Queen To Preside At Final Meeting

Majority degrees and proficiency certificates will be awarded during the meeting of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, Wednesday, December 21, at 7:30 p.m., in the Medford Masonic temple.

This will be the last session at which Miss Carla Borough, honored queen, will preside. Any girls who must be absent because of participation in school programs are asked to call Mrs. Marilyn Harvey, guardian, prior to the meeting so that they may be excused. The choir will practice at 6:30 p.m., preceding the meeting.

Osteopaths Honored By Employees

Nurses and receptionists employed by southern Oregon osteopathic physicians honored the men and their wives at a buffet dinner in the banquet room at North's Chuck Wagon December 13.

Mrs. Edith Davis, employed in the office of Dr. George S. Jennings, was also honored. Mrs. Fred Clay, Jacksonville, mistress of ceremonies, presented Mrs. Davis a corsage and praised her for "21 years of loyal service to Dr. Jennings and his patients."

Unusual decorations for the tables included black doctor's bags as well as traditional Christmas material provided by Mrs. Marjorie Lockwood of Talent Garden club.

Serving on the committee were Mrs. Eunice Vowell, Mrs. Ruth Koer and Mrs. Clarence Behler.

An auction was held and the proceeds of $75 were donated to the National Osteopathic Christmas seal fund for student loan and research.

A humorous skit was presented by Mrs. Behler and Miss Sandra Bose.

Mrs. David Morgan, Shady Cove, accompanied by Mrs. Milton Snow, Medford, sang a solo and led the group in Christmas carols.

Missionary Council Names New Officers;

Miss Hazel Hanson was elected president of the Women's Missionary council of First Assembly of God church Tuesday evening, December 13. The council held its annual secret pal Christmas party and election of officers at the home of Mrs. Ulrich Keener.

Other new officers are Mrs. Don Jacobs, vice-president; Mrs. Keener, secretary; and Mrs. Myron Hanson, treasurer. Out-going officers are Mrs. Wylie Baker, president; Miss Hanson, vice-president; Mrs. Marjory Votaw, secretary; and Mrs. Daniel Smelser, treasurer.

Names of secret pals were revealed in the gift exchange. Mrs. Dan Cantonwine was chairman of the committee which served refreshments.

Zundels Honored At Party

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. O'Toole, 319 Laurel street, were hosts recently for a party celebrating the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zundel, 26 Almond street. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Schulz were co-hosts.

The Zundels were married in Sioux Falls, S. D., October 5, 1935, after which they moved to Watertown, S. D., where Mr. Zundel owned and operated a used car market and finance company. They moved to Medford in 1940 and he is now employed by Medford corporation as an electrician.

Movies of a South Dakota visit by the O'Tooles were shown. More movies were taken during the evening and refreshments were served. Guests attending the event presented a gift to the honored couple.

The Zundel's children are Sharon, a junior at Southern Oregon college; Sylvia, a sophomore at Medford high school; and Russell, a sixth grader at Roosevelt school. Guests included Mrs. Zundel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vosika, and Mr. and Mrs. John Carter. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brummond and Russell Zundel II. All the guests and the two host couples formerly lived in Watertown, except the Vosikas, who were once residents of Sioux Falls, S. D.

Junior Women Have Yule Party

Medford Junior Women's club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs held a Christmas party December 14 at the home of Mrs. Bob G. Norris, 2368 Crater Lake avenue.

Mrs. James A. Wells directed the members and prospective members in carol singing, accompanied by Mrs. William E. Sweet. Games with a Christmas theme were led by Mrs. Robert L. Haworth, chairman of the event. Santa Claus (Ray Huson) distributed "white elephant" gifts wrapped by the committee.

Members of the club brought children's toys and clothing to be presented at Christmas to the Albertina-Kerr Children's Home in Portland.

Mrs. Virgil I. Morton and Mrs. Gene F. Chamberlain assisted the hosts, Mrs. Norris.
