

Frances Laneta Watson Bride Of James Daniels

Central Point—The wedding of Frances Laneta Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dietrich, 6369 Chaparral street, to James Richard Daniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale Perdue, 3039 Beall lane, took place on Christmas day. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Kroon of Central Point Bible church at 1:15 o'clock in the afternoon in the home of the bride's parents.

A Christmas tree and holiday arrangements decorated the rooms. About 40 guests attended.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of taffeta, covered with Chantilly lace. The scalloped neckline was accented with pearls and the full skirt was trimmed with tiers of ruffles in the back. Her elbow-length veil fell from a headpiece decorated with seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of prepared flowers, made by Ray Jennings, Medford, a friend of the bridegroom's family. Pink carnations encircled a pink orchid in the bouquet.

The bride's gown was made by a friend, Mrs. H. D. Rose, Amarillo, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beerli, Medford, attended the couple. Mrs. Beerli wore a blue sheath dress of lace over taffeta, with blue accessories and a pink shoulder-length veil. Her nosegay, also prepared by Mr. Jennings, was of pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich were hosts at a reception following the wedding. Holly and poinsettia blossoms encircled the cake, which was served by Miss Betty Jones and her sister, Mrs. Harry Gross, cousins of the bride. Miss Mary Frances Daniels, sister of the bridegroom, poured.

The newlyweds traveled to Crescent City, Calif., where they will make their home at 535 Second street, Apartment 11. The bridegroom, a graduate of Crater High school, is employed by Wohl Shoe company. The bride, who was also graduated from Crater High school, was formerly employed as a secretary by Lea Motors.

McIntyre-Martin Rites Held in Ashland Church

Ashland—Miss Elizabeth Ann Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Martin, 920 Tolman road, became the bride of Gerald Raymond McIntyre, Prineville, December 31 in a ceremony in Ashland First Baptist church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard C. McIntyre, Prineville.

The vows were read by the Rev. D. E. Millard of the New Age church, Eagle Point, who had performed the wedding ceremony for the bride's parents 22 years ago. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Annabelle Anderson.

Mr. Martin gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor-length gown of white lace over net with mother of pearl sequins. Her elbow-length bridal veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations surrounding a white orchid and topped a white Bible.

Mrs. Norman Hooper, Medford, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. William Campbell, sister of the bridegroom, Prineville, and the Misses Sara and Leona Martin, sisters of the bride. All four wore red velvet sheath gowns and carried bouquets of white carnations. The bride's sisters also lighted tapers.

Michael R. Stephens, Prineville, served as best man. Ushers were Larry and Gary Stephens and William Campbell, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, all of Prineville. Baskets of white chrysanthemums provided a setting for the ceremony, which was attended by about 75 guests.

The bride's mother wore a gown of rose nylon and Chantilly lace and the bridegroom's mother wore a cream colored brocade taffeta gown. Their corsages were of white carnations.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Charles Kinney cut and served the cake. Mrs. Michael Stephens and Mrs. Arthur E. Peters poured, assisted by Mrs. Donald Beagle, Mrs. Carl E. Froman and Mrs. Ted Kinney. Miss Dana Nelson had charge of the bride's book.

The young couple traveled to the Oregon coast on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a light grey suit with red accessories and an orchid corsage. They will make their home in Prineville, where the bridegroom is an employee of Schwab Tire center.

The bride was born in Medford and has lived most of her life in Ashland. She was graduated from Ashland High school in 1958 and will graduate from Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls, this spring as a laboratory technician.

The bridegroom was graduated from Crook County High school in 1958 and also attended Oregon Technical Institute.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bridegroom's family from Prineville and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Olson, Bonners Ferry, Idaho, parents of the matron of honor.

Brenda Jeanne Woods Wed To Edward Gene Gibson

Ashland—In a New Year's eve ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Marcus E. Woods, 120 High street, their oldest daughter, Brenda Jeanne Woods, became the bride of Edward Gene Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Gibson, 7395 Old Highway 99 South, Ashland.

The double ring service was performed by the Rev. B. J. Holland of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of the immediate families of the couple.

Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis flanked the fireplace before which the wedding vows were exchanged. White tapers lighted the greenery-banked mantle. Preceding the ceremony and during the reception that followed Miss Meredith Williams played piano selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pale blue brocade sheath and a tiny crown of seed pearls which held a short veil. Her bridal bouquet was of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations and she carried an heirloom handkerchief that belonged to the bridegroom's mother.

Miss Mary Anne Woods, maid of honor for her sister, wore a shell pink frock styled with full skirt and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. Christina Woods, the bride's youngest sister, wore a lace trimmed orchid frock for her candlelighter duties.

The bridegroom's only attendant was William E. Nelson, Medford, who served as best man.

For the daughter's wedding Mrs. Woods chose an aqua wool sheath, while Mrs. Gibson wore an ensemble of mist green. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

During the reception cake and punch were served by Mrs. Harvey Woods and Miss Mary Anne Woods after the newlyweds had cut the traditional first slice from the wedding cake.

The bride's traveling attire for a motor trip to the coast was a charcoal tweed suit with black and white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson returned to Ashland the middle of the week to resume their studies at Southern Oregon college and are making their home at 36 South Second street.

The bride, who was born in Ashland, attended the local schools and was graduated from high school last June. Her husband, also an Ashland High school graduate, received his elementary education in Klamath Falls.
