election returns. Mr. and Mrs. Berwick L. Wood invited a group of friends to their home, 2445 East Main street, for an election night party. Ten were invited to listen to the returns and for a late supper.

Medford Couple Visit in Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. John Mansfield, 1615 Crater Lake avenue, returned to Medford November 2 following a 3 1/2 weeks vacation in Hawaii.

Highlights of their stay in the Islands were the activities during Aloha week which included the crowning of the King and Queen of Aloha week, a week end at Kona resort, and a trip to Pearl Harbor aboard Henry Kaiser's ship "Catamaran." The couple visited friends and while sightseeing throughout the Islands visited Maui where they watched the filming of the new Frank Sinatra film, "Devil at Four O'Clock."

Card Party

Wenonah club of Westonka Council, Degree of Pocahontas, will hold a cookie and coffee card party Thursday, November 17, at 1 p.m. at Redman hall, Apple street. The public is invited to attend.

David Abel To Play Here

David Abel, young west coast violinist, will play in Medford Saturday, November 19, for the season's first Jackson County Civic Music concert.

Young Abel established himself as one of the foremost of the younger generation of American violinists with a Town Hall debut. He has appeared as soloist under Arthur Fiedler with the San Francisco symphony; also under Fiedler with the Boston Pops orchestra; and with the Boston symphony under Pierre Monteux.

The violinist also appeared on the Standard Hour with the Los Angeles philharmonic, and has filled many other notable engagements with other symphonies.

His local appearance will be at the Medford High school auditorium.

Couple To Wed At Holiday Time

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Strom, 1464 Dixie lane, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mavis Evelyn, to Dennis Ronald Lundgren, son of Mrs. Eugene Franklin, 1224 Stewart avenue and the late Ronald Lundgren. Both Miss Strom and her fiancé are 1950 graduates of Medford High school. Miss Strom is a freshman at Southern Oregon college and Mr. Lundgren is employed by the Piggly Wiggly store.

The wedding has been set for December 26, and will be held at home.

The wedding has been set for December 26, and will be held at home.

Dinner-Dance Set Wednesday

Lively Rogues will hold the November dinner-dance at the Rogue Valley Country club, Wednesday, November 16. Dinner will begin at 7:30 p.m. with dancing following.

The date for this event was changed from the original schedule due to conflicting events.

Host couples for this meeting are Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leijnaar.

Members not contacted by telephone prior to Monday may make their reservations by calling Mrs. Stephen R. Mosher, Spring 3-5158, or Mrs. James S. Richeson, Spring 2-8602.

Students Make Wedding Plans

Among the many weddings being planned for Medford during the holidays will be that of Miss Christopher Leath of Camden, Ark., to David M. Bosworth. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leath of Camden, and her fiancé is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., Route 1, Box 82, Jacksonville, Ore.

The wedding is set for four o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, December 28, at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford.

The bride-elect is a junior in political science at the University of Oregon and Mr. Bosworth is a senior in business administration at the same school. Miss Leath and Mr. Bosworth plan to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents at their home on the Applegate and wedding plans will be completed at that time.

Travel Study Club Plans CARE Tea November 21

The Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will join the General Federation of Women's clubs and the Oregon Federation in supporting the CARE program for Latin American countries, according to Mrs. Jack D. Brummond, Travel Study club president.

"They will, through CARE supply the equipment and tools necessary for self-help and self-respect. The lessening of human suffering on a people-to-people basis has and always will be CARE's greatest concern," Mrs. Brummond stated.

A CARE tea on Monday, November 21, at the Girls' Community club will kick off the CARE campaign.

Mrs. Brummond appointed Mrs. Clay M. Lee, chairman for the tea. Others on the committee are Mrs. Edward C. Root, Mrs. William E. Boone, Mrs. Jason Ottinger, Mrs. Beryl Lyon and Mrs. Brummond. The tea will be from 2 to 4 p.m. and the public is invited to attend. There will be music and speakers during the afternoon.

CARE is a government approved, but not government supported organization.

Countries Assisted

The General Federation CARE program will assist the people of Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico and Panama.

Latin America was selected because more than one-third of the total United States investments abroad is in this area.

The General Federation of Women's club's CARE program is one in which a supreme effort is being made to alleviate the suffering and misery these people are experiencing, Mrs. Brummond said.

Mrs. Lee, First District president of the Oregon Federation, has asked every club in the district to support this program.

Luncheon Planned By Past Matrons

Past Matrons club, Adarel chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred J. Fick, 502 North Holly street, Monday, November 14. A salad luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. E. E. Evans will assist the hostess.

Mrs. Frank Hopewell, Eagle Point, poses in red satin ball gown which she modeled for the Medford Junior Service league Champagne Supper and style show held November 5 at Rogue Valley Country club. The design on the skirt is executed in sequins and brilliants. "Supper with Caesar" was the theme for the party, and decorations were in gold and white. Models posed against huge white pillars moved into the Starlight room for the event.
