Harvard Liberals Protest Showing of Film of SF Rioting

Cambridge, Mass. - (UPI) - A controversial film of riots at the House Un-American Activities committee hearing in San Francisco last May has been loudly protested by a group of Harvard liberals. The film, in which the riots were described as "Communist inspired" was shown to 150 ROTC members who watched in silence and then marched from the hall, ignoring the demonstrators. About 150 members and supporters of the Harvard-Radcliffe Liberal Union booted as the film was run. They said the film was propaganda. A Harvard student later picketed the home of president Nathan M. Pusey with a balloon inscribed with the slogan, "Repudiate propaganda at the university." The Liberal Union said the picket would remain until Pusey publicly admitted the film was propaganda. A spokesman for the university said the president had no intention of making any such statement.

The Liberal Union also suggested that Pusey appoint a faculty committee which would study the ROTC with the idea of abolishing it. The union said the organization "contains by virtue of its very purposes a substantial amount of propaganda and is therefore a threat to the university's high standards of objective scholarship." The Harvard Crimson, undergraduate daily, described the Navy film as a "grossly distorted" picture of the student rioting in San Francisco. The film was made from newsreel shots of the occurrences and edited and is being distributed under the direction of Fulton Lewis III and another staff member of the House Un-American Activities committee.

GOP Executive Committee's Statement on Suggestion

This is the statement adopted by the executive committee of the Jackson County Republican Central committee at its noon meeting Monday. The statement was approved by a 4 to 3 vote with the chair abstaining from voting, as it had done on previous motions submitted during the meeting, according to E. H. Singmaster, secretary. The following is a statement of facts concerning the recent meeting of the Jackson County Republican Central Committee and conclusions that logically can be drawn from them. There were 108 committeemen and committeewomen present, a large majority of the total number, and they represented about 80-85 precincts, scattered all the way from the Jacksonville-Applegate area to the Upper Rogue and from Rogue River to Ashland. These are the people who were, for the most part, selected by the Republicans in their precincts to represent them, and the people who made possible the fine showing made by the party in the face of an adverse Democratic registration. At the beginning of the meeting, when rules were being adopted, the first motion made was to submit 3 recommendations. To this there was an audible dissent over the room and the motion was quickly amended, first to provide for two recommendations and then to provide for only one. From the comments, both in official discussion on the amendment and in comments overheard over the room, it was apparent that a good majority thought that only one name should be submitted. This was borne out by the vote, 81 to 27, in favor of the amendment. There were others, including at least one member of this Executive Committee, who voted against that amendment, but who thought that it would be better to submit two names and would have voted against submitting three names. We believe that such sentiment of the majority had two reasons behind it. First, they felt that, if the Court was to ask for recommendations of three people, they didn't really want our recommendation, but practically an endorsement of anyone they chose to select. Secondly, they doubted if there were three people to whom we would want to give our endorsement, on the basis of ability and service to the party. The fact that only two people got as much as 10 percent of the votes, each, seemed to bear this out.

though the rules stated that all nominees were eligible for the second ballots, the list would be cut to the top 3 of the third ballot, and to the two highest for the 4th ballot, the result was (MRS.) NYE 56, STATHOS 45, NEWBRY 5, LITTRELL 0, BRANCHFIELD 0. A majority of all votes cast was 54 and Mrs. Nye received more than that number of votes on the second ballot. To summarize, the Executive Committee's conclusions are as follows: Clear Wish "1. It believes that it was the clear wish of the Central Committee that only one name be submitted and that no statement as to number of names desired would have overturned that majority although it might have reduced it somewhat. "2. It believes that, while the Central Committee voted to submit only one name, and, by majority vote, named Mrs. Nye for that recommendation, it would not object to having the County Court take cognizance of the fact that Donald Stathos received, on the final ballot, 45 votes or about 42 1/2 percent of the vote. It is believed that the Central Committee would vigorously object to having considered for recommendation by them any person who received less than 10 percent of the votes cast, and would still, therefore, object to the submission of three names. "3. Since the Executive Committee has strong grounds for its beliefs, it sees no reason for calling another meeting of the Central Committee and believes that the members of the Central Committee would not want one called. "The Committee is cognizant of the remarks that have been made that Mrs. Nye "was rejected by the voters of

Jackson County." It would call the attention of the Court to the fact that Mrs. Nye, alone of the persons who sought our recommendation, was willing to go to the work and expense of two hard campaigns this year—the Primary and the general election. In the Primary, she got a clear majority of votes cast by Republicans, showing that her party wanted her in the legislature. At the meeting of Nov. 21, the grass-roots representatives of the Republican Party in Jackson county again, by majority vote, stated that she was their selection for another position in the legislature. If the Court wants to give consideration to the wishes of the Republican Party, as expressed on these two occasions, it will name Mrs. Nye."

Charges Filed in Training Accident

Frankfurt, Germany - (UPI) - The U.S. Army today lodged charges of negligent homicide against two officers and one enlisted man for the deaths of 16 soldiers in an artillery training accident. An Army spokesman said a long and thorough investigation into the incident at Grafenwoehr Sept. 2 resulted in charges against 1st Lt. George I. O'Gray Jr. of Arlington, Va.; 2nd Lt. Mark F. Kempf of San Antonio, Tex.; and Pfc. Raymond R. Riggs of New Iberia, La. The 16 men died when an artillery shell overshot a firing range and landed in their maneuver area close to the Czech border.

Atlas Missile Falls Short of Test Goal

Cape Canaveral, Fla. - (UPI) - An 82-foot Atlas missile fell more than 4,000 miles short of its goal in the Atlantic test range Tuesday night when its rocket engines misfired. It was the second failure in the last two Atlas flights. The Atlas appeared to be traveling normally on the first lap of a planned 5,000-mile flight. But when its booster engines separated, the sustained rocket abruptly cut off seconds ahead of schedule. The rocket plunged, apparently intact, into the Atlantic several hundred miles south-east of here.
