Three Units Set Meetings This Week

December is a "free choice" month for Jackson County home extension units. This means that no project has been given by the county agent to be used as a lesson by all the units. Christmas crafts are always a popular choice for projects, and outstanding projects given in the past are often repeated. All the units have a Christmas party and gift exchange.

Reese Creek
Mrs. Ben Gardener will be hostess to Reese Creek Home Extension unit Thursday, December 1, at 10:30 a.m. at her home on Crater Lake highway three miles north of Eagle Point.

The meeting will be on making things for Christmas. A gift exchange will be held. Those attending have been asked to take candy and the recipe for exchange.

Westside
"Family Life" will be the topic for the monthly meeting of the Westside Home Extension Unit on Thursday, December 1, starting at 10:30 a.m. The meeting is to be held at the Central Point Presbyterian church, First and Oak streets, Central Point.

The meeting will include a potluck lunch. Members are to take table service, a potluck dish and a gift and card for the Christmas gift exchange.

Child care will be provided by Mrs. Bryce Phillips, 3307 New Ray road, Central Point. Women who are Westside residents are invited to attend. Any inquiries regarding this meeting may be made to Mrs. E. O. Reinking, Normandy 4-2895, who will be hostess for the day.

Griffin Creek
A Christmas party and gift exchange will be held by the Griffin Creek Home Extension unit Friday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. Glen V. Allen, 951 South Stage road. Mrs. Ralph Marlatt will be co-hostess.

They will meet at 11 a.m. for a business meeting and a covered dish lunch at noon. The project lesson will be a demonstration of hair styling.

Sorority Plans Santa Project
Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority will again this year sponsor the "Have Santa-Will Travel" project started last year. Members are taking appointments and making the proper arrangements for calls which will start December 1. Parents interested in a visit may call Mrs. Dan Kidd, Spring 3-7000.

For a coldweather breakfast surprise, add chopped fresh dates to your family's favorite hot cereal. Serve with cinnamon-sugar and milk or cream.

Annual CARE Tea Opens Project Of Travelers Club

The annual tea for CARE was given last Monday afternoon at Girls Community club by Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. The tea opened the yearly drive, which this year will raise funds for Latin American countries.

Mrs. Anthony E. DeSota, Ashland, who has lived in the Latin countries many years, talked on their needs and ways of life during the tea.

Mrs. Alicia V. Carter, 23 South Barneburg road, a native of Nicaragua, also spoke. Mrs. Carter just became an American citizen. Mrs. DeSota and Mrs. Carter were able to converse in a native language.

Both told how desperately help was needed in Latin America and how very grateful the people are for the aid from America.

The Senior Citizens Activity orchestra, directed by Edward C. Root, played during the afternoon.

Pouring at the tea were Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Oregon First district president; Mrs. Jack D. Brummond, corresponding secretary of First district and president of Travel Study club; Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, junior past district president; Mrs. Edward C. Root, chairman of the Council of International Clubs for First district; Mrs. Beryl Lyon, treasurer of Travel Study Club; Mrs. Frank L. Stratton, first vice president of the hostess club; Mrs. Jason Ottinger, past district president and parliamentarian for First district; and Mrs. Willis T. Fasel, chairman of civic projects for Travel Study club.

New Garden Club To Hold Session

All women in the community who are interested in the club are invited.

Wreath Workshop
A workshop on wreath making will be held by Medford Garden club Tuesday, November 29, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the courthouse auditorium. Members are to bring a sack lunch, greens for making wreaths, cones, wire cutters and scissors.

The tea table was centered with an arrangement of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and tall yellow tapers.

Anyone wishing to make a contribution to CARE may still do so by calling Mrs. Lee, Spring 2-9737.

Dolls dressed in the Latin costumes, needle work, and paintings from these countries were on display.

Travel Study club sponsors the CARE program for one week every year, but 52 weeks of the year they work on a local civic project, which is devoted to the Medford Convalescent home, Mrs. Brummond stresses.

Members spend every Wednesday afternoon at the home. Birthday cakes are taken to patients, and clothing is provided for those who need it. Members attend funerals when there is no one else to do so.

"We try to be a 'family' to those in the home," it was explained. Last Wednesday a Thanksgiving party was given at the home by the club members. All but six patients were able to attend, and all said how grateful they are for the visits of the women, it was reported.

Travel Study club also sponsors two art students, boys or girls, for the Hallmark and Penny Art scholarships; a music student for the Virginia Brown music scholarship; and a girl to compete in the Vogue sewing contest.

A contribution is made to the scholarship loan and fellowship fund, the Saldie Orr Dunbar nursing education fund, and others.

The club will hold a rummage sale Thursday, December 1, in the Fehl building, to raise funds for these projects.

Upper Rogue Group Announces Party
McLeod - The annual Christmas party of Upper Rogue Grange Home Economics club will be held December 8 at Eastin's Rogue Haven. A potluck luncheon and gift exchange are planned.

Okinawa is Setting For Medford High School Play

The Thespian's production, "The Teahouse of the August Moon," which will be presented at the Medford High School auditorium December 1, 2, and 3, has its setting on Okinawa.

Okinawa is a small, but strategic island in the Ryuku's chain south of the main islands of Japan. At the time of World War II it was under the control of the Japanese. Because it was in the path of American progress to the main islands of Japan, the island was the scene of heavy fighting from March to June, 1945.

The civilian population sustained heavy losses and a land that was already poor, was ruined. Then the American occupation forces moved in at the end of the war, they conceived it to be their responsibility to repair the damage done and achieve some economic vitality among the Okinawans.

Happy People
The picture of the Okinawans presented in "Teahouse" is of a happy group of people. The play tells how the Army "brass" attempts to achieve economic success by forcing American methods on these people. The Army officer who is sent to the little village of Tobiki, instead of using the building supplies provided to build a "pentagon-shaped schoolhouse," which has no meaning for the Okinawans, he gives them the teahouse which to them is a symbol of the beauty and serenity they have been deprived of so long.

Tickets for the play are on sale at Purucker's Music House and Foster's Pharmacy. They may also be purchased from members of the cast. For reserve seat tickets contact Mrs. Lenore Zapell or Beverly Gebhard at the senior high school.

Madrid, Spain—This is a sketch of the wedding gown Spain's Dona Fabiola will wear when she marries King Baudouin of Belgium on December 15. Designed by Balenciaga, the white silk satin dress is reminiscent, in silhouette, of the little statues of the Virgin which adorn Spanish churches. The sketch of the dress appeared on the front page of Women's Wear Daily. (UPI Telephoto)
