

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Crawford

Wedding Of Interest In Valley

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held October 28 at Rockwood Church of God, Portland, when Miss Patricia Joyce Timmons, Dayton, Ore., became the bride of James D. Crawford, son of Mrs. J. H. Crawford, 531 Berrydale avenue, Medford. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Timmons, Dayton.

Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a white silk frock styled with empire waistline, short sleeves, scoop neckline and flared skirt. Her elbow length veil was held by a crown of pearlized orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Miss Carolee Weiss, Portland, attended the bride. Howard Henderson, Walport, served as best man.

Howard J. Timmons Jr. and Craig Timmons, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles and seated the guests. Larry Burlison was also an usher.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High school and both of the couple are graduates of Linfield college, McMinnville. The bride is a teacher at the Parkrose Junior High school, Portland, and the bridegroom is an accountant in Portland where the newlyweds are making their home.

Kis-Morris Wedding Rites Held at Methodist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gene Morris are making their home at 501 Oak street following their wedding November 5 at First Methodist church. The bride is the former Catherine L. Milani Kisil, daughter of Mrs. Gladys L. Milani, 1939 Roberts road. Mr. Morris is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Morris, 730 Dakota street.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the 7 o'clock evening ceremony attended by 40 relatives and friends. Purple and white chrysanthemums decorated the chapel for the ceremony and Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the organ wedding music.

The bride given in marriage by Wynn Milani, her brother, wore a pink lace frock with pink crown and veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Gary Rupert attended the bride. She wore a blue velvet princess style frock. Her flowers were pink carnations.

David Morris served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Mr. Rupert and Philip Cross.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Charles Dallas, Grants Pass, cut and served the cake and Miss Monica Setty poured the punch.

Jana Ray Morris, sister of the bridegroom, lighted the candles.

The bride changed to a pink wool suit with white and tan accessories for a supper held later that evening at Kim's restaurant. It was attended by 20 close relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and was discount clerk and secretary for the First National Bank of Oregon, Medford branch. Mr. Morris attended Medford High school and is employed by Fir Ply corporation.

Crown Prince Wedding To Be Shown

Colored pictures of the wedding of the Crown Prince of Japan will be shown Monday, November 14, at 1 p.m. in the Senior Activity Center, 601 East Jackson street, to the Arm Chair Travel group by Mrs. Charles Kyer.

The pictures were taken by the Kyers while Mr. Kyer, a chief warrant officer in the United States Army, was stationed in Japan before arriving in the Rogue valley on his retirement.

Mrs. Kyer is executive secretary of the Tuberculosis and Health association. She became interested in the activities at the Center while spending several mornings there during the last two weeks with the Community Service group from the Fifty Plus club who were helping her with the Christmas Seal campaign by stuffing envelopes.

The Center committee announced that the Red Cross Motor Corps takes members to the Wood-carving class on Wednesdays who have been unable to attend due to lack of transportation. This class has now added clay sculpture to the woodcarving. Both are taught by Glenn Van Winkle during the same class on Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. Gifts of some special woods for carving were received from Lesly Dike, 728 West Jackson street, for the use of the class.

The Oil Painting and Wood-carving classes plan to hold an exhibit of their recent work during December.

Mrs. Bert Orr Entertains Club

Yreka-Mrs. Bert Orr, 411 Fourth street, was hostess November 7 for a meeting of her sewing club.

Their next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Emma Alighren, South Oregon street.

Knife-Fork Club Books Traveler

What an American traveler found out about Soviet Russia, Yugoslavia and other Communist satellite countries will be the subject of an address to be heard by Siskiyou Knife and Fork club Monday, November 14.

The dinner will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Mark Antony hotel, and the speaker will be John Crutcher.

Mr. Crutcher spent the summer of 1957 touring the Soviet union, the summer of 1958 in Yugoslavia, and has just returned from a third trip through the satellite countries. During his journeys the American asked questions of all who would listen and answer, and it is believed what he learned may give American listeners an insight to the working of the average Russian mind.

Members may make reservations for the dinner today or Monday morning early with the club secretary, Mrs. Ella Hendrixson, 360 Morton street, Ashland. Mrs. Hendrixson recently returned home after spending six weeks in Pennsylvania with relatives.

Four men were named to the board of directors of the

"Cut and Dried" Theme Of Central Point Show

"Cut and Dried" will be the theme of the third annual fall show to be staged by the Central Point Garden club November 16 and 17 in the Courthouse auditorium. Hours of the show will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday the 16th, and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Thursday.

Everyone is invited to participate in this non-competitive show which will include divisions of arrangements for fall, Thanksgiving and Christmas. Other divisions will be for winter corsages, homemade Christmas tree ornaments, swags or wreaths and pictures or plaques. All entries in these divisions are to be made from naturally dried, treated or artificial materials; no green materials will be permitted.

A new feature this year will be the Christmas Tree Lane where a person may enter small decorated Christmas trees made of any medium—net, tin can, fresh evergreen, teasel, or others. Entries in this feature are to be displayed on the exhibitor's own card table.

Any further information on this show may be secured by calling Mrs. Ivan Skyrman, chairman at Normandy 4-2641.

If it's Revenescence Cream, the answer is the younger the better. True, age does rob the skin of its natural moisturizing agents...but so does wind, cold, heat, steam and just general living. Revenescence is a delightful way to insure the youthful look of your skin for the future... as well as helping to impart that same fresh appearance to the older complexion. Wear it at what age should a woman use a moisturizer?

all day long, under make-up if you like, and see your skin reflect the luminous, fresh aura of dewy beauty. Revenescence Cream; $3.50, $6, $10, $17.50, $27.50. Liquid Revenescence (younger skins sometimes prefer this type) $6, $10, $17.50. All prices plus tax.
