A reception held in the Gold Hill Community church honored Mr. and Mrs. Lea Roy Bornmann on their golden wedding anniversary. The Bornmanns came to Gold Hill in 1936 from Nebraska.

Anniversary Celebrated By Lea Roy Bornmanns

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. Lea Roy Bornmann, 1173 Second avenue, Gold Hill, were honored at a reception Sunday, December 4, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary, which was December 8.

More than 70 friends and relatives of the couple called between 2 and 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The open house was given in the social room at the Gold Hill Community Methodist church.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. George Dorman, Mrs. Wilbur Martin and Mrs. Earl Moore. They were assisted by other members of the Woman's Society of the church and Amethyst Rebekah lodge, sponsoring groups for the event. Mrs. Carter was chairman for the arrangements.

Granddaughters

Mrs. Richard Taylor, Eugene, and Miss Marjorie Bornmann, Grants Pass, granddaughters of the couple, took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Charles Bornmann, a daughter-in-law of the honored couple, was at the gift table. Other granddaughters of the Bornmanns, Miss Charlene Bornmann, Merlin, and Miss Mary Anne Bornmann, Merlin, presided at the punch bowl. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Ralph Bornmann, a daughter-in-law.

A lace cloth over gold covered the table which held the anniversary cake. White tapered trimmings with miniature wedding bells stood in crystal holders.

Arrangements of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums in two crystal baskets decorated the gift table and roses in a planter was topped with a gold "50."

A piece of Mexican drawn handwork that Mrs. Bornmann had made prior to her marriage for her hope chest was displayed. Also displayed was the couple's wedding picture.

For the reception, Mrs. Bornmann wore a blue jersey afternoon frock. Her yellow chrysanthemum corsage was tied with a gold ribbon.

Penny Tree
A group of friends presented the couple a "lucky penny tree."

A Methodist minister performed the Bornmanns' wedding ceremony December 8, 1910 at Atkinson, Neb. Both have been active church workers.

Mrs. Bornmann is a retired seamstress and school teacher. Her husband was an employee of Lincoln Electric company in Nebraska before moving to southern Oregon. They have lived in Gold Hill since 1936. Mr. Bornmann was an electrician at Ideal Cement company until about 10 years ago.

The Bornmanns transferred their membership from a Methodist church in Nebraska to the Gold Hill Community Methodist church in 1938. Mrs. Bornmann is an active member of the Woman's Society of the church. He designed and built the pews for the church when the building was built in 1938.

Mr. Bornmann became a member of Odd Fellows lodge in January, 1944. Late in the summer of the same year they both became members of Amethyst Rebekah lodge in which they are still active. They are past noble grands of their respective lodges. She is also a past president of the Amethyst Rebekah lodge.

During their leisure time they both enjoy handicraft work.

They have two sons, Charles and Ralph Bornmann, who reside in the Grants Pass area.

Reunion Dinner Is Sunday Event In Rogue River
Rogue River — A reunion dinner was held at the George Maglerie home Sunday, December 4, in honor of Mrs. Myrtle McGregory, her son, Allan, and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Curry, and children, Bobby and Royce Jr.
