

OBITUARIES

JAMES A. TRAVIS
James Allen Travis, 43, of 119 Pine st., Central Point, died, apparently of a heart attack, Dec. 25, in Klamath Falls.

Mr. Travis had worked in the Klamath Falls area for two years prior to coming to Medford in March of this year. He was currently employed by the Mt. Pitt Lumber company, Central Point, as a forklift operator.

He was born Jan. 26, 1917, in North Carolina. Two children, his parents, and a brother survive him, all living in the east.

Mr. Travis was visiting in Klamath Falls at the time of his death. Funeral arrangements are being made in North Carolina.

Sheriff's department officials are conducting an autopsy.

FAY W. DOOLEY
Funeral services for Fay William Dooley, 67, of 2251 Barnett rd., who died Saturday, were held this afternoon at Hillcrest Mortuary chapel on the North Phoenix rd. The Rev. Frederick R. Evans of the First Christian church officiated. Committal was in Hillcrest Memorial park, with Conger-Morris, funeral directors, in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Dooley was born June 29, 1893, in Spokane, Wash., and had lived in Medford for the past seven years, coming from Prospect, where he had lived since 1942. He was a veteran of World War I, serving in headquarters company, 182nd Infantry, in Nevada, to Dollie Goddard, who survives.

Other survivors include a son, Wesley, and a daughter, Glenda; a brother, Clyde J. Dooley, Santa Barbara, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Irene Bembry, Redmond, Ore., and Mrs. Lillian Ironside, Santa Barbara, Calif., and six grandchildren.

MRS. BELLE E. WARNER
Funeral services for Mrs. Belle E. Warner, 92, of 515 South Holly st., who died in Central Point Sunday, will be held at Hillcrest Memorial home Thursday at 11 a.m. Dr. D. Kirkland West of the First Presbyterian church will officiate. Committal will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mrs. Warner was born Aug. 21, 1868, in New York state, and was the daughter of Andrew and Hilda Lowe. In 1893 she married Edward Warner, who preceded her in death in 1920. She was a teacher of adult Bible classes in churches where she was a member. Mrs. Warner was a charter member of the College Women's club and also a charter member of the Wednesday Study club. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Esther Pugh, Laramie, Wyo., and one sister, Mrs. Dillie Mason, Shell Beach, Calif.; three grandsons, three great grandchildren, and one sister-in-law, Miss Beulah Warner, of Medford.

LLOYD W. SMITH
Funeral services for Lloyd W. Smith, 62, who died Friday at the Veterans Administration Domiciliary, White City, were held Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. at the White City chapel. Chaplain Roger Pryor officiated with Perl Funeral home in charge of arrangements. Committal was in the VA cemetery at Eagle Point.

Mr. Smith was born May 16, 1898, in Ohio and was a veteran of World War I. He is survived by one cousin, Robert T. Van Ostrand, of Santa Barbara, Calif.

WILLIAM T. SHANN
Funeral services for William Thomas Shann, 67, who died at his residence at the rear of 131 Almond st., will be held at Perl Funeral home Thursday at 1:30 p.m. Committal will be private at the Medford IOOF cemetery.

Mr. Shann was born July 1, 1893, and was a veteran of World War I. There are no known survivors.

JAMES O. CONVILL
James O. Convill, 76, of 2468 Hillcrest rd., died in a local hospital last night. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Chapel Mortuary.

ELMER E. GOLAY
Elmer E. Golay, formerly of Medford, died Tuesday in Portland. Funeral services will be held at Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Friday at 9:30 a.m. Bishop Walter Jensen of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will officiate. Committal will be in Memory Gardens Memorial park.

Mr. Golay lived in Medford in 1953 and 1954. Survivors include his widow, Rose; two sons, Dr. Vernon J. Golay, Portland; and Gary Golay, Boise, Ida.; a daughter, Mrs. Loren Greenwood, Brownsboro, Ore.; and six grandchildren.

JOHN M. READE
Funeral services for John Meyers Reade, 65, of 418 Lozier lane, who died Monday, will be held at Hillcrest Mortuary chapel on the North Phoenix rd. Friday at 11 a.m. Capt. William Ricken of the Salvation Army will officiate. Committal will be in the Hillcrest Memorial park, with Conger-Morris, funeral directors, in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Reade was born Nov. 3, 1895, in Ft. Wayne, Ind., and had lived in Southern Oregon since 1936. He was a veteran of World War I, serving in the U.S. Navy from June 14, 1917, to Aug. 9, 1919. He was a member of Steelhead Post, V.F.W., of Shady Cove.

He was married May 26, 1936, in Vancouver, Wash., to Iva A. Smith, who survives. Other survivors include a step-son, Ray Johnson, Whittier, Calif.; a brother, David D. Reade, Tucson, Ariz.; and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Williams, Camas, Wash.

JOHN F. MITCHELL
Hornbrook - John Frederick Mitchell, 52, of Hornbrook, died Dec. 27 at his residence following a illness of several months. He was born Sept. 3, 1908, in Indiana, Iowa.

Mr. Mitchell operated a ranch on Cottonwood creek, arriving in California in 1933 and to Siskiyou county in 1949. He was originally the manager of the C. D. Drauch ranch and held that position for three years. He resumed his work as a certified public accountant when he purchased the Mail-Me-Monday company of Yreka.

He was a member of the Elks lodge and Rotary club, Yreka. Mr. Mitchell was an ardent sportsman and was a member of a bowling league. Mr. Mitchell is survived by wife, Mary Ann Mitchell, Siskiyou county artist; two sons, James Frederick Mitchell, Hornbrook, and Rodney A. Mitchell, Los Angeles, Calif.; two brothers, W. Kenneth Mitchell and Jack Mitchell, three sisters, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Mrs. B. M. Connely, and Mrs. Harry Richmond, all of Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Dec. 29, at 2 p.m. at the Girdner Funeral chapel in Yreka. Interment will be in the Henley-Holbrook cemetery.

Jasper Post Office, Store Destroyed
Springfield, Ore. - UPI - Fire today destroyed the Jasper Post Office and store and lumber yard and also the town's post office.

The blaze broke out shortly before 8 a.m. from an undetermined cause. A quantity of lumber and plywood and the stock of hardware in the store building were a total loss. There was no immediate monetary damage estimate.

Ben-Gurion To Take Leave of Absence
Jerusalem, Israel - UPI - Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion will take an extended leave in anger over his party's handling of the controversial Lavon affair, highly reliable sources said today.

They said Foreign Minister Golda Meir probably would not submit a letter of resignation she prepared in protest against Ben-Gurion's stand. The Lavon affair, the biggest internal political controversy in Israeli history, blew up last Sunday at a stormy cabinet meeting.

Ben-Gurion, it was learned, criticized a ministerial committee that absolved former Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon of responsibility for a 1954 "security mishap."

TO BE SUPERINTENDENT
Dallas, Ore. - UPI - Elton Fishback will succeed F. O. Green as superintendent of Polk county schools Jan. 1.
