Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Washington—Rep. Jaime L. Whitten (D-Miss.), facing a purge from important House committee posts for refusing to support the Democratic national ticket.

"There is a time to talk and a time not to talk. This is a time not to talk."

London—Psychiatrist Dr. Raphael Kerry, quoting one of his "space-phobic" patients, a school master who is worried he might float off the earth and into orbit:
"It's space that's getting me. The curvature of the globe makes everything insecure."

Washington—Rep. Richard Ichord (D-Mo.), on his opposition to creation of a huge recreational park in the Missouri Ozarks:
"I'm opposed to setting aside a large part of my district to make a natural habitat for bob cats and hoot owls."

Los Angeles—Bob Hope, quipping about his getting tired and quitting after five holes of golf in a pro-amateur celebrity tournament:
"I didn't sleep very well, worrying about my swing."

Hearings Requested On Depressed Areas Loan-Grant Program

Washington—(UPI)—Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.), today requested Senate committee hearings next week to speed action on a $392 million loan-and-grant program designed to revitalize economically depressed areas.

Douglas told United Press International he made the request in a letter to Sen. A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.), who is expected to be re-named chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, which handles area redevelopment legislation.

The Douglas bill—which has the support of President-elect John F. Kennedy—was the first Senate bill introduced in the 87th Congress. It would make good on a campaign pledge by Kennedy who vigorously criticized the administration for not providing more assistance to areas hard hit by chronic unemployment. Aid to distressed areas is one of Kennedy's five priority legislative requests.

Robertson promised "prompt consideration" of the Douglas measure, even though he conceded he was opposed to it. A similar bill was approved by the committee and passed by the Senate two years ago. The House cut it and President Eisenhower vetoed it.

Robertson would not speculate on whether committee hearings could depend on when the Senate got around to appointing its standing committees.

Robertson said the hearings would be held before the full banking committee rather than before a subcommittee.

June Allyson, Powell Separate

Hollywood—(UPI)—Actress June Allyson and producer Dick Powell will seek a divorce or legal separation after 15 years of marriage.

Famed Hollywood lawyer Jerry Geisler, representing the diminutive blonde movie and TV star, Thursday said, "It probably will be a divorce. We are still drawing up the settlement papers and won't be able to make a final announcement for a while yet."

Powell, 56, and Miss Allyson, 37, were married in 1945 when she was a boxoffice favorite and he was a fading "pretty boy" crooner.

Friends had known the couple had not been getting along for the past year, and announcement that they planned to separate came as no surprise.

Miss Allyson wept when she talked to a UPI reporter and said "There is just nothing I can say right now."

The couple have two children, Pamela, 11, and Rickie, 8.

Powell and his wife separated for a month in 1957 when they agreed that they "weren't getting along."

It was Miss Allyson's first marriage and Powell's third. Improvement of public facilities.

It also would set up a $92 million program of grants and loans for vocational retraining, technical assistance and other steps to stimulate depressed area economies.
