

RC Projects for Chile Are Noted

The Grand Cross of Honor has been conferred upon the American Red Cross by the Chilean Red Cross as an expression of the gratitude of the Chilean people for the assistance given during the recent disaster...

Special projects for Chile planned as fall shipments by the American Red Cross include 150 school assistance units containing basic educational, recreational, health, and sanitation supplies...

Some 100,000 Christmas gift bags, half of them designed for boys, half for girls, each bag containing some 20 personal care, educational, and recreational gift items...

Navy Team To Visit College

Ashland - A Navy officer team will visit Southern Oregon college Monday, Dec. 5, to provide information for men interested in obtaining a commission in the Navy.

Chief Murray J. Emmerich, Medford, has announced that the team is prepared to answer questions regarding all Naval officer programs...

Emmerich said the NavCad program is open to men 18 to 24 who have had at least two years of college. Only college graduates may apply for the ACC program...

Soup Garnishes

Cream soups invite a touch of drama. Croutons are easy and attractive; so is chopped parsley. A dash of paprika on one side and a dash of finely chopped parsley on the other adds interest and flavor.

Brog Takes Over As 4-H Agent

Jerry Brog, replacement for Glenn Klein as county 4-H agent, assumed his new duties last week. Brog comes here from John Day, where he was both general county agent and responsible for the 4-H program.

Brog was graduated from Oregon State college in 1954 in dairy production. Following that he spent three years in Coos county before going to Grant county.

Klein was county 4-H agent here for seven years. The program membership increased 50 per cent under his guidance. Klein left last week to locate housing in Corvallis where he will work in the state 4-H club office.

Klein's new duties will consist of preparing 4-H training material for agriculture projects other than livestock and to work with OSC extension specialists in development of materials for horticulture, entomology, forestry, wildlife, science and other subjects.

County To Continue Use of Spur Track

The Jackson county court has agreed to sign a railroad trackage agreement with the Southern Pacific company to continue to use a spur track into the county's oil storage plant south of Stewart ave., the county court said Friday.

SUNSPOT DECLINE

Los Angeles - Sunspots run in rising and falling cycles every 11 years and a declining cycle was observed in 1947.

Small Worlds Around Us

Here's A Little Bug With a Great Big Lich

The very little creature with the great big bite, commonly called "red bug" or "chigger," is always ready and anxious to make a personal contact with anyone who comes along.

Originally, the red bug lived in the West Indies. Now there are red bugs in nearly all parts of the warmer sections of the country. He and his friends are well established in Mexico and South America.

Unless a person has unusual eyesight he can't even see this little pest, for a full-grown adult red bug is little more than a speck.

Prison Camp Escapees Caught

Wiskeytown, Calif. - Two inmates of the San Quentin Prison camp here were captured early Friday 40 minutes after they slugged a guard, robbed him and the office safe, and fled in his car.

The prisoners, Christopher A. Deane, 28, and Robert C. Nelson, 25, beat correctional officer N. R. Miller over the head with a flashlight until he was unconscious shortly after 12:30 a.m., camp officials said.

They then took Miller's wallet, pocket change and car keys, robbed the office safe and drove away in the guard's car. They were captured near the town of Old Shasta when a sheriff's patrol car forced the escapees' vehicle into a ditch.

bugs. Leaves, twigs, branches, blades of grass and weeds offer wonderful places for the bugs to sit and wait. He waits for man or beast to come brushing past; then he lets loose of the grass stem and adheres to the passing animal. Once established on or in the human skin they present an itching problem.
