Forest Service Films To Be Shown at Monday Meet

Films furnished by the Rogue River national forest of the U. S. forest service will be shown Monday, December 19, at the Arm Chair Travel group at the Senior Activity center.
 The showing will begin at 1 p.m. and will be the last pictures to be shown at the Center, 601 East Jackson street, this year, since December 22 and January 2 are holidays and no meetings will be held.
 Both the Travel club and the Spanish class, which meets

Monday evenings, will have their next meetings January 9. On December 12 the seniors were entertained by a two-hour showing of colored slides by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Canoose, taken on their trip to Europe.
 The oil painting class will meet as usual on Tuesdays throughout the holidays. The exhibit planned by the group will take place early in January.
Not To Meet
 The woodcarving and clay modeling group will not meet on Wednesday, December 21, but are to meet as usual December 28 at 1 p.m. The orchestra plans to continue weekly meetings on Thursday afternoon, both on December 22 and 29. Their weekly sessions have become a favorite drop-in time for many seniors who listen to the music and join in the singing. Everyone is welcome and is invited to attend this weekly entertainment.

 The group of 19 senior musicians under the leadership of Edward Root, a retired county school music director, has

Lodge Members Attend Dinner
 Twenty-three members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge attended the turkey dinner Monday evening at the Eagles hall. It was their annual Christmas treat.
 Mrs. Ida Kelly presided at the business meeting which followed. The lodge voted to send Christmas greeting cards to all members confined to their homes and also to the juvenile members.
 It was announced that no meeting will be held December 26. For the next regular business meeting on January 9, Mrs. John Dodge and Mrs. Oda Thomason will be in charge of serving the refreshments.
 The Senior Citizens Orchestra will furnish the entertainment at the social meeting January 23.

Announce Dinner
 Jacksonville - Royal Arch Masons and Widows will meet in the Jacksonville Masonic hall Tuesday, December 20. A potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. will precede the regular session.
 On the committee for the evening are Mrs. Huldah Thurman, Mrs. Edward Taylor and Mrs. W. R. Peabody. All Royal Arch Masons will be welcome.
