The chapel choir will meet for rehearsal Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. instead of the regular Wednesday time. Inquirer's class led by the pastor, a study of Methodist doctrine and history, will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Catholics To Help Thanksgiving Clothing Drive

The 12th annual Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing collection will be held here and in all Catholic church parishes of the United States during the week of Nov. 20 to 27, according to a letter from Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland which was read at all archdiocesan masses last Sunday.

"Last year's fine response of our parishes has led us with confidence to pledge the support of this archdiocese once again to this means of easing the suffering of our brethren in less fortunate countries," the Archbishop wrote.

Most needed items, it is reported, are blankets and bedding, men's work clothing and shoes, clothing for infants and children and remnants and piece goods for areas where Western type clothing is worn. All garments should be clean and serviceable.

The archdiocese of Portland contributed 79,000 pounds of clothing to the drive last Thanksgiving.

Any contribution to this year's collection may be left at the St. Mary gymnasium during Thanksgiving week, according to an announcement from Sacred Heart parish spokesmen.

First Baptist church, Fourth st. and Central ave., will also hold Thanksgiving services Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. It will be conducted by the Rev. Edward C. Stauffer, minister.

Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., will hold their Thanksgiving eve service with holy communion at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. The Rev. H. C. Covert, minister, will conduct the service.

First Advent Christian church, West Jackson and Welch sts., will hold a Thanksgiving candlelight communion at 8 p.m. Wednesday. The Rev. Fred O. Sapp, pastor, will be in charge.

Two masses have been scheduled for the convenience of Sacred Heart Catholic church members on Thanksgiving Day, according to the Very Rev. Carl Mai, pastor of the Medford parish.

Mass times will be 7 and 9 a.m. Father Mai said, and emphasized that there will not be an 8 a.m. mass on that day.

Thanksgiving day holy communion will be observed at St. Mark's Episcopal church Fifth st. and North Oakdale ave. at 9:30 a.m.

The Thanksgiving day service at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., will be conducted at 10 a.m. by the Rev. John E. Simon, minister. A special thank-offering for world mission activity of The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod will be taken.

The choir will sing "Sing to the Lord of Harvest" under the direction of Al Huntmann accompanied by Mrs. Richard Smith.

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity Center of Medford, will speak on "Miracle of Thanksgiving" during Thanksgiving day services at the Pythian hall, Fifth and Grape sts., at 10 a.m.

A program will be presented by the Sunday school department.

The Rev. Elvin S. Tollefson, minister of Ascension Lutheran church, 2501 Barnett rd., will speak Thanksgiving day at 11 a.m. services at the church. His theme will be Psalm 33:5.

A special Thanksgiving service is announced by First Church of Christ, Scientist for 11 a.m. Thursday. It will be held at the church auditorium at 100 Windsor ave. The lesson sermon title will be "Thanksgiving."

In Ashland a Thanksgiving day service will be held at 10 a.m. at Grace Lutheran church, Frances lane, Ashland, with the Rev. Albert R. Nickodemus, pastor, speaking. The public is invited to attend any of the services.

Building Fund Campaign Is Emphasis of Sermons

The series of sermons emphasizing the building fund campaign will be continued Sunday morning at the First Christian church. The Rev. Glenn McKerron, associate minister, will preach on the subject "Our Heritage" at both services.

For the next three Sundays "minute men" will speak in all church school classes and from the pulpit concerning the need for a new building. These brief talks will be given by the men, women, and youth of the church. Sara Hinkle and Boyd Henry will speak at the two worship services Sunday.

The youth choir will sing the anthem "Prayer Hymn" at the first service. Music at the second service will include a solo "Trust in the Lord" by Sara Hinkle and the anthem "Prayer of Thanksgiving" by the chancel choir.

Mrs. Stephen Parrish and Mrs. McKerron will be hostesses for the coffee hour after the second service.

Evangelist Scheduled At Mt. Pitt Church

Walter Markham, Porterville, Calif., a commissioned evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene is currently conducting a series of evangelistic services at the Mt. Pitt Avenue Church of the Nazarene, 1332 Mt. Pitt ave.
