Double Rites Wed Couples

An event of December 16 was the double wedding of Miss Rosemary Ann Tokar to Ernest Earl Pathmann, and Miss Colleen Joanne Riley to Gordon Thomas Pathmann. Miss Riley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Riley, 616 Stewart avenue, and Miss Tokar's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Roseborough, 610 Oakdale drive.

The bridegrooms are the sons of Mrs. Agnes O. Pathmann, 519 Fairmont street.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the eight o'clock evening double ring rites held at First Presbyterian church and attended by 200 relatives and friends. White tapers and baskets of red poinsettias and holly decorated the church.

Miss Riley wore a floor length gown of lace over satin fashioned with scoop neckline trimmed with pearls and lace and a full skirt which ended in a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil was held by a pearl crown and she carried white rosebuds encircling a white orchid on a white Bible, a gift from her maid of honor. Her pendant and pearl earrings were gifts from the bridegroom.

Miss Tokar's floor length gown was fashioned with a bodice of poinsettia design lace and the full satin skirt had matching lace panels. Her shoulder length veil was held by a crown of pearls and she carried a white orchid and white roses on a white Bible, a gift from her sister, Miss Colleen Tokar. Her pearl and rhinestone pendant and matching earrings were gifts from the bridegroom.

They wore holly berry red frocks with lace bodices and full chiffon skirts over taffeta. Their satin slippers and bows hats with float veils matched their dresses and they carried nosegay bouquets of holly tied with red satin ribbon.

Each bridegroom served as best man for the other. Seating the guests for the Riley-Pathmann rites were Michael Riley, brother of the bride; Steven Wisely, brother-in-law of the bride, and Gerald Funk. Ushers for the other couple were Frank C. Tokar, Palm Springs, Calif., brother of the bride; Larry Ryerson, Central Point, and Warren Skoag.

Candlelighters were Sten Lovenborg and Dennis Ryerson.

Mrs. Robert Sheldon played the organ wedding music and accompanied the Rev. G. Robert Jacks, soloist.

For the wedding and reception which followed at the church Mrs. Riley chose a bronze satin dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Roseborough wore a brocaded satin sheath of antique white with matching jacket and Mrs. Pathmann's frock was of plum colored lace with matching accessories. The corsages were of pink rosebuds.

Two Cakes Cut

Two identical wedding cakes were cut at the receptions. For the Riley-Pathmann couple Mrs. George Lovenborg cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Nyla Lovenborg presided at the punch bowl. Miss Julie Jahn was in charge of the gift table.

Miss Colleen Tokar cut the cake for her sister's reception and Mrs. H. L. Brown presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ellen Augard was in charge of the gift table and Miss Lorna Benducci was at the gift table. Miss Lois Joy Tokar, sister of the bride, poured coffee for both receptions.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pathmann also traveled to Portland on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a jersey dress with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will make their home at 516 South Ivy street.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed by Olympic Petroleum Products company. Mr. Pathmann also attended Medford High school and is a student at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pathman also traveled to Portland on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a mocha colored wool suit with box jacket and beige accessories. The couple will be at home in Albuquerque, N.M., where the bridegroom is an airman second class in the U.S. air force. They plan to spend the holidays with their families in Medford.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school. The bride was employed by Mann's Department store.

Dinner Given

A rehearsal dinner was given by the mothers of the brides at the Roseborough home the evening prior to the wedding party.

Out of town guests at the rites were Mr. and Mrs. Preston Card and sons, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Vivian Pathmann, Riverside, Calif., grandmother of the bridegrooms; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Esterdale, Compton, Calif.; Mrs. Bessie James, Cornelius, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Eston Way and family, Lebanon, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Dale McMullin and Kathy and Dale, Cottage Grove.
