Philharmonic To Present "Hansel and Gretel" Here

The fairy opera, "Hansel and Gretel" will be presented in mid-January by the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon. Two performances are scheduled, the first on Saturday, January 14, and the second Sunday, January 15, both at the Medford High school auditorium.

Curtain time for the Saturday performance will be 8 p.m. and the Sunday program will begin at 3 p.m. Members of the Philharmonic Society guild will serve refreshments between acts.

"Hansel and Gretel" was written by Engelbert Humperdinck for his children. First performed in this country in 1893 in New York City, it has since become a tradition at the Metropolitan Opera house and is always performed during the holiday season.

Considered a musical masterpiece, the work nevertheless has appeal for all ages, particularly children, according to Director R. D. Werner. Tickets will be on sale in the schools and also at the box office for both performances.

Sponsoring the party were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Somers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Lea and Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

The bride carried a white prayer book which had been a gift from the bridegroom's mother at the time of her confirmation, and it was topped with white orchids and Stephanotis. For the traditional "something old" she wore the wedding ring of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. P. Lee of Fort Worth, Tex. The bride's engagement diamond was a gift from the late paternal grandmother of the bridegroom.

Attendants in Red

Matron-of-honor was the bride's paternal aunt, Mrs. Warren Meredith Weiseth, Eugene, who wore a slim-skirted short dress of red brocade with matching red opera pumps and a red headdress of net and lace. She carried gardenias.

Mrs. Larry Thompson, Eugene, Mrs. Andrew Rapp and Miss Judith Persons, both of Portland, were also attendants. They wore identical frocks of red brocade fashioned with full skirts, scoop necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. Their small headdresses were of white lace and net and each carried a white fur muff with sprigs of holly pinned on it.

Little Maureen and Peggy Hughes, nieces of the bridegroom from Salem, were flower girls. They wore full-skirted white dresses embroidered in red and their headdresses were white flowers and net. They carried petite white lace baskets filled with red carnations and holly sprigs.

Robert Lathrop Bosworth served his brother as best man, and Michael Leath, brother of the bride, Harlan Page Bosworth IV, Berkeley, Calif., another brother of the bridegroom, and Andrew Rapp, Portland, were ushers.

Mark Irving Weiseth, Eugene, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer. Tommy Marker and Charles McNamara, Medford, were acolytes.

Soloist for the ceremony was John Drysdale, and Mrs. Ernest Conrad was organist.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a beige lace sheath trimmed with satin and a small hat of beige satin petals tipped with pearls. The bridegroom's mother chose a rose lace and satin gown and matching rose feathered hat. Their corsages were red and white striped carnations.

Reception Given

The bride's parents were hosts for the reception, held in Parish hall. It was decorated with mistletoe wreaths and baskets of holly. White satin ribbons and white tapers in silver holders decorated the serving tables one table held the large white memory candle.

Mrs. Yngve S. Christianson, Oakland, Calif., and Medford, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Bosworth assisted at the cake table and Miss Persons and Mrs. Thompson served punch and coffee. Miss Suzanne Maxson, Eugene, attended the guest book.

Following the reception, the bridegroom's parents were hosts for a dinner at Rogue Valley Country club. Guests were members of the two families, the bridal party and a few close friends. Mr. Christianson sang, and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity brothers of the bridegroom sang chapter songs. Dancing followed dinner.

Mr. Bosworth and his bride spent their honeymoon in San Francisco and are living at 602 West Eighth street, Apt. 4, Eugene, where both are students at the University of Oregon. For traveling the bride wore a grey and white checked dressmaker suit with red and black accessories, and a grey cashmere top coat.

Also in Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hughes and two sons, Patrick and Timothy; the bride's uncle, Dr. Warren Weiseth and sons, Edward, Paul and Warren Jr., Eugene, and the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth IV and daughters, Susan and Beverly, Berkeley.
