Church Ceremony Held

Central Point—Miss Judith Lee Singleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Singleton, 712 Maple street, became the bride of Ervin Glen Schulz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schulz, 1140 Loal street, Medford, in a ceremony November 12.

The Rev. John E. Simon performed the double-ring rites at St. Peter's Lutheran church at two o'clock in the afternoon. About 100 guests attended.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a floor-length gown of de-lustered satin, designed with a fitted bodice, yoke of Chantilly lace embroidered with iridescent sequins, and a scalloped Sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt was caught up in front over a tiered lace panel. Chantilly lace edged the skirt and chapel-length train. Her veil was of silk illusion and Chantilly lace. Her flowers were white carnations and white rosebuds.

Mrs. Gerald Butler, Medford, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Beverly Tresham, Eagle Point, and Miss Penny Hahn, Grants Pass, cousin of the bride.

They wore ballerina-length dresses in identical style, of romance blue, with bouffant skirts of silk organza and three-quarter-length sleeves and yokes of Alencon lace. Their hats were petal bandeaux of matching silk organza with float veils. They carried bouquets of white carnations and rosebuds.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise wool sheath with gardenia corsage, and the bridegroom's mother wore a dusty rose crepe sheath with gardenia corsage.

Herman Schulz, Vancouver, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Phillip Warner, Vancouver, and Thomas Tipton, Medford, served as ushers.

At the reception which followed, Mrs. Jerry Hahn, Grants Pass, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake, which had been made and decorated by Mrs. Ralph Burkhardt, Mrs. James Humbert, Grants Pass, cousin of the bride, poured coffee and Miss Linda Humbert, Grants Pass, punch. Miss Julie Humbert, also of Grants Pass, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride attended Crater High school and Southern Oregon college and is employed as a secretary for Loading Service Company, Inc. The bridegroom attended Fort Vancouver High school and is employed by White City Plywood company. They traveled to southern California on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a brown sheath dress with gold accessories.

Couples To Wed In Double Rites; Showers Given

Two brides-to-be who will marry brothers in a double ceremony next month were honored with bridal showers recently.

Miss Rosemary Tokar, bride-elect of Ernest E. Pathman, was honored Friday evening, November 11, at a shower given by Miss Colleen Riley, bride-elect of Gordon T. Pathmann. On Thursday evening, November 3, Miss Riley was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Allan Higinbotham at the home of her mother, Mrs. Douglas Hinesly, 1032 Murray street.

Miss Tokar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roseborough, 610 Oakdale drive, and Miss Riley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Riley, 616 Stewart avenue. Their fiancés are sons of Mrs. Agnes Pathmann, 519 Fairmont street.

The shower for Miss Tokar was held at the home of Miss Riley's parents, 616 Stewart avenue. Pink tinted chrysanthemums and miniature umbrellas decorated the table.

Attending were the Mesdames Allan Higinbotham, Agnes Pathmann, Seth Waters, George Lovenberg, Steven Wisely, Ernest Roseborough, Frank Williams and the Misses Patricia Hilton, Judy Goss, Jean Williams, Colleen Tokar, Joy Tokar, Nyla Lovenberg and Kathi Riley.

Bouquets of chrysanthemums in fall colors decorated the Hinesly home for the party given for Miss Riley. Guests were the Mesdames Owen Ludwick, Lester Higinbotham, Edward Allbright, William Nelson, Rex Sweeney, Ernest Roseborough, George Lovenberg, Larry McConnell, Gene Ingram, William Versteeg, Floyd Wisely, Steven Wisely, William Riley, Douglas Hinesly, and Agnes Pathmann.

Also the Misses Colleen Tokar, Nyla Lovenberg, Kathi Riley and Rosemary Tokar.

The two couples plan to be married December 18 at the First Presbyterian church.

Washington—Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower will present her two debutante nieces to society at a tea to be held November 25 in the White House. It will be the first coming out party at the White House in 50 years. The young women are Miss Ellen, (left) 18 and Miss Mamie Doud Moore, 18, daughters of Mrs. Eisenhower's sister, Mrs. George Gordon Moore of Washington, D.C. ## Glimpses at Glamour

From DOROTHY ELLIOTT

Has your hair seemed a bit on the dowdy-side recently? Is it outdated, shaggy, shapeless and lack-luster? What you need is the stimulation of once a week professional care until it's glowing and healthy again.

A lush, lively shampoo to return the satiny sparkle to your hair. A high-fashion new hair-do to give it refreshing new flair. A permanent for blissful manageability. Conditioning treatments to return the vital, lively luster. You may even experiment with a subtle colour rinse to restore its bright sheen.

With regular care you'll always have that fresher than springtime look!

Not luck, but skill puts flair in your hair. There's nothing like the professional care at De-Na's Beauty Salon to add a dash of class to your hair-do. Call us at Spring 2-2096 for an early appointment.
