Morse Urges OAS Arbitration
Washington — (UPI) — Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) says President Eisenhower may be leaving the Kennedy administration "a time bomb" by breaking diplomatic relations with Cuba.

Morse, chairman of the Senate foreign relations subcommittee on Latin America, said this country should place its dispute with Cuba before the Organization of American States for an impartial settlement.

Castro rejects OAS arbitration, Morse told the Senate, efforts should be made to take the problem to the United Nations.

Otherwise, in the eyes of masses of people in the world, Morse said, the United States may look like Goliath and Cuba like David.

Morse also voiced concern that Castro, in his efforts to create such an image, might try to foment an incident forcing the United States to take some military action, possibly at the American Naval Base at Guantanamo.

AVALANCHES KILL FOUR

Two were killed and one critically injured. Swiss Dr. Walter Baumgartner and one of his children were killed near here. Another child was injured.
