

Church Ceremony Marries Couple

The wedding of Miss Ellen K. Morgan to Charles A. Langston took place Friday, November 18, in the First Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Capt. George W. Morgan, retired, and Mrs. Morgan, 924 Stewart avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Langston, 717 North Riverside avenue.

The double-ring ceremony was read at eight o'clock in the evening by Dr. George Roseberry. About 50 guests were present.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of lace over net, and a shoulder-length net veil. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and carnations centered with an orchid.

Miss Linda Moore, who attended the bride, wore a blue sheath dress with net overskirt and carried a bouquet of white and blue carnations.

Connie Earnest, cousin of the bride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earnest, was flower girl. Miss Diane Morgan, sister of the bride, and Christopher Brown, cousin of the groom, were ring bearers.

Club to Gather Holiday Greenery

Prospect-Members of Prospect Garden club will meet at the Prospect store December 2 for a trip into the forest to collect Christmas greenery. Those attending are to bring a sack lunch and pruning shears.

This will be the third year that the club has furnished greenery for decorating the Veterans Administration domiciliary at White City. The forest service will designate the area for collecting the material.

The club will hold its annual Christmas party and dinner December 15 in the community hall. All members are to bring a gift for exchange.

Christian Women Schedule Bazaar

Congressman-Elect Named Secretary's Boss of Year

Dr. Edwin R. Durno, congressman-elect from the fourth congressional district, was selected as Boss of the Year at the Eleventh Annual Boss

Night banquet held by the Rogue River chapter, National Secretaries association.

Dr. Durno was nominated by his secretary, Mrs. Jeanne Rose, who is also president of the chapter. He was presented the award by Walter G. Garner, Boss of the Year in 1953.

Dr. Esby McGill, assistant to the president at Southern Oregon college, spoke on "What a Secretary Means to Me." He spoke on a virtue and a fault for each letter of the word "secretary."

About 30 members and guests attended the event held November 17. Bosses present were Philip Lowry, William Herman, Mr. Garner, Gary Strong, James Nistler, Keith Edlensen, Robert B. Duncan, Dr. John T. Weisel, Joseph Walsh, Alan Holmes and Robert Boyer.

Otis Swisher and John Lusk furnished the entertainment. Each secretary and her boss presented short skirts. Trophies for this "dramatic" effort went to Mrs. Kathryn Thomas and her employer, Mr. Garner of the Cal-Ore Machinery company.

Chairman of the banquet was Mrs. Jeanne Brown, vice president of the local chapter. Committee members were Mrs. Margerie Eaton, Mrs.

Dr. Edwin R. Durno, Medford physician and surgeon and former state senator who was elected to congress from this district in the recent general election, was named Boss of the Year at the 11th annual Boss Night banquet given by Rogue River chapter, National Secretaries association. He was nominated by his secretary, Mrs. Jeanne Rose, who is also chapter president.

Marie Rutter, Mrs. Kay Jandreau and Mrs. Gwenn Greet. Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Brown were in charge of decorations.

Glimpses at Glamour

From DOROTHY ELLIOTT

Is this your week for the exciting adventure of a new hair colour? Why not? So many others are keeping up-to-date with new hair colouring!

We understand, it can be quite a decision to make—just like the first hair-bobs of the twenties. But, why not come in and let us show you what we can do for you.

The artificial look is passe. The coloring art, practiced in the hands of a skilled professional colorist, can produce subtle shadings so delicately blended the change in color is almost undetectable. Choose a good salon and take time for a professional consultation.

'Sheer perfection' takes away that shorn look. At De-Na's Beauty Salon we have five operators who are specialists in hair styling, so call us at Spring 2-2096 for a spirit-lifting styling.
