Susannah Guild Elects Officers; Program Given

Elected to serve with Mrs. Taylor were Mrs. John Glenn, vice president; and Mrs. Harold Strang, secretary of promotion. Treasurer is Mrs. James Sanford, and secretary, Mrs. Richard Stratton.

Following the Christmas buffet dinner, the unit received into membership four women, Miss Donna Dale, Miss Mary Evans, Mrs. Lynda Weinhold and Mrs. Bob Bills. Presiding over this service was Mrs. Charles Adamson, Oregon conference secretary of the guilds.

Special "Christmas socks" were pinned on a small fir tree during the evening, the money from which will go toward paying off the debt on the Beulah Faber - Louise Bunch Memorial chapel of the Methodist home in Salem. This chapel has been a project of the Oregon guilds in honor of two women who were active in this work during their lives.

Mrs. Adamson presented the evening's program, displaying a "Portfolio of Carols by Contemporary Artists". As she presented each picture, a brief description of the artist and the setting for the painting was given, following which a verse was sung of the carol being described.
