Charter Night Ceremonies Conducted for New Bethel

Bethel 69, Medford's third bethel of the International Order of Job's Daughters, observed its charter night November 11 at the Masonic temple. Three new members were initiated and members of the guardian council were installed. Forty-one girls are on the charter list.

Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Portland, grand guardian, and L. R. Manning, Medford, associate grand guardian, presented the charter to the new group. Honored Queen Janet Turner conducted the meeting.

The Misses Marilyn Conrad, Sue Morris and Karen Smith became members of the new bethel. Installed as guardian council members were Mrs. John North, guardian; Wallace Eri, associate guardian; Mrs. William Manning, secretary; Robert Stewart, treasurer; Mrs. Earl Brewold, musician; Mrs. Jennie Creager, guardian of sociability; Mrs. Albert Brown, guardian of hospitality; Mrs. Morris Boughner, director of epochs; and John Pond, fraternal relations.

Guests introduced included honored queens Thresa Six, Bethel 55, and Carla Brough, Bethel 14, both of Medford; and Betty McDonald, Bethel 22, Ashland.

Princesses introduced were the Misses Kay Conaway, Bethel 31, Portland; Judy Eberhart, and Peggy Parsons, both of 22, Ashland; Diane Blue and Pamela Cherry, 36, Kerby.

Officers honored included Mrs. Harold Gordon, Medford, grand chaplain; Mrs. W. K. Sult, Medford, vice-grand guardian; Mrs. Homer Snyder, grand second messenger and worthy matron of Western chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Kerby. Other guests included Edward Grimm, associate guardian, Elhart, past grand guardian and past guardian, 22 and 14. Members of the new bethel performed an addendum in honor of the grand guardian and presented to her a gift dressed with 69 nickle a recognition of the 69th bethel. A gift was also presented to Mr. Manning.
