

They'll Do It Every Time

Howard School

In Mrs. Evelyn Winningham's room, we have gone on two interesting field trips recently. The first one was to the Medford fire department where firemen showed us all their equipment. We saw where they ate and slept while they are on duty. We learned that it only took the men 32 seconds from the time the alarm sounded at night until the men had their clothes and equipment and were riding the fire truck out the doors. We saw all the toys the firemen were fixing for children for Christmas. Our next trip was to the Big Y toy department. We had chosen toys we would like to have. We found their prices in catalogues and at the store. We compared the costs and found out why they were different. We learned how the store bought their toys, and what we might need to know if we became a toy store clerk when we grew up. We wrote Thank You letters to both places to let them know how much we appreciated what they had done to help us.

In Mrs. Dorothy Arney's first grade room, we are decorating for Christmas. We have made shadow boxes for different kinds of evergreens. The shadow boxes are red and green. Pamela Hays brought silver paper for the shadow boxes. We cut out pictures for the Toy Store shelves on our bulletin board.

Neil Chapman has moved away and will go to school at Eagle Point. Janet Verschoor has moved to Medford and will go to Lincoln school. Our sweet potato plant is beginning to grow, and is getting prettier every day. We made Santa Claus folders for our mothers for Christmas.

The large bulletin board is Miss Mary Klocker's first grade classroom depicts the story of the first Christmas. Steve Christ brought a Nativity set for our room. Pamela Hays has given us heavy silver papers which we will use for making decorations for our Christmas tree.

In art class, we are making gifts to take home. We are learning Christmas songs. Sometime ago when we studied about seeds in our science class, we planted some beans. They have been blooming and now little beans are forming on them. We may have green beans for Christmas.

In Mrs. Hulda Fisher's third grade, we have been learning to write letters. We have learned the five parts of a letter. They are the heading, greeting, body, closing, and signature. For practice in letter writing, we wrote letters to Santa Claus. Among them were these two.

Dear Santa Claus,
Will you bring me a bride doll and some roller skates, please? I would like a little poodle dog, too.
I've been a good little girl.
Your friend,
DoRita Elbie

Dear Santa,
Will you please bring me a pair of skates?
I have been good all year. I have helped clean the house.
Your friend,
Loretta Rogers

Debbie Jones is the room president for the month of December in Mrs. Flossie Murray's fourth grade room. The two fourth grades are practicing the choral reading of Bible verses that they will

Los Angeles - (UPI) - Actor John Wayne was bequeathed the late Ward Bond's favorite shotgun, it was revealed under instructions of his will admitted to probate Wednesday. Wayne was a close friend of Bond, former star of the TV series "Wagon Train," who died Nov. 5. Bond's wife received the bulk of his estate according to the will.

Dallas, Tex. - (UPI) - Kip Hartz, Dallas jazz celebrity, died Wednesday night of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Class officers were elected in Mr. Jack Bailey's room Dec. 7. President is Jo Ann Niemi; vice president, Greg Ingram; secretary, Cathy Spencer; housekeepers, Denise Dean and Russell Morgan; messenger, Wanda Hughes; paper monitor, Charlotte McIntire; and hostess, Janice Horton.

Our social studies class is making a map of the Middle Atlantic states, showing capitol, lakes, rivers, large cities, and industries. We have committees studying climate, soil, and landforms.

Mr. Ronald Quackenbush's sixth grade elected room officers for the third six weeks. Those elected were president, Tommy Weaver; vice president, Linda Ferns, and secretary-treasurer, Mary Wong. These officers will have the responsibility of planning the room's Christmas party and decorations.

Our class has been studying Latin American countries. We all chose countries and gave reports on them. We each tried to include current events in our reports. Some people drew maps to go with their reports to make them more interesting.

Mrs. Margaret Mann's second grade room is busy preparing for Christmas. We are making gifts for our parents and tree and room decorations. Howard Verschoor transferred to Lincoln school. Christy Kinkade and Steven Jurdon came from Washington school to our school. We now have 29 boys and girls in our room.

Mr. Bill Colley's sixth grade elected new officers last Thursday. The new officers are Nikki Marshall, president; Pat Reagan, vice president; Brad Martin, secretary-treasurer; and Bob Kilne, student council representative.

The Howard school boys have completed three weeks of intramural basketball. The basketball games were played before school and during noon hour. Fifty-nine fourth, fifth, and sixth grade boys participated in the intramural program.

Team captains were Bob Kline, Ricky Froehreich, Tommy Moser, Chuck Pierce, David Jack, Brad Martin, Steve Johnson, and Danny Madden. Ricky Froehreich's team won the championship. Members of the winning team were Greg Gresham, Philip Reynolds, Dennis Beckman, Mike Huey, Leslie Deenin, and Robert Bryant.

Leading scorers of the intramural tournament were Ricky Froehreich with 80 points, Brad Martin with 68 points, Steve Johnson with 59 points, and Marvin Perdue with 48 points. The next intramural program will start after the Christmas vacation, the program will be volleyball with the fifth and sixth grade boys and girls participating.

The new officers for Mrs. Nita Birdseye's fifth grade are president, Judy Breazale; vice president, Ronnie Friesen; and secretary, Kay Friesen. Linda Calkins is general helper to the teacher, and Amy Stiehl is art chairman. New social studies committees have been working. Since we are studying the Middle Atlantic states, we decided to dramatize the story of Pocahontas. Kay Breeden was Pocahontas, Ronnie Hovey was Captain John Smith, Danny Madden was Powhatan, and Mark Baseler was the witch doctor. Ronnie Friesen will be the narrator when we present the sketch to Mr. Bailey's room on review day.

Another committee was formed to study the rivers of the Middle Atlantic states. They are Linda Calkins, Deb-
