Schleigh-Johnson Rites Held in Methodist Chapel

Meeker chapel of First Methodist church was the scene December 3 of the wedding of Miss Beverly Johnson, 709 West Jackson street, to Lester Schleigh, 800 1/2 Beekman street. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Johnson, Grants Pass, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Schleigh, 1980 Table Rock road.

The Rev. George Roseberry performed the ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening before about 75 guests. Mr. Johnson escorted his daughter to the altar for the double-ring rites.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the altar and chapel. Mrs. Lester Bergman was organist and Miss Karen Paschke sang.

The bride wore a waltz-length gown of lace over tulle with a jacket of lace. Her elbow-length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls in ruffled net. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Sharon Ross, Corvallis, was maid of honor and the Misses Rose Mary Schleigh, sister of the bridegroom, and Sandra Cameron were bridesmaids. They wore royal blue embroidered rayon tulle gowns with three-quarter-length sleeves. Their bouquets were of large white chrysanthemums encircled by white ribbons, accented with blue ribbons.

Douglas Cameron was best man. Donald Wallace, Phoenix, was ring bearer.

Home Rites Wed Couple

Mrs. Helen C. Prentice and George E. Milligan were married in a ceremony held Thursday, December 1, in the home of Mrs. H. R. Prentice, 810 South Oakdale avenue. Dr. George Roseberry officiated for the rites, held at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

About 50 guests were present for the ceremony and the reception which followed.

The bride wore a blue waltz-length frock fashioned with full organza skirt and lace bodice with three-quarter length sleeves. Her hat matched the dress and she carried a nosegay of white roses and pink carnations.

Mrs. B. H. Belknap was matron of honor, and Duane Franklin was best man for Mr. Milligan. Mrs. Belknap wore a dress of soft pink brocade with matching hat and carried pink and coral rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Milligan have returned from a wedding trip to California and are at home at 1812 Archer drive. Mrs. Milligan is a teller at the Medford branch, United States National Bank of Portland. Mr. Milligan is employed by the Federal Aviation agency as airport control tower operator at the Medford airport. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. James M. Milligan, 32 Mistletree street, Medford.

Couple Married In Rogue River

Rogue River—Mrs. Lucille Hulsey, who has been a resident of southern California, became the bride of Clarence Cook, route 1, Rogue River, Sunday, December 4.

The Rev. L. D. Martin performed the ceremony in the Assembly of God church at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cecil Morris will make their home at 634 Crater Lake avenue later this week following their return from a wedding trip to Tijuana, Mexico.

The couple was married December 5 in a double ring ceremony at First Baptist church. The Rev. Edward C. Stauffer officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening rites.

Mrs. Morris is the former Bea Margaret McMahon, owner of Bea's Laundromat here. Mr. Morris, a former Medford city police officer, made his home at 234 Crater Lake avenue.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mrs. W. D. McGinnis, 1019 Queen Ann avenue, attended by 50 relatives and friends.

The bridegroom was recently employed as security officer for North American Aviation in California.

Birthday Observed

Fifty-two members of Riverside Bridge club honored a fellow player, Mrs. Josephine Clark, 116 Laurel street, Wednesday in celebration of her 92nd birthday anniversary. A luncheon, complete with birthday cake, preceded the game.

High scores for north-south were won by Mrs. F. E. Bowman and Mrs. F. T. Burich, first; Mrs. Sam Richardson and Mrs. B. D. Blackstone, second; Mrs. Sam Stinebaugh and Mrs. R. Copeland, Grants Pass, third; Mrs. Marris Gibbons and Mrs. B. B. Hughes, fourth.

East-west winners were Mrs. W. W. Stevenson and Mrs. Frank R. Baker, first; Mrs. Sam Van Dyke and Mrs. John Dougherty, second; Mrs. Dale Fornerick and Mrs. Del Clifford, third; Mrs. J. S. Winslow and Mrs. R. T. Jones, fourth.

Barbara Morton Elected Queen Of Bethel 14

Miss Barbara Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Smith, 826 Grant avenue, was elected queen of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, at the meeting held Wednesday, December 7.

Elected to serve as line officers of the Bethel with Miss Morton were the Misses Diane Everham, senior princess; Laura Rupert, junior princess; Pat Ellis, guide, and Patti Harris, marshal.

Escorted and introduced during the evening were L. R. Manning, grand associate guardian of the state of Oregon; Mrs. C. D. Elhart, past grand guardian, and past guardian of Bethels 14 and 22; and grand Bethel representative to the state of New Mexico, Miss Vicki Ingram.

The Bethel will have a caroling party on December 23, meeting at the Masonic hall at 6 p.m. Following the caroling, the girls will go to the home of the honored queen, Miss Carla Borough, 1626 Myers lane, for refreshments.

The regular meeting of the Bethel on January 4 has been cancelled and installation of new officers will be held on Saturday, January 7, in the Masonic temple.

The next regular meeting of the Bethel will be Wednesday, December 21, when majority degrees and proficiency certificates will be awarded.

Dinner Planned Monday Night

Scottish Rite Women's club will meet Monday, December 12, at the Masonic hall at 6:30 p.m. for a potluck dinner.

This will be the Christmas party of the year for the women and a gift exchange will follow dinner. All those who attend are asked to take a gift.

Cards will follow the gift exchange. Bridge, pinocle and canasta will be played.

Mrs. Frank Salvers will be chairman of the evening. All Scottish Rite Masons and their wives are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilfred Shepherd III were married October 15 at the Carmel, Calif., Presbyterian church. The bride is the former Gertrude Cornelia Walholm, daughter of Mrs. Edward Charles St. Louis, Santa Rosa, Calif., and Dr. Frank Edward Cornelia, Pelham, N.Y. Mr. Shepherd is a son of Mrs. Robert Wilfred Shepherd Sr., 867 Murphy road, Medford, and the late Mr. Shepherd. The bridegroom is with the international division, Wells Fargo Bank-American Trust company, San Francisco.

Betrothal News Told at School

Announcement has been of the engagement of Miss Barbara Jean Nulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Nulton, 341 Ardmore street, to Ronald Eugene Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fields, 418 Laurel street.

Sorority sisters of the bride-to-be heard the first news of the engagement at a fireside at Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, University of Oregon, where Miss Nulton is a sophomore.

Both young people are graduates of Medford High school and the bridegroom-to-be is a junior at Southern Oregon college.

They plan a summer wedding.

Eagle Point Homes Open

Eagle Point—The trend toward "do-it-yourself" ideas for home decorations will be featured by the Eagle Point Garden club in an open house of four homes on Wednesday, December 14 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. Each home will be decorated in a different color theme and tradition in mind. They will range from the old fashioned decorations through the ultra-modern.

The four decorated homes to be open for viewing are those of Mrs. Steve Wilson located on the corner of the Crater Lake highway and Dutton road, Mrs. Clarence Davies at the corner of Bigham and Antelope roads, Mrs. C. E. Kimmel at the southern end of South B street, and Mrs. Betty J. Clause at 311 South B street. Signs will be posted in front of the homes to aid in their identification.

A silver tea will be held at the Eagle Point Grange hall from 2 to 5 p.m. in connection with the open house tours. Christmas decorations will be displayed with a few of the items being for sale.

Everyone is invited to attend and may view the homes and displays at their convenience during the designated hours.
