

Sterling Hayden Wins Court Case

San Francisco—(UPI)—Actor-singer Sterling Hayden can take his four children to Europe.

The California District Court of Appeals Wednesday refused to issue a writ to prevent him from traveling to Europe with the youngsters for four months. Hayden plans to write and make films during the trip.

Mrs. Betty De Noon Hayden, mother of Christian, 12, Thor, 11, Gretchen, 10, and Matthew, 9, tried to stop the trip. She contended that she had not been notified of a court hearing at which permission was granted.

Hayden defied a court order last year to take the children on a 10-month cruise to Tahiti aboard the yacht Wanderer. He was sentenced to five days in jail and fined $500 after returning, but the sentences were suspended.

Hayden said he is $75,000 in debt and hopes to get back in the black with proceeds from his European trip.

He is now married to the former Catherine McConnell of New York. They live in Belvedere near here.
