336 Keglers To Roll in BPAA Meet

Park Ridge, Ill. - A record 336 bowlers will be represented among the 336 bowlers who will make up the field for the 20th annual BPAA All-Star tournament, according to the sponsoring Bowling Proprietors' Association of America.

The record equalling field of 240 men and 96 women will shoot for a record $68,150 in prize money during the ten-day tournament from Jan. 12 to 21, in the National Orange Show Exhibition hall at San Bernardino, Calif.

The bowlers, all of whom qualified through local or state BPAA Match Game eliminations or were seeded for past performances in BPAA events, will aim at $10,000 (first prize in the men's division and $5,000 in the women's division).

Smith, Wene Defend

Taking the lanes in defense of their titles will be Harry Smith of St. Louis and Sylvia Wene of Philadelphia. Last January in Omaha, Smith capped his first BPAA All-Star title by edging Bob Chase of Kansas City. Miss Wene captured the women's trophy with the first 200 game in All-Star history by a woman en route to the title. Sylvia bested out seven-time winner Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., by less than one point.

A record of nearly 12,000 bowlers attempted to qualify for the 304 All-Star spots. The bowlers having been seeded into the tournament through BPAA national tournaments. Almost 8,000 men sought the 230 male spots and more than 3,000 women sought after 96 feminine openings in local and state All-Star competition.

Entries include Mel Tomkinson and Tony Lindblad, Portland, and Don Lebold, Salem, who topped the Oregon tourney at Medford.

Bandon Five Wins Over St. Mary's

Bandon - With a 21-point third quarter scoring spurge, the Bandon high Tigers defeated "real old" St. Mary's of Medford basketball contingent in a Friday night fray 42-38.

St. Mary's applied a pressing defense in the final quarter. The Crusaders were able to get the ball and they were able to get to the hoop for layups but they were not able to put in a sufficient number of shots to overtake the host team. They did outscore the Tigers 17 to 6 in the period.

Bandon was on top at the quarter 8 to 6 and at the half 19 to 14.

Mike Mulliken had 12 points for Bandon and Mike Austin 11 and Dick Evans 10 for St. Mary's.
