

Culy-Lytle Ceremony Held

Miss Karen Roberta Lytle became the bride of Douglas Culy in a candlelight ceremony held December 28 at First Presbyterian church, Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the double ring rites held a four o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lytle, 608 Newtown avenue. Mr. Culy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gale Culy, 21 Washington street.

White chrysanthemums decorated the church for the wedding attended by 125 relatives and friends. Soloist was the Rev. G. Robert Jacks. Mr. Lytle escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves. Reembroidered Alencon lace accented with pearls and sequins outlined the scoop neckline and was applied on the bodice and front of the puffed skirt. Back detail included a butterfly bustle and the skirt ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil was held by a queen's crown of lace and tulle outlined with pearls and embroidered with iridescent sequins. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Miss Penny Cantwell, Grants Pass, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Judith Elgin, Miss Karah Fisher, Miss Carolyn Edwards, Gold Hill, Miss Iverton, Miss Barbara Nulton and Miss Janet Snodgrass.

White frocks were of taffeta in afternoon length with matching bow headdress. They carried bouquets of white carnations. Miss Cantwell wore royal blue and the bridesmaids were in holiday blue.

James Tizekker served as best man. Ushers were Douglas Johnson, Corvallis, Ralph Thompson, Mill City, Paul Elgin, Albany, Kenneth Shrum, Sweet Home, James Myhre and Larry Van Auddall.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the church, Mrs. Lytle wore a moss green brocade dress with white and gold accessories. Mrs. Culy chose a pale blue knit dress with pink accessories. Their corsages were of white stephanotis.

Mrs. Benton Lytle, Sepulveda, Calif., aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Terry Cantwell, Grants Pass, and Miss Sandra Arant assisted with the punch and coffee. Miss Linda Jo Waltermire was in charge of the guest book and Miss Rita Miller was at the gift table. Miss Karen Casey passed bags of rice.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a rose beige wool suit with black accessories. The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and is working toward a music education degree at Hartt College of Music, Hartford, Conn. Mr. Culy attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and was graduated from Oregon State college. He is a mechanical engineer with Pratt-Watney Aircraft corporation, Hartford. The couple will live in East Hampton, Conn.

A rehearsal supper was given at the Culy home December 27 attended by members of the wedding party and parents. Wedding party members and immediate relatives of the couple attended a buffet supper at the Lytle home following the church reception.

Among the out of town relatives were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lytle, Glendale, Calif., grandparents, and Benton Lytle, Sepulveda, Calif., uncle. Relatives of the bridegroom from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Culy, Marysville, Calif., and Mrs. Percy Dufton, Modesto, Calif., grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Miller, Flournoy, Calif., and daughters, E. J. Coke, Corning, Calif., and two children, Mrs. B. W. Mushmaney, Chico, Calif., and daughters, and Mrs. Robert Coke, Ashland, and children, all aunts, uncles, and cousins, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culy, San Diego, Calif., and Branch Culy, Medford, and daughter, great uncles and aunts.

Return Home

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Felix Cinkus, 308 Harrison street, arrived back in Ashland recently from a six-weeks trip to Hawaii. Mr. Cinkus was stationed in the islands during both World War I and World War II while serving in the navy. This was Mrs. Cinkus' first trip to Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin James Trowbridge Jr., whose wedding took place December 27 in Eugene, are now at home at 1509 1/2 East Main street, Medford. The bride is the former Janet Rae Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elliott, Oakridge, Ore., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin James Trowbridge, 1625 East Main street. Bell-Kosecka Rites Held At Zion Lutheran Church

Miss Danusia Kosecka became the bride of Herbert Bell in a candlelight ceremony December 27 at Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. H. C. Covert officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerzy Muller, 829 Minnesota avenue. Mr. Bell's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell, 512 Herbert street, Ashland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin brocade fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves, scoop neckline and bouffant skirt. The neckline was accented with brocade appliques trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins and self bows were on either side of the skirt near the waistline. A full bustle formed a chapel train. Her elbow length veil was held by a miniature pearl crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses encircling a white orchid.

Miss Bonnie Cox was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Iverton Iverson and Miss Courtney Bell, Ashland, sister of the bridegroom. They wore emerald green frocks with velvet bodices and peau de soie skirts, and green feather hats.

Little Julia Slogowski was flower girl. She wore a white nylon frock and carried a basket of flower petals.

Dr. Frank Haines, Ashland, served as best man. Seating the guests were Clark Barker, Clarence Comstock, Ashland, and Hans Lanson, Ashland.

Miss Ruth Covert played the organ wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Oscar Bjorlie, soloist. Decorations were in keeping with the Christmas season.

Mrs. Muller chose a light purple dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Bell wore a blue dress with matching accessories.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the church attended by 90 relatives and friends. Mrs. Iver Iverson cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Emil Knutson presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Richard Kosmatka was in charge of the guest book and Miss Jan Coghill was at the gift table.

The couple is at home at 403 Wightman street, Ashland. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and Mr. Bell of Ashland High school. They are both students at Southern Oregon college.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Don Davis and daughter, Jennifer, aunt and cousin, from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Before the wedding Miss Kosecka was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Robert Messenger in Ashland. Guests were college friends of the bride-elect. During the evening she was dressed in a "wedding gown" made of newspapers and this was decked with ribbons from the gift packages.
