Showers Honor Miss Higinbotham

Central Point-Miss Laurel Higinbotham, whose wedding to Gerald William Anderson is set for November 26, has been honored at two recent parties.

Members of the choir of First Covenant church, Seattle, honored Miss Higinbotham at a party and shower given at the church October 31. She sings with the choir. About 50 attended the party.

Community Bible church in Central Point honored the bride-elect at a shower given in Central Point. Mrs. Lewis Collins and Mrs. Simmie Hilliard headed the committee in charge, and about 60 members of the congregation attended the event, held in the church recreation room. A program was given and Miss Higinbotham was presented gifts for her new home.

The bride-elect, a nurse at Swedish hospital in Seattle, will arrive in the valley before Thanksgiving. The wedding will be held at Community Bible church, and the Rev. Rolf Hansen, former pastor of the church, will come from Spokane to read the ceremony. He will be assisted by the Rev. Paul Kroon, present pastor. The Rev. Mr. Hansen will be accompanied by Mrs. Hansen and their family.

Mrs. Fred W. Greene (nee Sheryl Owen) is shown in her wedding gown following the ceremony this fall in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Burlingame, Calif. Mrs. Greene, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Owen, Millbrae, Calif., and her husband, a son of Col. and Mrs. Fred W. Greene, Long Mountain road, Eagle Point, are students at Oregon State college.

Medford Woman Away for Month

Mrs. Fred Rankin, Richmond avenue, left Friday for Portland to attend an informal meeting of the community services committee of the Oregon Council on Aging. She is a member of the committee.

From Portland Mrs. Rankin planned to continue to Seattle where she will spend a month with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Tullock, cousins. While in the Washington city, Mrs. Rankin plans to visit and survey the Hamilton Senior center.

Louis Clayton, well known tenor, will be one of the soloists for a concert to be given this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Medford High school auditorium by the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon. Mr. Clayton, formerly of the faculty of Southern Oregon college and now teaching at Sacramento State college in California, will sing with Mrs. Lois Reed, Mrs. Lois Utterbach and Maynard Hadley in Rossini's "Stabat Mater," which will be the principal work on this afternoon's program. The concert will open with a dramatic overture composed by Director Richard D. Werner, and will also include Bizet's "L'Arlesienne Suite." Mrs. Virginia Westerfield will play the saxophone solo for this number. Tickets will be sold at the door and coffee will be served at intermission.

Eugene Bennett To Show Works at Rogue Gallery

A one-man show of paintings, mosaics and sculpture by Eugene Bennett will open Tuesday, November 15, at the Rogue Gallery, 220 West Main street.

Mr. Bennett, Medford artist and teacher, will be honored at a reception Tuesday from 8 until 10 p.m. at the gallery. Nearly 100 of his works will be included in the show.

The exhibit will continue through December 4.

Mr. Bennett currently has exhibits at the Benjamin Galleries, Chicago, The Art Rental Galleries at Chicago Art Institute and Portland Art Museum and Architectural Arts Services, San Francisco. During 1960 the artist has had one-man shows at Southern Oregon college, Ashland; Portland Art Museum, Klamath Falls; and was the sweepstakes winner of the annual Southern Oregon Art Exhibit in Grants Pass in August. His works were also exhibited at the Oregon State fair and the Artists of Oregon Annual show at the Portland Art Museum both in September. During June he exhibited at four art fairs in Chicago.

Rogue Gallery is open Tuesday through Saturday from noon until 4 p.m. and Mondays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. There is no charge and the public is invited to view the exhibit.

Medford Ladies of Elks To Hold Annual Luncheon

Ashland Ladies of Elks will be guests of Medford Ladies of Elks at a luncheon and card party Tuesday, November 15, in the party lounge at the Elks temple. Festivities will start at noon with a social half hour preceding the serving of luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

This is the annual party of the two groups and it is suggested that this would be an advantageous time for inactive members and for wives of new Elks members to attend and become acquainted. For those wishing to play cards, there will be tables for bridge, canasta and pinocle. Medford women attending are requested to take a salad.

Applegate - William Bird, formerly of Applegate, has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Krouse. Mr. and Mrs. Bird and family are residing at Encinada, Calif.

Miss Taylor To Speak at Meeting

Guest speaker for a meeting of Reames Social club Wednesday, November 16, at the Masonic temple, will be Miss De Anne Taylor. She was an American Field Service student in Berlin, Germany, last summer and is now a senior at Medford High school. She will show slides and speak.

The program will follow the noon no-host luncheon.

Mrs. Donald Ashpole, president, announced that cards will follow the short program and all Order of Eastern Star members are invited to attend.

The chairman for the luncheon is Mrs. H. E. Nulton and those assisting are Mrs. Audrey Roberts, Mrs. Ross Gilkinson, Mrs. John Eddy, Mrs. H. F. Nordwick, Mrs. George Burrell and Miss Susan Williams.

Degree of Honor Protective association will meet at the Girls Community club, Monday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m. for executive and business meetings. Mrs. James Stewart will be hostess for the social hour.
