Catey, Meyers Holiday Links Tussle Leaders

New leaders in the holiday handicap golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club are Bill Catey and Paul Meyers.

They beat Wally Robinson and Bill Renshaw 6 up to extend their total points to 12.

A 61-net best ball projected Bob Fasel and Leonard Schildt into second. The hot firing enabled them to take seven points from Ray Lindquist and Bill Hartman, Fasel and Schildt now total 10.

Tied in third spot with nine points each are the teams of Ned Schuler and Max Millhollin and of C. A. Holmes and Paul Haviland. Millhollin and Schuler were idle last week. Haviland and Holmes won two points from Millard Payton and Ken Van De Kamp.

The two would team with Bob Quinney, Jim Barry and Dick Ragsdale. Quinney, who suffered a badly bit tongue during the South Eugene series, was back with the squad yesterday. Ragsdale said he thought the 6-4 veteran will be able to go full speed by Thursday. It's a matter of getting his full strength back, the coach remarked. Quinney lost sleep and couldn't eat because of the injury and saw only 12 minutes of duty in the Saturday ruckus.

This afternoon's workout was to be harder than the usual day-before-the-game drill, according to the mentor because of the one-day less time to prep for the series. Ragsdale described the visiting "Cheesemakers as a good, strong ball club." He pointed to a 16-5 Tillamook record last season and said that the coast school has the same team back. Tillamook has a good scorer in 6-2 Leon Thompson and a 6-5 center. The Cheesemakers bowed 64 to 53 to strong Roseburg on Saturday.

Brown, George, Berry Head Pro All-Star Choices

By NORMAN MILLER United Press International New York—(UPI)—Linebacker Bill George of the Chicago Bears and offensive tackle Roosevelt Brown of the New York Giants were selected on the United Press International All-National Football league team today for the fifth consecutive season.

End Ray Berry of the Baltimore Colts was a unanimous choice for the second year in a row. He was the only player so honored by the panel of 38 writers.

The Green Bay Packers, Western division champions, and the Colts each placed four players on the 23-man, two-division squad. The Philadelphia Eagles, Eastern division winners, were represented by three men.

One of the Eagles to make the team was quarterback Norm Van Brocklin, who at 33 enjoyed probably the best of his 12 seasons in the NFL. Van Brocklin, who made the first All-Pro team for the first time in his career, ended Baltimore Johnny Unitas' two year grip on that position.

Van Brocklin previously had been voted on the UPI second All-Pro team three times. Elected to the first team backfield along with Van Brocklin were halfbacks Paul Hornung of the Packers and Lenny Moore of the Colts and fullback Jimmy Brown of the Cleveland Browns.

Berry and Sonny Randle of the St. Louis Cardinals were chosen at the offensive end positions; Brown and Jim Parker of the Colts at tackle; Jim Ray Smith of the Browns and Stan Jones of the Bears at guards and Jim Ringo of Green Bay at center.

On the defensive eleven were: ends Gino Marchetti of Baltimore and Doug Atkins of the Bears; tackles Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions and Henry Jordan of the Packers; linebackers George, Chuck Benarik of the Eagles and Bill

Lumberjacks Even With Red Raiders

Arcata, Calif. - Humboldt State boomed out in the second half to overcome Southern Oregon college basketball team 59 to 56 last night and split a two-game stand with the Red Raiders.

Southern Oregon headed 23 to 21 at halftime. Midway through the last half two quick buckets by George Milonitis put the Lumberjacks in front. Then Humboldt spurted to 51 to 39 command.

Jim Brown NFL Rushing Champion

New York—(UPI)—Cleveland's Jimmy Brown, despite his toughest opposition since he began his professional career in 1957, has been declared the National Football league's rushing champion for a record fourth consecutive season.

Brown, only the second man to win the ground gaining title four times and the first to do it consecutively, rolled up 1,257 yards to outdo the league's other "thousand-yard man," Jimmy Taylor of the Green Bay Packers and John Crow of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Brown carried the ball 215 times this season and had an average gain of 5.8 yards. Taylor, who plunged for the Packers 230 times, had a total of 1,101 yards and Crow, totalling the ball only 183 times for a 5.9 average, best of the league's top 10 ground gainers, ran for 1,101 yards.

Other individual champions of the 12-week NFL endurance grind were: Passing: Milt Plum, Cleveland, first in percentage completed and average gain, and with the fewest interceptions. Pass Receiving: Ray Berry, who caught 74 for 1,298 yards and 10 touchdowns with Baltimore.

Scoring: Paul Hornung, Green Bay, with a record 178 points on 15 touchdowns, 41 extra points and 15 field goals. Punting: Jerry Norton, St. Louis who kicked 39 times for an average of 45.6 yards. Field Goals: Tom Davis, San Francisco, with 19 successful out of 32 attempts.

Punt Returns: Abe Woodson, San Francisco, 13 for an average of 13.4. Kickoff Returns: Rookie Tom Moore, Green Bay, 12 for an average of 33.1 yards.

Interceptions: Dave Baker, San Francisco, and Jerry Norton, St. Louis, tied with 10 each, and, coincidentally, both returned their interceptions for a total of exactly 96 yards.

Pirate Five Overtakes St. Mary's

Phoenix - They say the reason that the Pittsburgh Pirates won the World Series was because of their ability to come from behind and pull the close ones out of the fire. Their namesakes at Phoenix high had the same winning power last night. They pulled an on-league basketball tussle out of the grasping hands of the St. Mary's Crusaders by squeaking by 35 to 31 after trailing the major part of the game.

With quarter scores of 11-4, 19-14, and 27-25 against them, the Pirates rallied and managed to hang on to the slim four point lead with which they finally won.

The first two periods of play saw St. Mary's of Medford in command on the floor. It wasn't until five minutes had passed in the second half that the Bucs could sink a field goal. Curt Harris made the breakthrough on a quick layin that stopped the jinx. Trying hard, the Pirates couldn't catch the hard and sharp shooting Crusaders in the half.

Bitterly Contested The last part of the game was bitterly contested with the teams matching shot for shot most of the time. The Bucs made the most of the time by putting in nine of the 11 buckets. And they had the advantage of more gift shots. The fourth quarter was the turning point. Once the home five had their lead, they just wouldn't be headed.

Phoenix with a .333 shooting eye was led by Harris with 15 counters. This was too much for the visitors as the best they could do was 285 for the field as Jim Calhoun scored 10 big ones.

In the preliminary scrap, the Crusader JV stole a close one from the Pirates 27 to 24. Joe Kaiser scored 19 for the visitors.

Husky Gridders Work Off Rust

Long Beach, Calif.—(UPI)—The Washington Huskies hit the practice field today for morning and afternoon drills to work off the rust preparatory to their Rose Bowl clash with Minnesota Jan. 2.

In their first day of double drills Tuesday since concluding their regular season Nov. 19, the Huskies huffed and puffed and generally were wild.

But, said Coach Jim Owens, "I'm not disappointed. It was natural they would be rusty." Many of the players complained of sore muscles after the double-decker workout in 80-degree weather.

One of the hardest workers in the drills was quarterback Bob Schloredt. "I feel fine," he said afterwards. Schloredt missed most of the season because of injuries.

Actually, free tosses made the difference. Each team had 22 field buckets. Humboldt made 15 of 25 gift heaves and SOC 12 of 26.

Carrigan scored 22 points for Southern Oregon and Milonitis 19 for the 'Jacks.

Ex-Major Loop Pitcher Dies

Holyoke, Mass.—(UPI)—Funeral arrangements were incomplete today for former major league pitcher James J. (Skip) Dowd, who died Tuesday at the age of 71.

Dowd pitched for the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Redlegs from 1910 to 1916 and then played for Montreal of the International league and Indianapolis of the American association.

Celts Maintain Slender Lead

United Press International The Boston Celtics, led by Tom Heinsohn, Bob Cousy and big Bill Russell, held on to their slim lead in the National Basketball association's Eastern division Tuesday night with a 115-112 victory over Cincinnati in New York's Madison Square garden.

In the nightcap of the NBA twin bill, sharpshooting Willie Naulls led New York to a 122-112 victory over the Syracuse Nationals. Out west in Portland, Ore., the Detroit Pistons defeated Los Angeles' Lakers, 97-94, in the only other league game.

If the Celts had lost their game with Cincinnati the idle Philadelphia Warriors would have taken a slim lead in the division race. Heinsohn scored 23 points, Cousy 18 and Russell 19 to give Boston its third straight win. Bailey Howell scored 31 in Detroit's victory but was outdistanced by Elgin Baylor with 37. Oscar Robertson hit 28 in Cincy's losing cause. Richie Guerin scored 23 for New York, Larry Costello had 32 for Syracuse and his teammate, oldtimer Dolph Schayes, scored 26.

Aim of Indiana To Aid Bellamy

By DICK JOYCE United Press International Poor Indiana, rich in basketball talent, but no place to go.

Post-season action is out of the question of Indiana's third-ranked quintet—so helping big Walt Bellamy reach All-American status is the next best bet for the Hoosiers.

In the NCAA doghouse for four years for alleged illegal recruiting methods, Indiana scored its fifth victory in six starts Tuesday night by downing Notre Dame, 74-69.

The 6-11 Bellamy, labeled as sure-fire pro material, poured in 29 points and dominated the backboards as the Hoosiers piled up a 16-point lead with less than 10 minutes to play and then withstood a late rally by the Irish.

In other top games, St. John's (N.Y.), rated No. 4 in the nation, belted Pittsburgh, 87-56; Brigham Young upset 10th-ranked Kansas, 80-70; Marquette tripped Iowa State, 70-62; Terry Dischinger scored 43 points in leading Purdue over Evansville, 84-75, and Utah State smashed Los Angeles State, 110-88.
