

Schloredt Not Expected To Start in Rose Bowl

(The following is another of the dispatches on the teams appearing in the major bowl games—the Rose, Cotton, Sugar, Orange and Gator.)

By JOHN R. LANG
Seattle, Wash. — (UPI) — The University of Washington staged one of the greatest upsets in the history of the Rose Bowl by spanking Wisconsin, 44-8, last New Year's Day.

The hero of the game was Bob Schloredt, a one-eyed quarterback who ran for one touchdown and passed for another.

Schloredt, a junior then, is still around but he is not expected to start for Washington when the Huskies return to the Rose Bowl for a battle with mighty Minnesota Jan. 2.

Although Schloredt has fully recovered from a broken collarbone he suffered early in the season, coach Jim Owens of the Huskies plans to use Bob Hivner as his starting quarterback against the Gophers. Schloredt and Kermit Jorgensen, who developed fast during the tail end of the season, will back up Hivner.

Schloredt, Hivner Equal
Actually, Schloredt and Hivner always have been considered fairly even as signal-callers. Schloredt had a slight advantage because he is bigger, weighing 190 pounds to Hivner's 175, and consequently is a harder runner to bring down.

The rest of Washington's starting backfield has George Fleming and Don McKeta at fullback and Ray Jackson at halfback. Each of these is backed up by capable replacements, such as Joe Jones at fullback and halfbacks Charlie Mitchell, Brent Wooten and Bob Monroe.

Fleming led the Huskies in scoring during the regular season with 65 points. The touchdowns were pretty well divided among the first eight backs, but Fleming is Washington's top conversion kicker and field goal specialist.

Backs Good Rushers
All the Washington backs are good rushers but Mitchell, who is known as "The Missile" to his teammates, is the flashiest ball carrier on the squad. He wound up the regular season with an average of slightly more than six yards per carry.

While Minnesota is noted for its defensive ability, the Huskies also are strong in the line. They led the Big Five Conference in rushing defense, allowing only 112 yards per game.

Washington's defense against passes wasn't too impressive but this could be misleading. Most teams were forced to pass against the Huskies because they couldn't move on the ground. But most of the opposition's completed passes went for small yardage because the Huskies usually were willing to give up short passes to defend against long gainers through the air.
