Moore-Ward Rites Held

Miss Janet Mae Ward became the bride of Gerald Leroy Moore in a double ring ceremony held December 4 at First Methodist church. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the wedding and holy communion.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Ward, 30 Richmond avenue. Mr. Moore's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Moore, Aberdeen, Wash.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and red carnations decorated the church for the ceremony, attended by 100 relatives and friends. Mrs. Gerald Sherman played the organ music for the two o'clock afternoon rites and accompanied Otis Swisher, soloist.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with long sleeves, fitted bodice and Sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt of tulle was overlaid with wide bands of scalloped lace, forming a vee design in back and front. It ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was held by a lace and tulle headpiece trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mr. Ward gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. M. Ned Plowman, Portland, was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Sharon E. Moore and Miss Mary Lou Moore, both Aberdeen, Wash., sisters of the bridegroom. Little Judy Lynn Plowman, Portland, niece of the bride, was flower girl. They wore red velvet frocks with matching headbands and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations. The flower girl had a garland of green with avocado.

Carl Wiesbrod, Ashland, served as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Beane residence, Miss Renelda Griffith, Miss JoAnn Lilly and Miss Laura Beane served the punch and cake. Miss Barbara Beane was in charge of the guest book.

The couple are making their home in Prospect. The bride attended Prospect High school. Mr. Kolkin attended Cass Lake, Minn., schools and is employed by the U. S. forest service at the Union Creek Ranger station, Prospect.

Betrothal News Is Announced At Two Parties

Shady Cove - Mr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Chubb of Shady Cove announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Marguerite, to Bernard Lee Nork, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nork, also Shady Cove.

Miss Chubb is a sophomore attending the University of Oregon. The traditional engagement announcement took place in her dormitory, with the traditional song being sung. A surprise party was given the honoree following the announcement in Sweetser hall.

An engagement party was given the young couple by friends the last time the bride-to-be was home from school. Miss Lynda Conkey and Miss Bonnie Smith were co-hostesses in Miss Smith's home, in Shady Cove, to the group for refreshments. Heart-shaped twin cakes were served.

Later on the group traveled to the home of Larry Clements in Eagle Point for an evening of dancing. Others attending were Henry Conner, Frances Flink, Phyllis Briggs, Dale Casey, Jackie Hume, Larry Smith and Linda Eccleston, all of Shady Cove; James Vanderlip of Ashland, Joyce Hastings, student at Southern Oregon college, Calvin Hudsmith, resident of California, and Gary Williams of White City.

Both young people are graduates of Eagle Point High school. Miss Chubb attended her freshman year at Brigham Young university in Provo, Utah. She has been participating in the activities of "The Amphibians," a women's water ballet group.

Mr. Nork attended Oregon State college, and now is a student at Southern Oregon college, Ashland, and employed by the B. F. Nork Logging company, Shady Cove.

No date has been set for the wedding which will take place sometime in 1961.
