Brownie Revel Attended By Four Hundred Scouts

Approximately 400 Rogue Valley Girl Scouts, filling four buses and several cars, attended a Brownie Revel recently at Tomlin Forest in Little Switzerland.

The Brownie Revel opened with Brownie Troop 43 performing the flag ceremony after which Mrs. R. W. Gray, council president, spoke to the girls. She welcomed them to the revel, which was a program to decorate areas of Tomline Forest to depict international scenes, each area representing a different country. Senior Girl Scouts decorated the areas, and the intermediate scouts acted as guides who led groups of the girls through the areas representing Germany, Japan, Spain, Hawaii, and a scene commemorating the 100th birthday of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouts. The Brownies each wore a headdress representing the country of their troop's choice.

In the German area articles from Germany and Austria were displayed and during the visiting time, German songs were sung and phrases were learned. Japan was represented by Japanese dolls, songs, costumes and games. Spain also was represented by dolls, costumes, and song, but the most interesting part of this area was a Spanish game called "Rompiendo da Pinata". A large paper bag, the pinata, filled with wrapped candies, is dressed to represent a boy or girl and is hung from the ceiling or tree with cord. The players, blindfolded, then take turns trying to break the pinata with a stick. The players scramble for the sweets when they fall from the pinata.

The Hawaiian area was decorated with leis, muu-muus, dolls, and grass skirts made from cut strips of newspaper. At the Juliette Low scene, where scouting was explained to the new girls, there was a witch with a big, black pot into which the girls dropped their donations of pennies.

At the closing of the revel, after taps, the Senior Girl Scouts formed a magic tunnel under which all the girls passed in line to board the buses for the return trip.

Senior Girl Scouts who helped prepare the decorations, games, and songs were Misses Diana Hiatt, Marilyn Harwood, Janette Jones, Ruth Milligan, Lynn Peterson, Ellen Montgomery, Sunny Gastineau, Nola Shurtleff, Rose Ann Warren, Patty Ray, Mary Stuart, Bertha Hasler, and Yvonne Melver.

Intermediates who acted as guides between the displays were Misses Diane Carmichael, Patty Fagone, Jennifer Hankins, Diana Koelme, Mary Sue Emerson, Phyllis Overturf, and Wilda Dee Bledsoe.
