

Fellowship Honor Women

Past presidents of the Christian Women's Fellowship, First Christian church were honored at the November meeting.

Those present were Mrs. M. F. Johnson, Ashland, and Mrs. Ralph Cook, Mrs. R. L. Ray and Mrs. Wayne Troxell, Medford. Each recalled highlights from their term of office.

"Rich in things and poor in soul" was the study topic presented by Troxell circle. Mrs. A. W. Denny served as program chairman and Mrs. J. T. Davis as worship chairman. They stressed that stewardship should be a daily concern of every Christian and that God expects each person to be stewards not only with their money, but also with their time and talents.

Drummond circle served the luncheon with Mrs. Carl Pearson as chairman.

Eleven boxes of clothing were collected for Church World Service (overseas relief) recently. First aid supplies and children's clothing were also collected for medical aid stations.

The annual bazaar will be held on December 1 and regular workdays are being held to prepare articles.

Future Plans To Be Made at Meet

Plans for future events will be made at the meeting Monday, November 14, of the Scottish Rite Women's club to be held at 8 p.m. in the Masonic hall. Following the business meeting cards will be played.

The committee for the evening will include Mrs. Lewis Kilbourn assisted by Mrs. O. C. Hamilton and Mrs. E. H. Taylor.

At the last meeting prizes for cards were received by Mrs. Hazel Dickson, Mrs. Fred Purdin and Mrs. W. G. Cummings.

All Scottish Rite wives and widows are invited to attend.

MEETING CHANGED BY SERVICE CIRCLE

Central Point - The Women's Christian Service circle of Central Point First Presbyterian church will meet in the home of Mrs. Donald E. Faber, 415 Hazel street, Central Point, November 17 at 1 p.m. This meeting was originally scheduled at the home of Mrs. Homer Jeffries.

Schools Plan Monday Events

Gold Hill - Patrons of Patrick and Hanby Elementary schools of district 6 are invited to an open house at both schools Monday, November 14 between 7 and 8 p.m. Classrooms will be open for inspection during this hour, but will close promptly at 3 p.m. The usual displays and features of student work will be in all rooms.

The regular Parent-Teacher association's business meeting will be held that evening at 8:15 o'clock in the music room in the new wing at Patrick school. H. S. Deuel, member of district 6 school board, will be guest speaker.

Refreshments will be served in the multi-purpose room following the business meeting.

Mrs. William J. Thompson and George R. Johnson conferred earlier this week about the art exhibit which will be a part of a benefit party planned by Medford Junior Women's club Friday, November 18. It will be held at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Thompson is arranging the art show, and Mr. Johnson is president of Southern Oregon Society of Artists. Members of the society are loaning pictures for the exhibit. Proceeds from the benefit event will go to the scholarship and special projects funds of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, with which the local group is affiliated.

Theme of Luncheon-Show Is "Holiday Portraits"

"Holiday Portraits" is the theme of the luncheon and style show which Medford Junior Women's club will give Friday, November 18, at Rogue Valley Country club. The club is affiliated with the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. and during the show to follow Town and Country of White City, Hadley's and Burelson's of Medford will show holiday styles.

As an added feature of the benefit event, members of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists will exhibit art works. Mrs. Frank A. Ralston will exhibit sculptures. Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. Alfred Castillo, Mrs. Fred H. Gardner, Mrs. George R. Johnson, Mrs. T. L. McDaniel, Mrs. Tommy Grissom, Mrs. Maude Coddling, Mrs. Roy R. Carter and Clifford Platz will exhibit water color and oil paintings.

Otis Swisher, tenor soloist, will sing several numbers from Broadway musical shows. Organist for the party will be John Stong of the Purucker Music house and Thurston Dance studio will provide several dance numbers.

Reservations will be taken by Mrs. L. E. McConnell, SPring 2-9130 or Mrs. John J. Owens, SPring 2-9949.

Proceeds from the event will support state and national projects and scholarships of the Federated club.

The morning of the Oregon federation support the Lazy J Ranch school for the care of mentally retarded boys. It is located near Oregon City.

Other federation projects are a conservation tract, Memorial forest, in the Tillamook burn area west of Portland; the Penny Art fund, an art scholarship awarded each year to a graduating high school student; the Virginia Brown music scholarship, named for Mrs. Walter Brown, Klamath Falls, past federation president, for a high school senior; the Saidie Orr Dunbar

Presbyterian Bazaar Date Is Changed

The annual Christmas bazaar, given by the women of Westminster Presbyterian and First Presbyterian churches of Medford, will be held Thursday, November 17 at First church, Holly at Eighth street.

The bazaar will be held on Thursday this year, instead of the customary Friday before Thanksgiving, because of a conflict in community events. The hours will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and free babysitting will be offered at the church from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. as a convenience for those attending who wish to bring their children.

Luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. by women of both churches. The menu will remain a secret until Thursday, but the committee has confidence that the dessert will be pie.

A roast beef dinner will be served from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. by the Presbyterian men of both churches. Both the luncheon and dinner are well attended each year, and people are encouraged to bring the entire family, and arrive early.

Refreshments

Coffee and sweet rolls will be served throughout the morning at the coffee booth. Coffee and cookies will be served throughout the afternoon to refresh the tired shopper.

The Christmas booth is popular with women who seek new ideas for holiday gifts and decorations. Teasel trees, candy wreaths in several sizes, and table decorations are perennial favorites. New this year are artificial flowers in appropriate containers, and birdhouses filled with Christmas candy.

Always popular, also, are the pantry shelves and the baked food booths.

The candle booth will have candles in many new shapes and colors, some of them intricately decorated with sequins and flowers. A book booth will stock books of all types for all ages and tastes, a gift idea for puzzled shoppers.

Attic treasures will be donated by Presbyterian women for the booth that attracts antique collectors each year.

Gallery New

New this year will be the art gallery, where the art collector or the home decorator can find a painting to her taste to grace her home, or the home of a friend. Here, also, will be lavishly decorated boxes of all sizes and shapes.

The children's shopping center will aim to aid the small shopper as he or she buys Christmas presents for parents and friends. The women serving in the booth promise to help the children select appropriate gifts. In this booth, also, will be items for mothers and grandmothers to give to the children on their lists. Many accessories will sell for $1 or less.

The apron booth will offer new styles in what the well-dressed cook will wear this year.

Mrs. Smith Honored By Local Red Cross Board

Mrs. Justin Smith was honored at a meeting of the board of directors of the Jackson county chapter, American Red Cross, Thursday at the Red Cross building.

Mrs. Smith was honored for her service to the chapter in conducting an orientation class in Red Cross history each year since 1939.

Mrs. John S. Day, chairman of the recognition committee, presented Mrs. Smith with a corsage and certificate for outstanding service in appreciation of the many hours of time she has given to the chapter.

Mrs. J. W. Burba reported that the two visits of the bloodmobile in October, one in Medford and one in Ashland at Southern Oregon college, netted 420 pints of blood. She announced that the next bloodmobile will be in Medford Wednesday, Dec. 21.

Mrs. Lanell Wilkes, co-chairman of the water safety program, reported on the junior and senior life saving class, which are now being conducted by Red Cross trained instructors at the YMCA. She also reported on the success of the course being given in swimming for handicapped persons on Sunday afternoon. She added that the YMCA was cooperating in this project.

Units Plan Meetings This Week

Mrs. R. E. Sturgill and Mrs. M. L. Terzenbach will be the leaders for Lone Pine unit, which will meet Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Roxy Ann Grand hall.

Mrs. L. L. Arnold and Mrs. A. L. Calloway will be hostesses. Each attending is to bring an article for the white elephant sale.

Child care is available at Mrs. Hugh Huntley's home, 2179 Crater Lake avenue, telephone SPring 2-9198.

Visitors are welcome at meetings of all units.

Three Women To Be Honored

Jacksonville - Adare chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will honor Mrs. Lloyd Hamlin, secretary; Mrs. Bernice Janoski, treasurer; and Mrs. Bernice McCue, organist, at their meeting Thursday, November 17, at the Masonic temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Gardner, worthy patron and matron, will preside.

Mrs. Earl Brewold, chairman of refreshments, will be assisted by Mrs. William Childreth, Mrs. Beulah Osborn and Mr. and Mrs. Clement Ault.

Dave Irving, Junior Red Cross member of the board, introduced his guest, John Snider Jr., president of St. Mary's student body. Dave told of the various activities of Junior Red Cross going on in the schools this month.

In the absence of Mrs. E. A. Littrell, recruitment chairman, Mrs. Sheridan Scott, reported on the orientation and training sessions for new volunteers held last month.

Dr. Elmo Stevenson, chapter chairman, explained that a new series of programs will be held this year in which many of the agencies with which the Red Cross works closely in the community.
