

Program for Band Concert Sunday Announced Today

A 20-selection program featuring a variety of music was announced today for the Medford High school's ninth annual "pop concert" Sunday, Dec. 11, at 2 p.m.

I. A. Mirick, instrumental music supervisor, said that proceeds from the benefit presentation would be used to finance the band's trip to the annual East-West Shrine football game in San Francisco late this month. For the past several years, the local musicians have been invited to participate at the football event and this year they will present a special show.

Tickets are still being sold by band members, and they may also be purchased at the door, according to Mirick. Prices are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Doors open at 1 p.m. Sunday.

Selections Noted

Selections to be performed by the band include John Philip Sousa's "Semper Fidelis March," "Emblem of Unity," by J. J. Richards; selections from "Green Willow," by Frank Loesser; an overture, "Peter Schmolli," by C. M. VonWeber; and Sousa's "Free Lance march."

In addition, a trumpet trio, "Tropical Trumpets," featuring Mike Johnston, Bob Heide, and Ron Ingram; a saxophone solo, "Piggly-Wiggle," by Miss Linda Hess; a cornet solo, "Conversation for Cornet," performed by Bob Heide; and a tympani solo by Harry Taylor, "Tympani Tom."

Vocal pieces will include "When Allen-A-Dale Went A-Hunting," de Pearsall; "Oh, What a Beautiful City," Boatner; "Choral Scherzo on a Well Known Theme," Kublik; "American Street Cries," Siegmeyer; "One Little Candle," by Mysels and Roach; selections from "Guys and Dolls," as arranged by Warnick; and a joint presentation with the band of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," with the setting by Peter J. Wilhousky.

Conclude Program

The MHS varsity band will conclude their program with "A Westchester Overture," by Clare Grundman; the Medford High fight song; and "Our National Anthem."

Radio KMED will record most of the show for later broadcast, tentatively scheduled for Sunday afternoon or evening. Russ Jamison, Dick Moody, and Ellis Feinstein—all KMED employees—are in charge of writing and producing the show, as well as recording it Sunday.

Assisting also in the show are the high school band majorettes, directed by Mrs. Virginia Westerfield, as ushers; Robert Stedman and staff, lights; Warren Wolf and students, art work; and Marion Pitman and crew, stage preparations.

The production is given with the joint cooperation of Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of schools, and Ray Johnson, manager, KMED. Directing the vocal music groups will be Lynn Sjolund, vocal music supervisor.

School officials say that scores of teenagers and their advisors have spent weeks in preparation for the annual show. The high school music groups are well-known for their talent, as evidenced by their numerous invitations and requests to perform.

Siuslaw Paper Sale Announced

Florence—UPI—Sale of the Siuslaw Oar by Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Morgan and Wayne and Leland Morgan to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Holman, owners and publishers of the Florence News was announced today.

The transaction was handled by Harris Ellsworth of Roseburg, newspaper broker and former congressman. Formal transfer of the weekly paper to the Holmans took place Monday.

The Morgans said they felt combining the two papers was the best thing for the community.

The Siuslaw Oar succeeded the "West" newspaper in 1928 when M. D. Morgan came here from Harrisburg. Upon death in 1952 of Lola I. Morgan, wife of the founder, a formal partnership was formed between Genevieve and Carrol Morgan and Wayne and Leland Morgan. They continued publication until this week.

The Holmans purchased the Florence News in 1958. They said that for the present there would be no change in basic operations except that the two papers would be consolidated.
