

Coming Activities Announced By First Baptist

Sunday school classes for children of all ages and for adults are held each Sunday at First Baptist church, North Central ave. at Fifth st., beginning at 9:40 a.m. A baby nursery is also maintained for this hour, as well as for the two worship services.

The Rev. Edward C. Stauffer's message at the 11 a.m. worship hour Sunday will center around the theme, "The Election That Pleased God." Maynard Hadley, minister of music, will direct the adult choir in singing, "Were You There?" and Mrs. Larry Adams and Miss Joyce Colvin will sing a vocal duet.

Sunday at 1:30 p.m. the senior high and college age young people will meet at the church before going to the Jackson County Farm home to present a service.

The combined adult and youth choirs of the church will meet for a special pre-Thanksgiving practice on Sunday at 5:45 p.m., preceding the training union hour. The two groups will work together in presenting music for the Thanksgiving service on Sunday, Nov. 20.

"The Highway of God's Best" has been chosen by Pastor Stauffer as the sermon subject for the Sunday gospel hour at 7:45 p.m. Mrs. Albert Gandt and her daughter, Virginia, will present Mendelssohn's "Consolation" as an organ and piano duet. A junior high girls quartet and the youth choir singing "Till Be Somewhere Listening" will complete the musical program.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of the evening worship hour.

First Baptist church will have charge of the service at the Medford Gospel Mission on Monday, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p.m.

Minister To Repeat Sermon

Worship at Central Church of Christ, North Central ave. at Jackson st. will begin at 11 a.m. Sunday. The minister, John V. Heberling, will speak on the same theme as he did a year ago in his first message to the congregation. The sermon is entitled "Launch Out Into The Deep."

Central church meets for study at 9:45 a.m. Classes for each age group from pre-school to adult meet following opening exercises. Adult and youth classes will study Psalm 118 on the topic "Our Experience of God."

Teen-age youth will meet at the church at 6 p.m. for a half-hour social time. At 6:30 p.m. youth groups for all school-age children convene at the church.

The congregation will again meet at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Gospel singing will be followed by a message "Thine Is The Kingdom" brought by the minister.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Frank Fleming, superintendent of the Boise Christian Children's Home, Boise, Idaho, will speak on the work of the home and show slide pictures.

St. Luke's Church Announces Topic

The sermon topic for the Sunday morning worship service at St. Luke's Methodist church will be, "Dividing To Conquer" by the pastor, the Rev. Melvin Dixon.

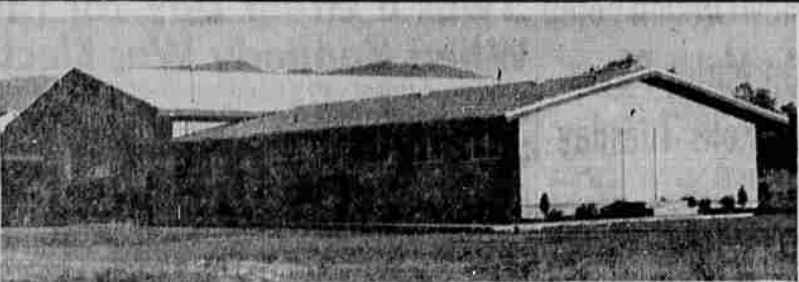

The choral ensemble led by Richard Gannaway, director, will sing "I Found My Savior There." Supervised nursery is provided for pre-school children and junior church is held for first through fourth grade children.

The church school meets at 9:45 a.m. with the junior class in charge of preliminaries. The school includes classes for all ages. The Junior High and Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowships will meet at 5 and 7 p.m., respectively.

The official board will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. Men's breakfast will be held Wednesday at 6:45 a.m. and the choir at 7:15 p.m. for rehearsal. Inquirer's class led by the pastor will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

St. Luke's is located at 2940 Siskiyou Blvd., across the street from the Hoover Elementary school.

LUTHERAN TOPIC
The theme for the 22nd Sunday after Trinity at Zion Lutheran church will be on a "National Basis," with the Rev. H. C. Covert's sermon title "God Bless America." The senior choir anthem will be "O Lord, Redeemer." The sacrament of infant baptism will be administered at the 11 a.m. service.

FOUR SQUARE CHURCH - The new Foursquare church is located at 2200 Roberts rd. Services were first held in the building Oct. 16 after the congregation had to vacate their old building on Biddele rd. at East Jackson st. as it is in the right-of-way for the new Pacific freeway. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. the team of Evangelists, Wayne and Mary Westberg will continue their revival. Mrs. Westberg will speak on "Up-to-Date Signs of Christ's Soon Coming." The services will be held nightly next week except Monday and Saturday. Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service the Rev. R. H. Mathewson, pastor, will conclude his series of sermons on "The Two Outstanding Signs of the Soon Coming of Christ."

First Methodist To Observe 75th Anniversary in Medford

First Methodist church will begin observance on Sunday of the 75th anniversary of the founding of the church in Medford on Nov. 5, 1885.

The Rev. Clarence J. Forsberg, minister of First Methodist church, Eugene, will be guest speaker for both the 9:30 and the 11 a.m. services, using as the title of his sermon "The Strange Case of the Missing Church."

The Rev. Forsberg has been in Eugene at First church since June of 1957. He is a member of the Oregon Annual committee on ministerial training and qualifications, and is Oregon Conference secretary of evangelism.

THE REV. C. J. FORSBERG Sunday Speaker

Music is being planned by Mrs. Charles Adamson, church choir director, and the special guest of the choir will be Mrs. Lucy Lyman, 92 years young, who has sung in Methodist choirs for more than 50 years. She came to Medford in 1922 and was soloist here for many years.

Choir Members
Special mention is also made regarding two singers of the present choir who have served continuously for 20 years or more. They are Mrs. Harry Meyers, who began in 1940, and Mrs. Howard Bush, 1939. Fifteen former choir members have been invited.

For the anthem, the choir will sing "Send Out Thy Light." Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and her daughter, Miss Susan Schoppert, will sing a duet "Whispering Hope."

Following the 11 a.m. service, a coffee hour will be held honoring older members of the church and past ministers. Special honors will be given to those who have been members of the church for more than 50 years.

Display Planned
Mrs. Jessie Minear is collecting pictures and other keepsakes to be displayed during the coffee hour. Many items are being supplied by Mrs. Robert (Donna B.) Taylor who came to the Methodist Episcopal church, South, in 1901; and by Mrs. Clarence (Grace) Pankey, whose father was instrumental in the construction of the first Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber are general chairmen of the anniversary observance.

The final session of the School of Christian Living will be held at 5:30 p.m. in the church. The class studying Bishop Kennedy's book "I Believe" will hear members tell what the study meant to them; following which the Rev. Robert Dowrey will explain the vows of membership.

Omar Bacon will conduct the final session of the study "Alcohol, A Christian's Responsibility." Various reports will be given and a discussion will follow. It is at this final session that church action will be recommended.

Following the snack supper, which is being served at 6:30 p.m. by members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the senior high Methodist Youth Fellowship will hold a slave auction to help raise money for their projects. This group will then begin a three-week study of programs entitled "The Christian and the State." Miss Betty

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

Building Fund Campaign Of First Christian Church Plans Kick-Off Dinner

"The Task Ahead" is the title of the sermon which the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach at both services Sunday morning at the First Christian church. This is the first of a series of four sermons to emphasize the Building Fund campaign which is being conducted at the church.

The youth choir will sing "The Word Says So" at the first service. "I Waited for the Lord" will be the anthem sung by the church choir at the 10:55 a.m. service.

Mrs. R. L. Bailey, Mrs. Vaughn Keyser, and Mrs. Ralph Cook will be hostesses at the coffee hour following the second worship service.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will study "A Story in Every Life" at their 6:30 p.m. meeting. Dianne Pickens will be the leader. Dale Carson will have charge of the worship period.

Rosann Warren will lead the study at the Christian Youth Fellowship meeting on the subject "To Seek the Truth." Gary Myers will be host for the Fireside meeting at his home.

Kick-off Dinner
The kick-off dinner for all workers of the Building Fund campaign, including the fund campaign committee, team members, committee members and minute men, will be at 6 p.m. Wednesday in the Fellowship hall.

Wayne Wakefield is general chairman of the campaign and Mrs. L. George Bannister is secretary. Mrs. Wayne Troxell, J. F. Evans, Ralph Cook, and Russell Simmons are committee chairmen.

Serving as captains of the six teams are Roy Henry, B. B. King, Earl Purdy, John R. Schwab, Donald House, and Walt Weber.

Kyker, chairman of citizenship area, is in charge. They will have a fireside in the home of Janice Taylor, 3254 Jacksonville highway, following the program meeting.

Question Sheet
The Older Youth Fellowship will meet, following the School of Christian Living, in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Roseberry, 3310 Hollywood ave., for a "question sheet."

The junior high MYF will meet at 5:30 p.m. for a program to be presented by Sonya Vermuellen and Mary Beth Lockington.

The official board of the church will meet at 7:45 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 15, and the board of trustees will hold a 7 a.m. meeting in the Town House restaurant, 127 South Central ave.

Highlight of the week will be the smorgasbord planned for Thursday, Nov. 17, under the chairmanship of Morris Boughner. The public is invited to attend. Pre-dinner entertainment will be provided by John Lusk at the electric organ, and diners will be served at 5:30 p.m., 6:30 and 7:30, according to reservations which may be made at the church office or from church members. Plans are to feed 1,500 persons for which reservations must be made.

Sunday, Nov. 20, will close the week long celebration when the Rev. James Jenkins, minister of the Roseburg Methodist church will be the guest speaker. He is the son-in-law of Dr. J. Thomas Dixon, former associate minister of this church. An after-dinner program is being arranged by Mrs. Anne Gorby and will consist of memories from some of the older member guests, and Mrs. Adamson is planning special music.

Stewardship Sunday Set By Medford Presbyterians

The usual Every Member Canvass has been changed at the First Presbyterian church into the Festival of Giving under the direction of Otto Frohmayer and Murray Gardiner. More than 120 officers and workers have told the story of the outreach of the church and gifts will be received at the 9:30 and the 11 a.m. services Sunday.

Dr. West will preach on the theme "For God So Loved - He Gave." The youth choir will sing "Treasures in Heaven" at the 9:30 a.m. service and the chancel choir, "Springs in the Desert," at the second service. Louis Clayson, formerly on the faculty at Southern Oregon college, will sing "Then Shall the Righteousness Shine Forth" at the 11 a.m. service.

Junior High Fellowship will meet at the church at 5 p.m.

Reconsecration To Be Emphasis
Nov. 12 to 19 will be a week of special prayer and scripture study for members of the Seventh-day Adventist churches in the valley. Emphasis of the week of reconsecration will be on "Christians Meeting the Challenge of Today's World."

The church pastor, John Trude, Ronald Keger Jr. and Arthur Wellman will be assisted in leading the meetings by local church elders in the four Adventist churches in the district. Besides the Saturday morning worship hours, services will be held in the evenings throughout the week.

Adventist church members have been asked during this week of devotion to make financial sacrifices in order to give to a special mission offering Nov. 19.

Thanksgiving Dinner Planned by Youth
Central Point-Three classes in the Bible school of the Church of Christ, Third and Oak sts., Central Point, have maintained 100 per cent in attendance and Bibles for the last three weeks. It was announced by Aubrey Stith, superintendent. In order to pick a banner class the number of visitors had to be considered.

The high school young people will host a Thanksgiving dinner and program Thursday, Nov. 17, at 7 p.m. in the Central Point Grange hall at Fifth and Pine sts. Families are to take a covered dish usually served at a Thanksgiving dinner. The classes of the Bible school will present the program.

Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. worship service Mr. Jean M. Shelley, minister, will speak on "Redeeming the Time." At the 7:30 p.m. service his topic will be "The Secret of Happiness."

Gold Hill Church Tells Sermon Topic

Gold Hill - "Four Kinds of Christians" will be the sermon subject by Miss Jean Cunningham, minister of the Gold Hill Christian church, Sunday, at 11 a.m.

The Bible school contest will begin Sunday morning. Points will be allowed for taking Bibles, reading chapters from the Bible, taking visitors, and for taking new members.

The Bible and prayer group of the church will meet Thursday, Nov. 17 at 8 p.m. at the church.

Roundtable Topic To Continue Series

This week's "Ministers Roundtable" program will be the conclusion of the discussion begun last week.

The topic is "Are the current business practices in America above reproach from a Christian point of view?" The panel will be the same as last week. The Rev. Fredrick Evans, First Christian church; the Rev. Melvin Dixon, St. Luke's Methodist church; the Rev. Escil Hiser, church of the Brethren; and John V. Heberling, Central Church of Christ, moderator.

"Ministers Roundtable" is heard each Sunday morning at 8:05 a.m. over KMED. Questions are invited from the listeners.

YOU'LL ENJOY LISTENING TO
The Children's Bible Hour
9:00 A.M.
The Evening Gospel Hour
7:30 P.M.
Each Sunday on KWIN
1400 On Your Dial

Reconsecration To Be Emphasis

The annual Christmas Bazaar will be held Thursday, Nov. 17.

Westminster
Stewardship Sunday will be observed at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday.

All members of the church have been contacted by stewardship interpreters, who have explained the program and responsibilities of the church for the coming year. Pledges for 1961 will be dedicated during the service and the Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach on the subject "A Window on the World." The choir will sing "The Lord Is My Shepherd," and the children's church will be held during the hour. Nursery care is available for pre-school age children.

Church school classes for all ages of youth and adults meet at 9:45 a.m. New students and their parents are invited to enroll.

The Junior High Fellowship will meet from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Gordon, 2525 Lyman ave. The meeting will be entitled "Our Christian Stewardship." The Senior High Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. in the youth building at the church. Mark McQueen will lead a meeting entitled "Why Are We Presbyterians." Elders Larry Clark and Jim Rowan will participate in the discussion. Fireside will be at the home of Pat Thompson, 18 North Modoc dr.

Advent Message Set At Nazarene Church

The Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., will give an Advent message Sunday on "Do You Know the Time?" The 11 a.m. worship service is broadcast over KDOV.

Sunday school is held at 9:45 a.m. and a fully staffed nursery is available during Sunday school and the worship services.

The pastor's message in the 7 p.m. hour will follow the theme started last Sunday, "What Does It Mean To Be Sanctified?" Music for the day will be provided by the sanctuary choir and a mixed quartet.

Pastors with their wives from the Oregon Pacific District of the Church of the Nazarene will meet for a three-day conference Monday through Wednesday at Oceanlake. The conference will be held at the Dorchester House with Dr. W. D. McGraw, district superintendent, in charge, and Dr. D. I. Vanderpool, general superintendent from Kansas City, Mo., as guest speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Sanner will attend.

Unity Topics Listed For Three Sundays

"You Can Be Healed" will be the Unity devotional topic Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at the Pythian hall, Fifth and Grape sts., by the Rev. Katherine Bosworth, minister.

The following Sunday her topic will be "Reconstruction" and on Nov. 27 she will speak on "Sowing and Reaping".

The Unity Center of Medford, 995 South Oakdale ave., is open daily Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For private consultation with the minister by appointment telephone SPring 2-6902.

Ashland Methodist Services Listed

Ashland-"Deeds Not Done" will be the sermon topic Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts., Ashland, by Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister. A coffee hour will follow the service.

At 5 p.m. Rick and Nancy Hester will present a program on Thanksgiving during the Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting.

Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. a potluck dinner will be held at the church sponsored by the commission on missions.

Child Evangelism Director To Speak

The Rev. James S. Kiefer, international director of the Child Evangelism Fellowship, will be the featured speaker at a dinner meeting of the local fellowship to be held Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 6:30 p.m. at North's Chuck Wagon. The public is invited, and a charge will be made.

Mr. Kiefer, a graduate of Dallas Theological seminary, served for years directing the Child Evangelism work in Germany before he accepted his present position as international director of CEF.

The Misses Ann and Beatrice Hollenbeck, Salem, will accompany Mr. Kiefer to Medford, to conduct a Children's Worker's conference with a course in visual aids which will be held at the First Christian church, 209 South Oakdale Wednesday, Nov. 16 through Nov. 18th. The school is inter-denominational and the public is invited.

Mr. Kiefer will hold discussion meetings concerning the missionary work in Germany and related topics on Wednesday, Nov. 16, at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. at the conference.

The speaker is en route from his office in Grand Rapids, Mich., to a meeting in Los Angeles and will be here Tuesday night and Wednesday only.

Eastwood Events Include Film

Bill Mauck, currently teaching the Adult class at Eastwood Baptist church school, will teach the lesson on "God in My Life" Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

At the morning worship the Rev. Clifford Young, pastor will give the message, "Voice in the Flame," using Exodus 3:1-6 as a scriptural background. The chancel choir under the direction of Carro Graber will sing, "Savior, Source of Every Blessing."

At 2:30 p.m. the church is having its Annual Program Planning retreat. At this time the church program for 1961 will be presented, and the calendar for the coming year made. All board and committee members or president or officer of a subsidiary group is to attend.

At 6:30 p.m. the Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet. The Pastor's class will have its final meeting at this time for the current class.

At the service at 7:30 p.m. a Burma Mission film will be presented.

Monday, Nov. 14, is work night at the church.

At the midweek service the pastor will continue the study of the devotional life of the early church, in the Book of Acts.

The chancel choir will rehearse Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Jacksonville Bible Fellowship Topics

Jacksonville - The Rev. James R. Hendricks, pastor of the Jacksonville Bible Fellowship, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. service on "God's Good News." The meetings are held in the Old Protestant church across from the museum. At 7 p.m. his topic will be "A Great Christian's Apology."

At 5 p.m. Rick and Nancy Hester will present a program on Thanksgiving during the Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting.

Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. a potluck dinner will be held at the church sponsored by the commission on missions.

THE REV. JAMES S. KIEFER International Director

Exposition of Holy Sacrament Planned Saturday

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, the ceremony in which the Sacred Host is displayed in a monstrance on the altar for the people to see and adore, will take place in Sacred Heart Catholic church Saturday beginning at 1 p.m.

The devotion will continue until the first Sunday mass at 6 a.m., but will be divided into two sections. During the first part, lasting from 1 to 9 p.m., groups of at least six parishioners, men, women and children, plus a leader will spend an hour each in vocal and silent prayer and meditation before the Blessed Sacrament. At 9 p.m. the men's Nocturnal Adoration society will continue the prayer throughout the night in accordance with their regular monthly schedule.

General intention of the devotion is for the welfare of the parish and to ask God's blessing on its people and their undertakings. All organizations and individual members of the church have been invited to join in an hour of the prayers.

Present plans, it was announced, call for repeating the devotion on the second Saturday of each month for at least the next nine months, at which time it will be decided whether or not to continue it as a permanent parish devotion.

Jacksonville Topic Told for Sunday

Jacksonville - "Do This and Thou Shalt Live" is the sermon subject for the worship service at the Assembly of God church, Jacksonville, by W. Elwood Irby, pastor.

There will be special emphasis on missions during the 11 a.m. service.

Pastor Irby will speak on the subject "What Made the Early Church Effective?" Sunday at the 7:30 p.m. service.

The conclusion of the story "Who Ever's House" will be told in the Sunday school session. A surprise feature is also planned. Sunday school starts at 9:45 a.m.

Eastwood BAPTIST CHURCH

Clifford J. Young, B.D. Pastor
Keeneway at Ridgeway
MEDFORD, OREGON

November 13, 1960
9:45 a.m. Garded Church School
11:00 a.m. Morning Worship
"Voice in the Flame."
2:30 p.m. ALL-CHURCH PLANNING RETREAT
6:30 p.m. B. Y. F. Pastor's Class
7:30 p.m. Popular Evening Service
Burma Mission Film
Strip

You Are Invited
WORSHIP WITH US

UNITY CENTER OF MEDFORD

995 South Oakdale
Affiliated
Unity School of Christianity,
Lee's Summit, Mo.

Midweek Devotional and Healing Service - every Wednesday 7:30 p.m. Study class every Friday at 11:00 a.m. at 995 So Oakdale

Regular Sunday Devotional Services-11:00 a.m. Sunday School
Y.O.U.
at
PYTHIAN HALL
5th and Grape sts.
Center Open Daily
10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Prayer Ministry and Counseling
by appointment.
Rev. Katherine Bosworth,
Minister
Office SP 2-6902

JOIN AN INTERNATIONAL AUDIENCE LISTENING DAILY TO THE

Back to the Bible
Broadcast
DIRECTOR: THEODORE H. EPP
K R V C
1350 KC
12:30 P.M.
Monday thru Saturday

THE REV. W. R. CLARK Sunday Speaker

Girls' Trio To Sing Here Sunday

The Singing Messengers, a girls' trio from Bible Standard college, Eugene, will give a concert of sacred music Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at the Open Bible Standard church, Medford.

Accompanying the trio to Medford will be the Rev. W. Rolfe Clark, executive vice president of the college, and Mrs. Clark. Mr. Clark will speak at the close of the concert.

Three Churches Slate Events

Central Point - The theme of the Sunday sermon when the First Presbyterian church of Central Point assembles for worship at 11 a.m. will be on stewardship. Following the morning worship a coffee hour will be held in the church social hall.

The Adult Bible study class will meet at the home of the pastor, the Rev. Robert Olmsted, 20 Crater Lane on Sunday at 9:45 a.m. All are invited to attend.

The Westminster Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. in the home of Miss June Hopkins, 1010 Crown ave. Central Point. Miss Judy Gobhard and Miss Karen Holley will present the program for the evening.

Jacksonville - Sunday at First Presbyterian church in Jacksonville the Rev. King K. Jones will speak on "The First Law of Spiritual Dynamics." The choir will sing an anthem, "O Lord, Remember Me."

The Jacksonville Westminster Fellowship will meet in the church at 7 p.m. This meeting will be the first in a series on the subject of marriage. The initial topic is "What Is Love?"

Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. the church will hold a big, all-you-can-eat, chicken dinner catered by North's Chuck Wagon. During a short meeting following the dinner the stewardship aspect of the life of the church will be discussed and any questions answered. Anyone interested in or puzzled by this phase of the church's activity is invited. Tickets are available and may be purchased following the service Sunday morning.

Phoenix - Next Sunday, the Gudjons will speak at the First Presbyterian church, Phoenix. Miss Cynthia Owens will play an accordion solo.

The Every Member Canvass was reported as being successful last Sunday.

The "Galloping Top" sponsored by Mrs. Floyd DeJarnett and Mrs. Jack Sult was said to have been profitable. Mrs. Bert Standiford and Mrs. E. R. Clafin collected $30 net proceeds toward the remodeling fund.

The high school young people will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m. for a meeting Sunday and then will go to a church member's home, Last Sunday they met at the home of Mrs. Anna Caldwell, 403 Second st. They will start a junior high school group.

Musical Chalk Talk Planned for Sunday

Guest at the Friends church Sunday for the second week of the "Here We Grow Again" Sunday school contest will be Mrs. John Champ, Central Point, who will do a musical chalk drawing in the opening assemblies at 9:45 and 11 a.m. for children and young people. The adult department will see a Billy Graham film, "In the Beginning."

Pastor Clayton Crisman will speak at the worship services at 9:45 and 11 a.m. and the adult and youth choirs will sing. Speaker for the praise and worship service at 7:30 p.m. will be assistant pastor, Dan Nolla, and there will be music by a male trio.

Visitation teams will call in the homes of Sunday school prospects each Monday evening during the contest.