), 13,107.

For county surveyor: Mark E. Boyden (R), 15,162; Edward A. McGinty (D), 14,253.

For judge of Supreme Court: William C. Perry, 20,262.

For judge of Supreme Court: Alfred T. Goodwin, 20,084.

For circuit court judge, first judicial district: Orval J. Millard, 21,189.

For Ashland justice of the peace: Frances I. Gallatin, 10,521.

For Gold Hill justice of the peace: Norman Matteson, 2,012.

No. 16, for dogs running at large: yes, 13,246; no, 12,175.

Need for more money in the Oregon Cattlemen's association seemed to be the main theme of the general session this morning at the 48th annual convention of the OCA here.

Outgoing President Dr. Kent Magruder, Clatskanie, reminded the some 300 people attending the Holly theater assembly that the job of presi-

BULL EXHIBITED—As part of Medford's welcome to the Oregon Cattlemen's association convention here, a young Hereford bull is currently on display in the lobby of the Medford branch of the First National bank of Oregon. Ron Anderson, Eagle Point, who raised the bull as a 4-H project, shows off the animal to the group above. They are, left to right, Ken Magruder, Clatskanie,

Lake Project Is Topic of Meeting

A discussion of the Emigrant Lake project was the main topic of business at the Wednesday evening session of the Jackson county planning commission.

The group recommended that the county sanitarian check the land near the lake to see if it is suitable for septic tanks and to check for a drinking water supply.

It was also recommended that the residents near the lake be contacted regarding possible zoning in the area.

When persons encounter bats out in the open this time of year chances are the bat is not normal, Dr. Merkel said, since bats generally hibernate this time of year. It is believed by some authorities, the doctor added, that because rabies is a brain infection this might make enough change in a normally hibernating animal so it will not go into hibernation.

The doctor cautioned that children should be especially warned that if they encounter bats not to pick them up or play with them, but notify the health department or police authorities.

Due to the fact that the county is known to have rabies, there is always the possibility of it spreading to domestic animals, Dr. Merkel said that precautions should be taken so that dogs and cats should not roam at large and they should have preventive shots.

The bat was found on the school ground at the Central Point Junior High school Oct. 28. The state board of health laboratory notified Dr. Merkel of its findings Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Merkel said that the bat was found by some children who took it to their classroom. School authorities notified the health department here. He said that when the bat was found it was either dead or nearly dead. It is the understanding of the health department that no children were bitten.

However, the doctor stressed, rabies may be contacted by a person who handles an infected animal if its saliva gets into a break in the skin of the handler.

There is no indication for real alarm at this time, Dr. Merkel said, but added that the health department is fully aware of the future possibility of this area becoming rabies infected.

Animal Caused Bites
Parents should check their children for any marks which look animal caused, Dr. Merkel said. The only way rabies may be gotten, he said, is through an open wound.

When persons encounter bats out in the open this time of year chances are the bat is not normal, Dr. Merkel said, since bats generally hibernate this time of year. It is believed by some authorities, the doctor added, that because rabies is a brain infection this might make enough change in a normally hibernating animal so it will not go into hibernation.

The doctor cautioned that children should be especially warned that if they encounter bats not to pick them up or play with them, but notify the health department or police authorities.

Due to the fact that the county is known to have rabies, there is always the possibility of it spreading to domestic animals, Dr. Merkel said that precautions should be taken so that dogs and cats should not roam at large and they should have preventive shots.

The bat was found on the school ground at the Central Point Junior High school Oct. 28. The state board of health laboratory notified Dr. Merkel of its findings Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Merkel said that the bat was found by some children who took it to their classroom. School authorities notified the health department here. He said that when the bat was found it was either dead or nearly dead. It is the understanding of the health department that no children were bitten.

However, the doctor stressed, rabies may be contacted by a person who handles an infected animal if its saliva gets into a break in the skin of the handler.

There is no indication for real alarm at this time, Dr. Merkel said, but added that the health department is fully aware of the future possibility of this area becoming rabies infected.

Second Bat Found Here With Rabies

A second bat found in Jackson county recently has been diagnosed as having rabies by the state board of health, Dr. A. Erin Merkel, county health officer, said today.

The bat was found on the school ground at the Central Point Junior High school Oct. 28. The state board of health laboratory notified Dr. Merkel of its findings Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Merkel said that the bat was found by some children who took it to their classroom. School authorities notified the health department here. He said that when the bat was found it was either dead or nearly dead. It is the understanding of the health department that no children were bitten.

However, the doctor stressed, rabies may be contacted by a person who handles an infected animal if its saliva gets into a break in the skin of the handler.

There is no indication for real alarm at this time, Dr. Merkel said, but added that the health department is fully aware of the future possibility of this area becoming rabies infected.

Animal Caused Bites
Parents should check their children for any marks which look animal caused, Dr. Merkel said. The only way rabies may be gotten, he said, is through an open wound.

When persons encounter bats out in the open this time of year chances are the bat is not normal, Dr. Merkel said, since bats generally hibernate this time of year. It is believed by some authorities, the doctor added, that because rabies is a brain infection this might make enough change in a normally hibernating animal so it will not go into hibernation.

The doctor cautioned that children should be especially warned that if they encounter bats not to pick them up or play with them, but notify the health department or police authorities.

Due to the fact that the county is known to have rabies, there is always the possibility of it spreading to domestic animals, Dr. Merkel said that precautions should be taken so that dogs and cats should not roam at large and they should have preventive shots.

The bat was found on the school ground at the Central Point Junior High school Oct. 28. The state board of health laboratory notified Dr. Merkel of its findings Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Merkel said that the bat was found by some children who took it to their classroom. School authorities notified the health department here. He said that when the bat was found it was either dead or nearly dead. It is the understanding of the health department that no children were bitten.

However, the doctor stressed, rabies may be contacted by a person who handles an infected animal if its saliva gets into a break in the skin of the handler.

There is no indication for real alarm at this time, Dr. Merkel said, but added that the health department is fully aware of the future possibility of this area becoming rabies infected.

Animal Caused Bites
Parents should check their children for any marks which look animal caused, Dr. Merkel said. The only way rabies may be gotten, he said, is through an open wound.

When persons encounter bats out in the open this time of year chances are the bat is not normal, Dr. Merkel said, since bats generally hibernate this time of year. It is believed by some authorities, the doctor added, that because rabies is a brain infection this might make enough change in a normally hibernating animal so it will not go into hibernation.

The doctor cautioned that children should be especially warned that if they encounter bats not to pick them up or play with them, but notify the health department or police authorities.

Due to the fact that the county is known to have rabies, there is always the possibility of it spreading to domestic animals, Dr. Merkel said that precautions should be taken so that dogs and cats should not roam at large and they should have preventive shots.

The bat was found on the school ground at the Central Point Junior High school Oct. 28. The state board of health laboratory notified Dr. Merkel of its findings Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Merkel said that the bat was found by some children who took it to their classroom. School authorities notified the health department here. He said that when the bat was found it was either dead or nearly dead. It is the understanding of the health department that no children were bitten.

However, the doctor stressed, rabies may be contacted by a person who handles an infected animal if its saliva gets into a break in the skin of the handler.

There is no indication for real alarm at this time, Dr. Merkel said, but added that the health department is fully aware of the future possibility of this area becoming rabies infected.

Animal Caused Bites
Parents should check their children for any marks which look animal caused, Dr. Merkel said. The only way rabies may be gotten, he said, is through an open wound.

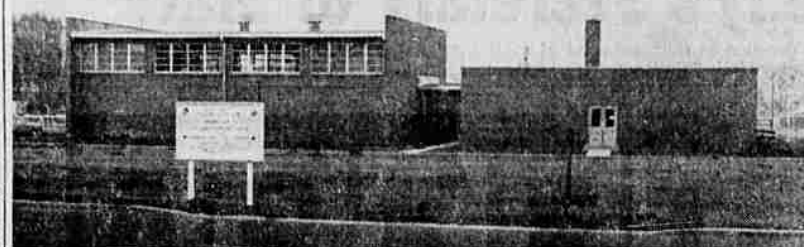

When persons encounter bats out in the open this time of year chances are the bat is not normal, Dr. Merkel said, since bats generally hibernate this time of year. It is believed by some authorities, the doctor added, that because rabies is a brain infection this might make enough change in a normally hibernating animal so it will not go into hibernation.

The doctor cautioned that children should be especially warned that if they encounter bats not to pick them up or play with them, but notify the health department or police authorities.

Due to the fact that the county is known to have rabies, there is always the possibility of it spreading to domestic animals, Dr. Merkel said that precautions should be taken so that dogs and cats should not roam at large and they should have preventive shots.

The bat was found on the school ground at the Central Point Junior High school Oct. 28. The state board of health laboratory notified Dr. Merkel of its findings Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Merkel said that the bat was found by some children who took it to their classroom. School authorities notified the health department here. He said that when the bat was found it was either dead or nearly dead. It is the understanding of the health department that no children were bitten.

DEDICATION SET — After the Veteran's Day parade tomorrow the dedication ceremony will be held for Medford's new Army Reserve center, above. Maj. Gen. William F. Dean (USA retired) will be the principal speaker at the ceremony, scheduled for 12:30 p.m. The reserve center has been named Santo hall in honor of T/Sgt. Hubert Santo, Medford, who died of injuries suffered in action during World War II.

MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM DEAN
Marshal, Speaker

Kasavubu's Group May Win UN Seat

United Nations, N.Y. — UPI — Western diplomats predicted President Joseph Kasavubu's delegation from the Congo would win recognition from the Credentials Committee today unless Russia came up with a new angle to block it.

The nine-member committee met Wednesday to decide whether to seat Kasavubu's delegation or one sent by Patrice Lumumba, the pro-Soviet premier he ousted, but the Soviets forced a 24-hour adjournment.

Wednesday night, over strong Western opposition led by the United States, the General Assembly, by a 48 to 30 vote, adjourned indefinitely its general debate on the Congo.

Providing music for dances will be the Ham Geary Trio Friday evening at the Jackson hotel and the Bob Anderson Sextet Saturday at the country club.

A brunch is scheduled at convention headquarters in the Jackson hotel Sunday morning.

Bill Brew, convention chairman, said that reservations have been received from several California cities and Reno and Carson City, Nev.

The convention is one of three being held in Medford this week end. Others are the Oregon Cattlemen's association, and the state music educators conference.

500 Cheer Nixon As He Arrives in East
Washington — UPI — Vice President Richard Nixon, smiling in his home early today cheered by some 500 partisans waving placards reading, "Nixon in 1964."

Included in the enthusiastic crowd, which braved cold and damp weather, were a sprinkling of cabinet members and other GOP officials at Andrews Air Force base in nearby Maryland.

Scheduled to speak later this morning were Berniz Blann, Mitchell, Ore., Cow Belles president; Stewart Holmes, Terrebonne, Oregon FFA treasurer; and Fred Dressler, president of the American National Cattlemen's association. Jerry Brees, Prineville, gave the treasurer's annual report.

A Cow Belle luncheon and fashion show was held at the Rogue Valley Country club at noon. Various standing and special committees were to make their reports and hold discussions this afternoon.

Key speech Friday will be that of Edward Woolzey, director of the bureau of land management, Washington, D. C. A parade will be held at 11:15 a.m.

Portland — UPI — A second court test of the Oregon Liquor Control commission's 25 per cent "food ruling" has resulted in defeat for the OLCC. Circuit Judge James W. Crawford sustained an appeal from the operator of Van's Olympic room here, ruling the OLCC while acting in "good faith" lacked authority to enforce the regulation.

A similar decision was handed down earlier in Coos county.

Six establishments in all lost their licenses over an OLCC rule which requires that 25 per cent of gross receipts of places selling liquor-by-the-drink be from food. All appealed in courts.

Medford police said a transistor radio caused a two-car smash-up at the Bear creek bridge approaches in Medford this morning.

Rose Allene Kay Temple, 18, of 314 South Ivy st., told police she reached for the radio, which had fallen off the dashboard of the car she was driving, but before she could reach it, she lost control of the car and hit a parked city-owned pickup truck and knocked down a traffic sign.

Parade, Dedication To Highlight Nov. 11

A parade, followed by dedication of the new Army Reserve center, will highlight Veterans Day activities in Medford tomorrow.

The parade will start at 11 a.m. at the city park near the library. It will go east on Eighth st. to Central ave.

Schools, federal, state and local offices will be closed tomorrow, Veterans Day, but most downtown Medford stores will remain open.

The Mail Tribune will publish a noon edition.

In the parade will be four Spanish American War veterans. They are Col. W. H. Paine, 56 North Orange st., Medford; Andy Under, 634 Pennsylvania st., Medford; Ellet Hitt,