Phoenix Couple Honored On Golden Anniversary

Phoenix - Children of Mr. and Mrs. Walker M. Caldwell, 403 Second street, held open house January 1 to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary of their parents. About 50 friends called at the couple's home from two to five o'clock in the afternoon. An arrangement of gold and white chrysanthemums centered the lace covered table for the event. Mrs. Horace Root, a daughter, cut and served the decorated cake and Mrs. Richard Marsh, another daughter, poured coffee. Tea was poured by Mrs. Lewis Caldwell, a daughter-in-law, and Loretta Caldwell was in charge of the guest book. Margie Root assisted with the gifts. Visitors included the Rev. William Saladin of Phoenix Presbyterian church and Mrs. Saladin; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Clark, Trill; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Douglas and sons, Jimmy and Gerry; and Mr. and Mrs. George Osler, Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell were married December 28, 1910, at the home of the

Installation Held Tuesday By Central Point Bethel

Central Point—Miss Helen Goff was crowned honored queen of Bethel 38, International Order of Job's Daughters, during ceremonies held Tuesday, January 3 in the Central Point Masonic temple. Miss Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene V. Goff, Medford, received her crown from her brother, Leslie, acting master councilor of Crater chapter, Order of De Molay.

Retiring Queen Rebecca Ferrell, installing officer, was escorted by Paul Hopkins, associate guardian.

Also installed were Miss Janet Hobbs, senior princess; Miss June Hopkins, junior princess; Miss Sandra Beasley, guide; Miss Judy Patterson, marshal; Miss Janice Ayres, recorder; Miss Pamela Burgoyne, treasurer; Miss Virginia Wilson, chaplain; Miss Janice Campbell, musician; Miss Lee Hamilton, librarian; Miss Cathleen Harsh, Miss Katherine Collinsworth, Miss Cora Belle Ravenor, Miss Lorraine Scalberg, Miss Colleen Knapp, messengers; Miss Nancy Clark, senior custodian; Miss Sue Kelley, junior custodian; Miss Patricia Knapp, inner guard; Miss Betty Plankenhorn, outer guard; Miss Elin Livingston, lady of the lights, and Miss Rena Offutt, page.

Installing officers were Miss Linda Warren, guide, Miss Jeannette Purdy, marshal; Miss Kay Askwith, recorder, all past queens of Bethel 38. Miss Marion Parsons, junior past queen of Bethel 14 was chaplain; Mrs. Gene Snook, past queen of Bethel 38, musician; Miss Carla Borough, queen of Bethel 14, senior custodian; Miss Teresa Six, past queen of Bethel 55, junior custodian; Miss Jackie Hume, past queen of Bethel 56, lady of the lights.

Bethel choir members are the Misses Linda Chisum, Jeri Gardner, Nancy Johnson, Tanya Johnson, Gail Lewis, Tari Lee Martin, Carol Millard and Linda Snyder.

Escort of the Bible by Patricia Klatt and escort of the crown by Pamela Klatt, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Klatt, Medford, preceded the ceremony. Miss Constance Morris sang the altar solo.

Order of De Molay members participating in the crowning ceremony were Leslie Goff, acting master councilor; Bruce Burns, senior counselor; Roger Kelson, junior counselor; Master Councilor James Ackerman, marshal; Richard Litchi, chaplain. The honor guard consisted of Melvin Harsh, captain; Boyd Henry, Mike Fetherston, Jerry Geim, Jim Armstrong and Dean Everham.

Queen Helen's theme of "Winter Enchantment" was used in her colors of royal blue and white. Myriads of blue fronds centered with silver bells were hung above the dais, to the left of which was a grouping of silvered fir. Large snowflakes decorated the velvet curtains. Blue metallic medallions and frosted fir trees decorated the dining room. A white-tulle tree topped with a gold star centered the table on which the queen's cake of blue and white had been placed. Bouquets of white carnations completed the picture. The decorating had been done by the Misses Janet Hobbs, Virginia Wilson, June Hopkins and Janice Ayres, and their mothers.

Queens escorted and introduced were Miss Jane Ward, Medford, Bethel 55; Miss Carl Borough, Bethel 14; Miss Joey Hume, Trill, Bethel 56; Miss Sonja Wall, Grants Pass, Bethel 13; and Miss Diana Blue, queen-elect of Bethel 38.

Manning, Medford, associate grand guardian of Oregon; Miss Mary O'Neill, Bethel 13, Grants Pass, grand Bethel treasurer; Miss Lauri Beth Buanoore, Bethel 55, Medford, representative to Washington; Miss June Hopkins, Central Point Bethel 38, representative to Wisconsin; Mrs. Morris Boughner, Medford, grand electa, and Mr. Boughner, worthy grand patron, order of Eastern Star, and past associate guardian of Bethel 14; Archie Purdy, worshipful master of Central Point Masonic lodge; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snook, Shady Cove, patron and matron of Nevita chapter OES; Russell Fair, De Molay Dad advisor; Miss Eda Larson, senior princess, Bethel 36, Shady Cove, and Miss Carol Bjork, junior princess, Bethel 22, Ashland.

Many guardians and past guardians of valley Bethels were present.

Flowers Presented - The new queen introduced her parents and her brother. Her father presented her with her gavel and a nosegay of white roses. Queen Helen gave her mother a corsage and her father and brother bouquets. Also introduced was her uncle, Aubrey Goff, Medford.

Mr. Purdy presented the queen with American beauty roses in behalf of the Masonic order and the Crater De Molay chapter gave her orchids. Mrs. Paul Snook, in behalf of the Nevita chapter, OES, presented Queen Helen with a gift certificate for a new dove for the Bethel. Mrs. Purdy and Mr. Stewart were presented their past guardian and associate guardian pins.

At an addendum following the ceremonies, Miss Sue Kelley performed a dance. "Winter Enchantment" written by Mrs. Scott Hamilton in honor of the occasion was read by retiring Queen Rebecca. Queen Helen was given her job's doll dressed in a replica of her gown of white scalloped Chantilly lace with royal blue satin cummerbund.

Refreshments for the reception and dance which followed were served by the Misses Judy Patterson, Sandra Beasley, Sue Kelley and Jeri Gardner with assistance from their mothers.

Monday, January 9, auxiliary members will provide entertainment and serve refreshments for the Camp White post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

January 12 the auxiliary sewing club will hold a revelation party at the home of Mrs. Ben Allison, 1027 West Tenth street. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. with Mrs. E. G. Heims as chairman and secret pals will be revealed.

January 17 the post and auxiliary will hold a baked ham dinner at 6:30 p.m. to honor all past commanders of the post and past presidents of the auxiliary. Richard Schulz and Mrs. Russell Zundel are chairman.

At the last meeting of the auxiliary, Mrs. Ben Allison, Americanism chairman, spoke concerning an article written by Carol Stewart on "What It Means to be an American."

Mrs. Arthur Tomlin served cakes made to represent veterans and led to resemble a soldier's uniform.

At a Christmas party of the auxiliary, several members of Girl Scout Troop 130 entertained. Participating were Lois Henry, Kim Mauch, Shirley Anderson, Sheila Llewellyn, Karen Baldwin and Kathy Jennings.

Week's Activities Listed For Senior Activity Center

The Senior Activity Center opens its third year of service to retired citizens of Jackson county with a full schedule of classes and activities starting Monday, January 9.

During the holiday season some of the groups took a vacation, but even with fewer classes meeting, attendance for December rose to more than 200. A 100 per cent increase in use of the small building at 601 East Jackson street, during 1960 has encouraged the Center committee to continue its efforts to obtain larger quarters during the coming year. The year's guest list shows that 2,552 seniors have participated in the programs offered. All the activities are free and available to all persons over 50 years of age.

The Arm Chair Travel group will meet at 1 p.m. Monday, January 9, to view colored pictures of Europe which will be shown by William Pickell. Mr. Pickell traveled to Europe with his granddaughter, Miss Gloria Haggard, in a college tour group. This is Mr. Pickell's second time to show pictures.

Dr. Frank Roberts is the leader of the Arm Chair Travel group and is assisted by Mrs. Lillian Greenman and Bill Jones.

Monday at 7:30 p.m. the beginning Spanish group will start its second series of classes taught by Mrs. Victor Birds-eye. Twenty-two persons joined this class last fall and newcomers are welcome. Mrs. Edith Whillock is the hostess.

Tuesday the oil painting class will meet at 1 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Victoria Staley with Mrs. Alva Reed, hostess.

Wednesday at 1 p.m. the woodcarving and clay sculpture class will meet with Glenn VanWickle of White City as teacher and Miss Gladys Eaton as hostess.

Thursday at 10 a.m. the advanced Spanish class taught by Mrs. Charles Furnas, with Mrs. C. D. Thatcher as hostess, will continue to study. This class has been meeting for two years.

Thursday afternoon the Senior Center Orchestra, under the leadership of Edward Root, will continue its weekly sessions. The group started in March, 1959. The orchestra has grown steadily in size, it was announced, and has played for clubs, churches and service organizations as well as given public concerts. Mrs. Ena Foss and Mrs. Pearl Cozzalios Return - Hornbrook - Mrs. Melvin Cozzalio and children have returned from Sacramento where they spent a week with Mr. Cozzalio. Formerly a deputy in the Siskiyou county sheriff's office, Mr. Cozzalio was recently transferred to the state law enforcement office in the capital. His wife is a teacher in the Yreka High school.
