

Central Point 4-H Club Members Get Recognized at Event

Outstanding 4-H club members were given special recognition at the Central Point Westside general 4-H club achievement program last week at the Central Point Grange hall.

Pins and cards for years in club work, furnished by the Oregon Bankers association, were presented to approximately 230 4-H members by Ed Christie, assistant manager of the Central Point branch of the First National bank.

Presentation of awards followed installation of new officers. Farm Bureau trophies for outstanding project exhibits at the county fair went to Bob Kuest for poultry and Judy Frink, garden club.

Seven Central Point members won national awards. They included Linda Cornutt and Bill Anhorn, achievement; Bob Kuest, agriculture; Marjory Bonney, Aietta Myers, and Sharon Thompson, style revue; and Carolee Kuest, food preparation.

County medal winners in the record book contest, sponsored by the fair board, were Cynthia Charley, junior beef; Katherine Frederik, intermediate dairy; Marilyn Lathrop, intermediate sheep; Jan Main, junior sheep; Judy Frink, intermediate swine; Penny Sampert, senior horse.

Cheryl Swanson, senior garden; Wallace Stryman, intermediate garden; James Anhorn, junior garden; Glenna Brown, home living; Bob Kuest, senior poultry; Linda Chisum, main dish meals; Martha Heffner, outdoor cooking; Janis Cato, Just So Girl; Carolee Kuest, Sun and Fun; Ann Bowling, intermediate knitting; Carolyn Barnes, beginning knitting; Sam Huges, rocks and minerals.

4-H Club News

Bobbing Bobbins
The Bobbing Bobbins Sewing 4-H club held a meeting recently at the home of the leader, Mrs. Leonard Franck, 1876 Beal lane, Medford. Six people attended.

The meeting was called to order by President Shirley Roach. Ann Bowling led the flag salute, and the 4-H pledge. The minutes were read and approved.

Our club goals were discussed and decided upon. It was announced by Mrs. Franck that achievement night would be Nov. 15. Our next meeting will be a Christmas party at the home of Kristy Chamberlain Dec. 10.

Trust Officer Talks At Roseburg Event

Roseburg - Lawrence L. Clark, trust officer of the First National Bank of Oregon, Medford branch, was the guest speaker here last week at the bimonthly southwest Oregon conference meeting of the National Association for Bank Audit and Control.

Clark spoke of the legal conditions covering the acceptance of escrows, and then opened the meeting for questions.

The meeting, for all bank officers in operations, was called to order by President Lester Coleman, assistant cashier at the First National Bank of Oregon, Grants Pass branch. Other guests included Edward T. O'Connor, certified public accountant of the firm Basker, O'Connor and company, Grants Pass.

TUNNEL TALK

London - Discussion of a tunnel under the English channel connecting France and England has been going on with some interruptions since about 1867.

DOLLAR NAME

Washington - The name dollar was adopted by Congress in 1785 as the monetary unit of the U. S. because the Spanish dollar was the chief unit of money used in the colonies at that time.
