Hornung Leads Packers to 13-0 Win Over 49ers in Mud and Rain

San Francisco – (UPI) – The Green Bay Packers, who once admitted they were "dead"in this year's National Football league race, vaulted into the Western Division lead Saturday on the talented running and kicking of workhorse Paul Hornung, who led them through the mud and rain to a slippery 13-0 victory over the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

Hornung, with a pile-driving assist all day from Jim Taylor, scored the lone touchdown of the day, kicked a point after and also booted two field goals. With the victory, Green Bay moved a half game ahead of the Baltimore Colts, who played the Los Angeles Rams tomorrow. The Packers now have a 7-4 record.

San Francisco was knocked out of contention with the defeat and now is 6-5.

Passing Grounded

The passing attack of both teams was just about grounded by the miserable weather that included, rain, cold and fog all through the contest. But it didn't deter the 53,612 fans from leaving their seats until seconds before the final gun. They came dressed in all types of rain garb – to cheer the Forty Niners. But they stayed to see a great defensive effort by Green Bay.

In fact, the Packers were so good on defense that they never allowed San Francisco more than one foot inside their territory.

The two teams, unable to make much ground during the heavy rain of the first half, went scoreless until 52 seconds before the intermission.

The Packers got on the board when Hornung kicked a mud-soaked ball 38 yards for a field goal. He had attempted one through the rain early in the first period but it slithered off the side of his foot and missed the goal post by 10 yards.

That three points stood up until the last quarter.

The Packer defense, with end Bill Quinlan and tackles Henry Jordan and Dave Hanner providing a stone wall, kept San Francisco deep in its own territory.

Start Drive

Then Green Bay started a drive from its own 16 and in nine plays drove the 84 yards to score. The all-conclusive run was Hornung's 29-yarder behind a horde of blocker to the end zone.

During the drive, Taylor was a veritable block-buster. On four successive plays, he rammed over guard for six, over tackle for three, around end for six, and finally broke loose through left tackle and went 25 yards before Abe Woodson caught him on the San Francisco 34.

The Packers made one other deep penetration, getting down to the San Francisco 12 with three minutes to play, but Hornung slipped attempting to cut around end and was thrown for a 10 yard loss. The former Notre Dame All-American then added a little frosting to the cake with a 23 yard field goal.

Quarterback John Brodie had a rough day for San Francisco. Even when he hit his receivers the muddy ball slipped out of their grasp and under the circumstances coach Red Hickey's so called "shotgun offense" made no headway at all.

Bart Starr, calling the signals for Green Bay, soon gave up on the aerials and stuck to the ground.

Control Established

With Taylor and Hornung powering through the line, he had no trouble establishing ball control. It seemed that every time Green Bay needed two or three yards for a first down the Packers' 250-pound-per-man offensive line just pushed the San Francisco defense out of the way and the backs stepped over the muddy mass of humanity.

Taylor, who took to the mud like a duck to water, carried the ball 28 times for 161 yards. That was the highest yardage of a running back against the Forty Niners. The previous high was 160 yards by Spec Sanders of the New York Yankees in the old All-America conference in 1947. Hornung, who got 57 yards on 18 tries, had the most in the National league – 138 against San Francisco in 1959.

Starr, who completed 6 out of 17 in the first half, threw only twice in the second half – both incomplete. Brodie had 7 for 19 and Y. A. Tittle completed 2 out of 6 and had one intercepted for a minus 7 yards for the day.

The longest run that San Francisco got all day was a 14-yarder by Brodie on a keeper. But that only brought San Francisco out of the shadow of their own goal post. During the first half the San Francisco offense gained only 49 yards rushing and 24 passing compared with 101 and 41 for the visitors.

All told, Green Bay gained 251 yards rushing to 71 for San Francisco. Green Bay didn't complete a pass in the second half and had a total of 41 yards passing. San Francisco's net aerial yardage for the day was only 10. Brodie completed several in the second half that lost yardage.

Ted Kroll Grabs Lead

Coral Gables, Fla.–(UPI)– Veteran Ted Kroll of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., former holder of golf's one-year money winning record, shot a five-under-par 33-33—66 today for a 202 total and a two-stroke lead in the $20,000 Coral Gables Coral Open Golf tournament.

Kroll, "with lightning hitting the poorhouse," eagled the first hole, shot three birdies on the back nine and parred every other hole to jump in front of Dow Finsterwald with second-round leader Bob Goalby dropping to third place at 205.

Finsterwald, a former PGA champion from Tequesta, Fla., carded a 33-34—67 for 204 while Goalby shot a 36-35–71.

Wes Ellis Jr., of West Caldwell, N.J., added a 72 to two previously sub par rounds to cling to fourth place, five shots behind the pudgy little Kroll.

Arnold Palmer, who this year wiped out Kroll's one-year money winning mark, fired a 33-35–68 for a 208 total which tied him for fifth place with John Barnum of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Henry Willams Jr. of Fleetwood, Pa.

Barnum, the first round leader with a 65 who then skidded to a 74, shot a 30-39—69, while Williams posted a 73.

Lew Worsham, former U.S. open champion, shot a 68 to head a group at 209 while Johnny Pott of Shreveport, La., winner of last week's West Palm Beach Open, had a 70 to place among those at 210.

Raider JV Takes Tilt From COS

Ashland – Southern Oregon college's junior varsity opened a week end series by notching its second win of the season with a 67-61 triumph over College of Siskiyou from Weed here Friday night.

Coach Al Akins' jayvee hoopsters had to do it the hard way, coming from behind midway in the second half. COS led 28-27 at halftime.

Center Fred Louk gave the SOC juniors a lead they never relinquished by hooking home a fielder for a 46-44 SOC lead with 11 minutes showing on the clock. Freshman guard Larry Hink scored nine of the next 13 jayvee points to put the game out of reach of the scrappy Eagles.

Frosh Steve DeFore topped the jayvees scorers with 23 counters. Hink was next with 19 and guard Bob Jensen contributed 11.

Game honors, however, went to Eagle Dow Beckham who tossed in 25 tallies.

SOC hit .397 from the field of 27 of 68 shots. The Eagles hit a cool .296 clip on 21 of 71.

Crater Cage Quint Beats Stayton High

Central Point–Not so warm, itself, the Crater high basketball quintet turned back cold-shooting Stayton 41 to 30 here Friday evening

The Comets, lagging 13 to 8 after one quarter caught up at 13-each then broke a 14-all knot to go ahead to stay.

In other contests of the afternoon and evening, Rogue River varsity clipped the Crater jayvees 55 to 49 and the Comet freshmen beat the Rogue Valley junior varsity 46 to 18.

Crater's main aggregation led Stayton 24 to 19 at the half and 27 to 21 after three quarters.

Only five points were tabulated in the third quarter and the Comets' Jim Allen had the only field goal. Stayton checked Crater with zone defense and, using a five man weave during the canto to control the ball much of the time, the Eagles took only five field shots, themselves. Crater tried 14 times to hit the hoop with a number of efforts the tip up variety.

Loyal Higinbotham had 12 points and Dennis Edwards 10 for Crater and Jim McGill 10 for Stayton. Edwards topped rebounding with 11 retrieves. Jeff Anhorn for the Comets and McGill, Larry Larimer and John Bryant for the Eagles eight apiece. Stayton had 48 to 42 the better of it in rebounds.

.272 Average

Crater had 16 field buckets in 59 attempts at the hoop for .272 average and Stayton only nine in 46 shots for .195. Despite this coldness, the lively Eagles made the Comets push to win. Higinbotham and Louis Alvarez each had six assists and Alvarez turned in the best floor game for both clubs, heaved the outstanding pass of the night. It went to Anhorn for a layup bucket.

Rogue River regulars took a 32 to 20 halfway lead on the Comet JV after an 11-11 first quarter. The junior Comets managed to whack the deficit to 40 to 38 in the third quarter. Ron Beman goaled off the fourth panel tipoff for what could have been a tying bucket. But the shot went into the Rogue River hoop and counted for the Chiefs.

Willie Jones had 24 points for Crater and Jerry Kite 15 and Steve Simer 13 for Rogue River. Free shots made the final difference. Each team got 17 field goals, Rogue River on 41 shots and Crater on 69.

Darrell Summerfield rolled up 16 points in the Comet freshman win. The ninth graders had 9 to 3, 20 to 7 and 33 to 16 period spreads.

BASKETBALL ISSUE

New York–Sports Illustrated's Special Basketball Issue, out last week, is a bonanza for the basketball buff. The magazine devotes 27 pages to scouting reports on 180 college teams, four pages to a color spectacle on Carolina's Dixie Classic and eight pages to an instructional article entitled "The Secret of a Great Offense" which features Ray Meyer's DePaul team. The scouting reports are divided into conference groups. Each team and individual player prospects are covered, and last year's records are included in the background information.

Colts Favored by One TD Over Rams

Los Angeles – (UPI) – The Baltimore Colts, fighting to stay in the National Football league's western division championship race, are favored by a touchdown to defeat the Los Angeles Rams today.

A Colt victory would keep the Baltimore club in a first place tie with the Green Bay Packers, conquerors of the San Francisco Forty Niners yesterday.

In other games the Chicago Bears are only five-point underdogs to the Browns at Cleveland, and the Detroit Lions are whopping 13-point favorites against the Dallas Cowboys at home.

The Philadelphia Eagles, who clinched their first Eastern title in 11 years last Sunday when they beat the St. Louis Cardinals, attempt to keep sharp against the Steelers at Pittsburgh this week. The champs are a slim one-point favorite to win their 10th in-a-row since an opening loss to the Browns. In the remaining NFL game, the New York Giants are picked by seven over the Redskins at Washington.

AFL Activity

American Football league activity this week also is expected to be on the spirited side with the Houston Oilers hoping to clinch the Eastern title at home Sunday against the Buffalo Bills. In the other games, the Boston Patriots play the Texans at Dallas and the New York Titans are on the West Coast against the Oakland Raiders.

The Colts, who never have been lucky against the Rams and Forty Niners on the West Coast, will have to play without fullback Alan Ameche, who had a leg operation following the Forty Niner game two weeks ago. Billy Pricer will fill in again. The Rams, who have shown marked improvement in recent weeks, are in good physical shape.

Bears Working Hard

The Bears, who can sneak in if the top three stumble, have been working hard all week on both their offense and defense, neither of which sparkled in the Green Bay debacle. Coach George Halas says he's hopeful. The Browns, who beat the Bears in an exhibition game before the start of the season, spent extra time this week preparing protection for quarterback Milt Plum, who is certain to be chased by the blitzing Bears.

Earl Morrall, who threw the 65-yard "bomb" that exploded on the Colts last Sunday, will start at quarterback in place of Jim Ninowski for the Lions, who get a "breather" in the Cowboys after two straight "toughies." The Cowboys are "loose" now that they have salvaged at least one game (they tied the Giants last week after 10 straight losses) and could prove troublesome.

The Giants, shooting for a berth in the "runnerup" bowl game at Miami Jan. 8, will start quarterback Charley Conerly against the 'Skins, who are hoping to be at full strength for the first time in many Sundays. The Steelers, too, will be at their strongest (in manpower that is) for the Eagles, who are merely marking time until the title game but hoping it won't be delayed until Jan. 8.

Honeymoon Is Over at Cincy

United Press International

The myth that Cincinnati could put together another basketball powerhouse without its Big O is finally being shattered.

The Bearcats, who had illusions of continued grandeur following three straight victories this season, succumbed to an unheralded but spirited Seton Hall five, 84-76, Friday night.

It seemed to mark the beginning of a level-out period for Cincinnati, which had basked in the national spotlight for the last three seasons under the guidance of its favorite son, Oscar Robertson.

The eighth-ranked Bearcats started strong before a crowd of better than 14,000 at Madison Square Garden and held a 37-34 lead at halftime. But Art Hicks, Hank Gunter and Al Senavitis got hot for the Pirates and within five minutes of the second half Seton Hall was out in front, 49-48.

Cincy Couldn't Catch Up

Bob Wiesenhahn, who is expected to pick up much of the slack created by the loss of Robertson, scored a basket to regain the lead for Cincinnati, but he fouled out of the game on the next play and Seton Hall had little trouble in building an insurmountable 10-point lead with four minutes remaining.

PUBLIC ACCESS ALLOWED

Portland — A cooperative agreement between the game commission and Georgia-Pacific Timber company permitting public access to the company's Olallie creek reservoir has made available to anglers for the 1961 season a body of water which should produce some excellent fishing. Following the access agreement the game commission stocked the 40-acre impoundment with around 22,000 cutthroat trout fingerlings. These trout will be of good size when the season opens next spring. Olallie reservoir is located on Olallie creek which empties into Yaquina bay at Toledo. The reservoir is a few miles upstream.

NM State Offensive Champion

New York–(UPI)–Undefeated and untied New Mexico State officially was crowned the 1960 major college football offense champion while Louisiana State won the defense title.

According to the final NCAA service bureau statistics released today, New Mexico State scored 374 points in 10 games for a 37.4 point per game average.

Defense-minded LSU allowed only 50 points and four touchdowns for a 10-game average of 5.0 points per game.

Memphis State was runner-up in the scoring with a 30.3 average. Alabama was next in defense, limiting its opponents to 5.3 points per game.

In other final offensive statistics, the Aggies of New Mexico State also won the total offense title, Utah State was tops in rushing and Washington State led the nation in forward passing.

On the other side of the ledger, Wyoming was the total defense as well as the rushing defense leader. The figures show Iowa State was tops in pass defense and Auburn led in pass interceptions.

Wyoming Overruns UO 62-47

Laramie, Wyo. – (UPI) – Wyoming's diminutive guard, Earl Nau, scored 21 points while two teammates controlled the backboards Friday night as the Cowboys upset Oregon, 62-47, in an intersectional basketball game.

Nau waited for his shots and made them pay off. Maynard Lang and Curtis Jimerson controlled the rebound game.

Bob Steckman and Ron Bostick alternated in guarding Oregon's ace, six-foot, seven-inch Glen Moore, and held him to 11 points.

Coach Bill Strannigan's young team also hit a sizzling 89 per cent of its free throws and collected 43 per cent from the field.

Nau paced all scorers and Wyoming guard Jimerson got 16. Oregon forward Charles Warren had 13 for the losers, Moore got 11, and forward Vince Hayes 10.

Wyoming went ahead to stay with eight minutes left in the first half.

Chico Uses Height To Trip SOC 75-66

Ashland – Chico State college utilized its height advantage to defeat Southern Oregon college hoopmen 75-66 in the SOC gym Friday night.

Chico's Harold vonBargen contributed 22 points while his teammate Fred Obermiller garnered 18 rebounds to spark the Wildcats.

Obermiller's two tip-ins in the closing six minutes that staved off a Southern Oregon drove and put the game out reach.

Obermiller at 6-5 and vonBargen at 6-6 were just too much for the shorter Raiders as Chico grabbed off 52 rebounds, eight of which went for tip-ins and 16 points. SOC managed 36 rebounds but the Raiders were outclassed on the offensive boards 24-15.

Fight Into Contention

Chico took a commanding lead early in the second half after leading 34-33 at intermission but then the Raiders began to fight their way back into contention

Three consecutive hook shots by SOC's Earle Tichenor brought the Oregonians even at 60-60 with six minutes remaining.

Chico's Dennis Varley dropped in a free throw and Obermiller added his pair of tipins. This made it 65-60 and 5:13 was left.

Gordy Carrigan and Dave Hughes added field goals in the closing minutes and Larry Eickworth converted a pair of gift tosses.

Lead Lost

The Raiders had an early lead but lost it until the waning minutes of the first half. Then Carrigan brought the score even at 26-26. Tichenor added three points and Carrigan two more while Chico got one field goal as SOC took a 31-28 lead with 2:38 to go in the half.

Chico's Varley pumped in two jumpers from the side and the score reversed to 32-31. Wilbur Smith hit for Chico and Jerry Shults for SOC.

Tichenor led the Raider scoring with 19.

The Wildcats outshot the Raiders from the field .408 to .375. Chico held a decided edge in the free throws on hitting 17 of 24 attempts. SOC converted 12 of 21.

Raider coach Ted Schopf was able to point to one bright spot when he reflected on the performance of frosh Eickworth in his collegiate varsity debut. Schopf was impressed with his shooting ability and coolness under fire.

Arizona Out of Conference

El Paso, Tex. – (UPI) – The University of Arizona resigned from the Border conference at its annual winter meeting here Saturday, effective at the end of the academic year.

The meeting was about to break up when Athletic Director Dick Clausen announced that Arizona, a charter member when the conference was formed in 1931, was pulling out.

The decision culminated at least two years of exploration of realignment possibilities along with Arizona State university, which did not join Arizona in a joint resignation as had been somewhat expected.

As for Arizona's future, both Clausen and Dr. Richard Harvill, president of the U of A, were noncommittal. Harvill said "all that I am now able to say is that Arizona will continue to explore the possibilities for the future conference affiliation.

We are fully aware of the advantages of belonging to a conference."

Will Be Independent

Arizona will continue as an independent while casting about for another alignment. In the past several months Arizona and Arizona State ment talks with members of have taken part in realigna potential Great Western conference that would include Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, New Mexico, Utah, and Brigham Young.

Arizona State Athletic Director Clyde Smith said his school was advised by Arizona that the resignation would come today. Smith said no action was taken by the ASU faculty board when notified. He refused to say whether Arizona State would follow the Wildcats out of the Border conference at the spring meeting in Abilene, Tex., early in May.

"That is a decision for our institution to make," said Smith, "and not one that I should comment on at this time."

Skyline Realignment

Both Arizona and Arizona State have been mentioned as part of a Skyline realignment that would have three current members–Montana State, Denver, and Colorado State – voluntarily withdraw and be replaced by the two Arizona schools and Texas Western. Clausen indicated today he felt that would be a means of expediency in gaining new conference recognition for Arizona.

Asked if he believed the proposed Great Western conference dead, he said he knows only what went on at the Salt Lake City meeting early in October. At that time the Athletic directors and faculty members of the proposed conference turned the problem over to the presidents of the various schools. As yet, the presidents have not met.

Midwest and East Dominate Prep Choices

Los Angeles – (UPI) – The 1960 All-American high school football team was announced Saturday by 'Teen magazine which reported the 12-man squad selected by sports writers was dominated by the east and midwest with three men from each section.

The west was represented by two players while one each was picked from the southwest, Rockies, midlands and south. Twelve players were chosen because of a tie vote on two of the five backs named.

The team averages 220 pounds in the line while the backfield average is 199 and the team average is 211 pounds.

The team: Ends – Gordon Rowley, Arvada (Colo.) high school; Dave Pivec, Patterson high school, Baltimore, Md. Tackles – Brian Schweda, Lawrence (Kans.) high school; Jock McLaughlin, Lake Washington high school, Kirkland, Wash. Guards – George Haislip, Denby high school, Detroit, Mich.; Tom Wilhalm, John Marshall high school, Cleveland, Ohio. Center–Richard Koeper, Sequoia high school, Redwood City, Calif. Backs – Ronnie Bliey, Tilden high school, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Wayne Bush, Glen Cliff high school, Nashville, Tenn.; Fred Mazurek, Redstone Township high school, Republia, Pa.; Dick Butkus, Vocational high school, Chicago, and Ernie Koy Jr., Bellville (Tex.) high school.

Wooden Shoe Sponsors Team

The Wooden Shoe restaurant will sponsor a team in the Southern Oregon Independent basketball league, it has been announced by Ken Hamner, manager of the Wooden Shoe and Holland hotel.

The team will be the same aggregation which played under the banner of Hawkinson Tire last season and won the league and district AAU championship and placed third in the state AAU playoffs.

Most of the players on the Wooden Shoe team are junior and senior high school coaches in county schools. Keith Johnson, coach at Central Point Junior high school, is the playing manager.
