First Church of God To Meet at Wilson School

The First Church of God, formerly at Haven and Holly sts., will hold all of its services starting Sunday at Wilson school gymnasium at Corona and Grand aves., according to the pastor, the Rev. W. E. Martin.

Services will continue to be held at Wilson school until the completion of the new church at 2000 Crater Lake ave. Work on the new building is progressing according to plan utilizing volunteer labor under the direction of a full-time carpenter, George Cramer. The new building is expected to be ready in late January.

All members are being notified by personal letter of the change in location of the services and how to reach Wilson school.

A transportation committee consisting of Mrs. Everett Noss and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hagen has been formed to see that all who desire to attend any service will be assured of a ride. All those who are to furnish transportation and those to be picked up are being notified by telephone. Anyone who has not been contacted and is in need of transportation should call Mrs. Noss, SPring 2-6001 or Mrs. Hagen, SPring 3-6136.

Mr. Martin will speak Sunday morning on "The Church and Her Mission."

LEO A. MAHAN Giving Instruction

Representative Of Watchtower Society Here

Visiting the Medford congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses this week is Leo A. Mahan, representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society world headquarters in Brooklyn, N. Y.

He is here to supervise and effect improvements in the local ministerial training program conducted by the Bible teaching fellowship.

H. S. Nixon, presiding minister of the Medford congregation, announced that there has been a 10 per cent increase in the local preaching fellowship with four new publishers ordained since the circuit minister's visit six months ago. Attendance at the congregation meetings, and the number of ministers being trained in house-to-house ministry has shown a marked increase.

Mr. Mahan is giving personal instruction in these features of house-to-house preaching to individual members of the congregation. Platform instruction began with the keynote address "Become Effective Teachers" by Mahan Tuesday evening.

Highlight of Saturday's activity will be the talk by Mahan at 8 p.m. on the subject "Staying Awake With the Faithful and Discreet Slave," followed by participation by the congregation in the program "New Things Learned." Climax of this week of activity will be at 4 p.m. Sunday with the public Bible discourse "Seeking Peace With God And Man."

Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the church for the showing of a film entitled, "World Without End" and a discussion to be led by Christine Bartels. Seventh grade will be in charge of worship and refreshments.

Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. for a program, "To Be or Not To Be" led by Joel Gregory and featuring Dr. James Luce on the world's potential self-destruction. Fireside will be announced.

Family night dinner at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday will be in the Fellowship hall. It will include the Youth Fellowship choir practice from 7 to 8 p.m. in the church basement. The program for family night dinner will be a film showing the work of the missionary, Sarah Perkins.

Sunday evening, parents of high school teen-agers are invited to the home of Dr. and Mrs. West for a program entitled "The Problems and Pleasures of Raising a Teen-ager." The meeting starts at 7 p.m. at 2550 Old Military rd., and all parents are invited.

Westminster The Westminster Presbyterian church will meet for worship Sunday at 11 a.m. when the Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach on the subject "It is Time."

The choir will sing and children's church will be held. The church school will meet at 9:45 a.m. and new pupils may enroll in any of the departments from nursery through adult.

A church membership course for adults will be held Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. It will be taught by the pastor and will cover basic Christian living, patterns of Christian faith, and the work of the United Presbyterian church. This class will meet for two consecutive Sundays, after which the Elders will meet with those who desire to become members of the church.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday to view the film "Epistle From the Koreans." Fireside will be at the home of Garner Haupt, 222 Valley View dr.

A church family night dinner will be held Wednesday, Dec. 7, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Reservations may be called in to the church office. The second anniversary of the organization of the Westminster church will be celebrated at the dinner.

NEW AGE CHURCH "Cosmic Consciousness" will be the subject of a lecture at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday by Dr. Dell E. Millard, at the New Age church, north of Eagle Point, on Hammel rd. Preceding the lecture there will be a fellowship dinner at 1 p.m. and a musical half-hour at 2 p.m.

Nazarenes To Hear Phoenix Minister The Rev. Walter C. Morris will fill the pulpit Sunday at First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., in the absence of the pastor.

Mr. Morris, who is now pastoring the Church of the Nazarene in Phoenix, was formerly assistant pastor at Medford First church.

Music for the 11 a.m. service includes the sanctuary choir singing, "His Wonderful Look of Love" with Mrs. Rex Vowell as soloist. A duet "God Is Love" will be sung by George McUne and Dean von Stein.

The pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, is currently holding evangelistic services at the South Salem Church of the Nazarene. He will return to Medford Dec. 5.

Unity Services To Be Held in New Location Sunday Morning

Unity services will be held Sunday for the first time in their building at the corner of Haven and Holly sts. The building was recently purchased by the Unity Center of Medford from the First Church of God.

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. devotional service on "Worship God in Spirit and in Truth." The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a.m. Unity services have been held in Medford for 18 years, started by Mrs. Marion Brown who held a study group in the Medford Center building. At the first meeting there were eight students present. Today there is a membership of more than 125 with classes in Ashland and Grants Pass as well as Medford.

Schedule of Events At Sacred Heart Listed for Week

With the second week of Advent approaching, Sacred Heart Catholic church members have been reminded by their pastors that this is a season for spiritual, as well as material, preparation for the feast of Christmas.

In addition to attendance at the various church services, the Very Rev. Carl Mai has suggested that parishioners make individual personal sacrifices and observe family and group seasonal customs such as saying the Advent wreath prayers daily.

This evening the usual 6 o'clock First Friday mass will be said for the convenience of working people.

There will be three masses Saturday, Dec. 3, at 7, 8 and 11 a.m. The Fatima devotions, consisting of rosary and litany of the Blessed Virgin, will be recited following the 8 a.m. mass. The 11 a.m. mass is scheduled the first Saturday of each month particularly for the public school children attending catechism classes.

Holiday of Obligation Thursday, Dec. 8, is the feast of the Immaculate Conception and a holiday of obligation for all Catholics. Because attendance at mass is mandatory, Father Mai stated that six masses will be said in Sacred Heart church at 6, 7, 8 and 9 a.m. and at 12:10 and 6 p.m.

Saturday, Dec. 10, the devotions of the men's Nocturnal Adoration Society will take place beginning at 9 p.m. As last month, from 1 to 9 p.m. preceding the Nocturnal Hours, there will be exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament for the convenience of all parishioners - women, children, men who can't keep their "hour with their Lord" during the night - with the group prayers being offered for vocations and the general intentions of the parish.

Other activities will follow the regular schedule. Our Lady of Perpetual Help devotions are at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Also on Wednesday are the New Testament classes, at 7 p.m., for all adults interested in Bible study; and also at 7 p.m. is the high school of religion for public school students.

Catechism classes for children attending public grade schools meet every Saturday at 10 a.m.

Westminster To Observe Anniversary, Topics Told

"How To Meet Adversity" will be the sermon subject delivered by Dr. D. Kirkland West at the First Presbyterian church Sunday at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Singing at the first service the youth choir will be heard in a Swedish folk melody, "Let Carols Ring." The chancel choir under the direction of Lynn Sjolund will sing "Shepherds Had an Angel" at the 11 a.m. service. Miss Karen Christenson will sing "Trust in the Lord" for both services.

Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the church for the showing of a film entitled, "World Without End" and a discussion to be led by Christine Bartels. Seventh grade will be in charge of worship and refreshments.

Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. for a program, "To Be or Not To Be" led by Joel Gregory and featuring Dr. James Luce on the world's potential self-destruction. Fireside will be announced.

Businessman To Speak Sunday at Congregational

Speaker at the 10 a.m. service at the Congregational church Sunday will be John B. Herod, a businessman from northern California, who was sent to Africa to observe missionary work under the American Board. He has been spending the past month reporting to the Congregational churches of Oregon on how this overseas work looks to a church layman. Herod lives in Walnut Creek.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Herod will be at the Congregational church in Ashland and will show slides which he took on his trip. Members of the Medford congregation and all interested people are invited.

At the close of the morning service there will be a brief congregational meeting, mainly to consider inviting the Pacific University Singers to hold a concert in Medford their tour in February.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. at Pilgrim House, continuing the topic that provoked interest last week, "Evolution and the Bible."

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. a prayer study group for couples will have its initial meeting at the parsonage. A similar group for women will meet Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ted McLean.

Stewardship Day Planned Sunday Five men will speak during the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at Ascension Lutheran church, 2501 Barnett rd., according to the Rev. Elvin S. Tollefson, pastor.

The stewardship service will begin with a colored sound movie, "The Measure of Man." The regular liturgical service will be omitted due to the presentation of the 1961 congregational budget.

Talks will be presented by Oliver Erickson, "Stewardship of Time," Wendell Appen, "Stewardship of Talents," John Hall, "Stewardship of Possessions," Richard Melum, "Our Accomplishments," and Archie Olson, "Our Budget."

Hall is chairman of the stewardship program. Members and friends of the congregation will make their pledge at the close of the service. These will be received by the deacons and placed on the altar.

During the 9:45 a.m. Sunday school hour the school will rehearse for the Christmas program. Materials will be distributed to those children who wish to participate.

Monday at 7:30 p.m. the church council will meet.

Academy To Give Concert Tonight Tonight at 7:30 o'clock students in the music department of Rogue River Junior academy will appear in concert for the first time this school year.

A sacred program will be presented at the Missionary Volunteer meeting in the Ashland Seventh-day Adventist church located at Clark st. and Garden Way. Students in grades seven to ten make up the 40-voice choir and 20-member band under the direction of Music Instructor Marvin Wilson.

In addition to numbers by the choir and band, other features will be a violin solo by Mark Zoeter, a saxophone trio and the Girls' Glee club.
