Bird Authority To Talk for Club

The Rev. Thomas McCamant will be guest speaker at a meeting of Howard Garden club to be held November 22 at 611 Berrydale avenue, Medford, the home of Mrs. G. G. Starg. It will follow a one o'clock dinner luncheon. The Rev. Mr. McCamant will show slides and talk on "Birds of Our Area," and a question and answer period will follow.

Mrs. John Clark will serve as co-hostess for the meeting. Reports will be presented on conservation by Mrs. James Wicker and on horticulture by Mrs. Howard Lind. An exhibition table will be available for arrangement and hobby displays. There will also be a bazaar table, and members are asked to bring items for it.

Several guests have been invited to attend the meeting.

Dinner Set In Gold Hill On Thursday

Gold Hill - Final plans for a turkey dinner on Thanksgiving day for congregation of the Gold Hill Assembly of God church will be made during a meeting of the Women's Missionary Council at the church, Tuesday, November 22, at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Pearson, wife of the pastor, said the dinner will be a potluck affair at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, November 24 at the church. Mrs. Joe Buchanan is president of the women's group.

Following the dinner, a fellowship meeting open to the public will be held at 4 p.m. at the church with the Rev. Mr. Pearson in charge.

Tuesday evening the women's group will work on baskets that will be distributed to shut-ins in the community at Christmas. They will also continue their project of making awards for missionaries to distribute to children in Hawaii, and Indian reservations in New Mexico and Arizona.

The Missionettes, which consists of a group of girls 12 through 18 years of age, will meet at the church on the same evening as the Women's Missionary Council in a separate room at 7 p.m. This group is directed by Mrs. Jerry Martin.

The girls will work on plaques for Christmas, and also continue their scrap book projects for children at Christmas in the Assembly of God children's home in Alaska.

Camp Fire Girls

Ne-Wa-Can-Tan-Da

Ne-Wa-Can-Tan-Da Camp Fire Girls meet each Tuesday at the home of our leader, Mrs. Le Roy Bedingfield, Eagle Point. We learn songs and have refreshments, and have started to work on our ranks. We chose our Indian names. Our group name means "With hand and heart."

One meeting we made Christmas tags, and sold them at the PTA meeting to get some money for our treasury. We elected officers: They are president, Wendy McGraw; vice president, Lynn Bedingfield; secretary, Debbie Oakes; treasurer, Linda Harnish; scribe, Norma Stinger; song leader, Karen Arens.

We decided to make Christmas tree ornaments to put on two Christmas trees to take to two hospitals.

All girls are collecting shoes and cleaning and shining them to send to needy children overseas. Each member is going to bring some personal toilet article like toothbrush, toothpaste, etc., to make up a kit to send overseas, too.

Gay Blue Birds
Terry Arens, Rena Bishop, Judy Draper, Mary Lewis, Cheryl Machacek, Mary Martin, Sandy Meyers, Martha Richey, Mary Stinger, and Mary Work are members of the Pretty Gay Blue Birds from the third grade at Eagle Point. Leader is Mrs. Le Roy Draper, assistant, Mrs. Leland Meyers, and the sponsor is the Eagle Point Garden Club.

Beautiful Blue Birds
Mrs. Loren Greenwood is the leader for the Beautiful Blue Birds from Eagle Point. Assisting her is Mrs. Delbert Geppert, and sponsor is Mrs. Daniel Hamman Jr. Girls joining from the second grade are Betty Shaw, Rebecca Walch, Carolyn Bishop, Cheryl Ellis, Gayle Greenwood, Gean

Girl Scouts

Eagle Point Scouts
Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts will hold their second meeting at the Eagle Point Grade school Tuesday, November 22, after school. All second and third grade girls will meet in Mrs. Bigham's room at 2:45 p.m. and the meeting will be out in time for girls to take the school bus home at 3:15 p.m.

The fourth grade Brownie Girl Scouts will meet at 3:15 p.m. in Mrs. Bigham's room and the meeting will end at 4:30 p.m. All girls above the fourth grade in the Girl Scouts will meet in the Band room at 3:15 p.m. and will be excused at 4:30.

Anyone wishing to join either of the Scouting groups is asked to attend the next three meetings before the registration is sent to the national office. Further information may be had by calling Mrs. Jack James at Hillcrest 6-3607.

Cub Scout Pack 4
Cub Scout Pack 4 will meet Monday, Nov. 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Oak Grove gymnasium. There will be presentation of awards, the flag ceremony will be conducted by Den 6, songs led by Den 2 and a skit presented by the Webelos.

Hamman, Jody Greenwood, Judy Geppert, Mary Jane Imperatrice, Susan Cox, and Wendy Vaughan.

Officers Elected For Nurses

Mrs. Jane Anders was elected president of district 4, Oregon Nurses association, Tuesday, November 15, at a meeting at Sacred Heart hospital.

Others elected to serve for 1960-62 were Mrs. Gertrude Shelton, first vice-president; Mrs. Joan Bass, secretary; Mrs. Joan Jensen, Mrs. Jane King and Mrs. Bertha Morrell, board of directors members; and Mrs. Anne Brooks, Mrs. Perry Staten and Miss Gertrude Malloy, nominations committee.

The group planned to sponsor a Christmas basket for a needy family. Several members read excerpts from a nursing practice book published in 1903 and comparisons made to modern day practices indicated nursing has progressed a long way in 50 years.

A special meeting has been set for Wednesday, November 30, at 8 p.m. at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Johnnie Schick, Eugene, president of Oregon Nurses association, will speak on proposed legislation for the 1961 legislature and on problems in economic security as they effect the nursing profession.

Thanksgiving Day

OUR PILGRIM FATHERS GAVE THANKS FOR SO LITTLE... WE HAVE SO MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR

Let us pause on this day, as our Pilgrim forefathers did so long ago... to give prayerful thanks, not only for the food on our table, but more importantly, for those freedoms we hold so dear... freedoms our forefathers sought and won in the new land, America. Our country has come a long, hard way since the day of that first meager harvest in 1621... to truly become the "Land of Plenty" and the "Home of the Free." Let us pray it will always be!

May YOUR Thanksgiving Day, with family and friends be a joyous one. That is the wish from all of us who prepare your holiday feast, those fine quality...
