

Groundbreaking Set By Central Church Sunday Afternoon

Sunday Central Church of Christ will hold groundbreaking ceremonies for the new building to be constructed at Oakdale ave. and Holmes st. The program will begin immediately following morning worship with a dinner. The major part of the activities will take place at the present building, North Central ave. and Jackson st. This will include reports on the history of the congregation by Clarence Pierce, the complete building program by Willard Henney, the new building itself by Carl Bennett, and the financial aspects by Carl Hoyer. These men are the elders of the congregation. The minister, John V. Heberling, will speak on the spiritual perspective of the new building.

At approximately 3 p.m. the group will go to the site for the groundbreaking. Charter members still with the congregation will turn the first ground. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pierce will turn one shovelful and Mrs. F. H. Saunders and Mrs. Willard Henney will turn the second. A dedicatory prayer will be offered by the minister.

"The Responsibility of the Elders" will be the topic of the sermon at the worship service at 11 a.m. A women's double duet will sing "God Is Love". Singing will be Mrs. Bennett, Miss Linda Bennett, Mrs. Henney, Mrs. Hoyer.

"Dissatisfied Church Members" will be the theme of the sermon at 7:30 p.m. Both messages of the day will be brought by the minister.

'Carpenter of Lives' Is First Christian Subject

The Rev. Glenn McKerrrow, associate minister, will preach at both services Sunday morning at the First Christian church. His subject will be "The Carpenter of Lives."

The youth choir will sing the anthem "Pray On" at the first service. Mrs. Walter Larsen will sing "Peace I Leave With You" and the anthem choir will sing the anthem "Great Is Faithfulness" at the 10:55 a.m. service.

At the coffee hour following the second service Mrs. Curtis Stockstill and Miss Joyce Stockstill will be hostesses.

The second session of the School of Missions will convene at 6 p.m. with study for each age group. The adult class will continue with the study of religions of the world. Mrs. Vernon Tomlinson will be study leader on Buddhism. The Christian Youth Fellowship will have a debate on "The New Look at Missions" and the Chi Rho Fellowship will study Jamaica.

A general assembly of all groups will be held at 6:45 p.m. A film will be shown.

Former Cuba Missionary To Speak Sunday

Miss Kathleen Rounds, missionary teacher at the Colegio Internacionales, Oriente, Cuba, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Eastwood Baptist church. It was in Oriente province that Castro organized the revolution.

Miss Rounds will give her interpretation of the current Cuban situation. The chancel choir will sing.

At the 9:45 a.m. Church School hour, John Yungen will lead the Builders' class in a lesson discussion entitled, "You Must Be Born Anew."

The Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. At the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday, the Rev. Clifford Young, pastor, will speak on "Called by My Name," using II Chronicles 7:7 to 14, as the scriptural background.

Each family will be invited to a Church Family Night dinner Jan. 25. They will be given a copy of the devotional booklet, "The Secret Place" and each family will be asked to consider the signing of a family devotional covenant.

At the 7:30 p.m. midweek service Wednesday, the pastor will continue to the study of Revelation.

Witnesses Return From Convention

Charles and Audrey Merwin, Frances Cook and Frances Wilson, Medford, and Leon L. Lawrence, Central Point were five of 51 new ministers of Jehovah's Witnesses ordained by baptism Jan. 7, at the Municipal auditorium in Eureka, Calif.

Each candidate must undergo extensive study of the Bible and preparatory training for the ministry. Instruction in the home, congregational schooling, including public speaking and field training in the door-to-door ministry used extensively by Jehovah's Witnesses, are necessary to prepare each candidate for immersion.

Jehovah's Witnesses concluded their three day convention with a peak attendance of 1,526, including 51 newly ordained ministers, last Sunday.

Lester M. Dugan, district supervisor, was keynote speaker.

Majority of the congregations in Medford and Central Point attended the California meeting.

Witnesses Return From Convention

St. Luke's Tells Coming Activities

The Rev. Melvin Dixon, minister of St. Luke's Methodist church, will preach on the subject, "The Man Who Tells God Yes" at the 11 a.m. worship service. Supervised nursery for pre-school children and junior church for the first four grades are both provided during the service.

Mrs. Richard Stratton and Mrs. Larry Horton will sing a vocal duet.

The Sunday School hour begins at 9:45 a.m. which includes classes for ages from three year olds through the mature years.

The Junior and Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship groups will meet at their respective times of 5 and 7 p.m. Methodist Men's breakfast will be held at the church Wednesday at 6:45 a.m. The Rev. Clifford Young, minister of Eastwood Baptist church, will be guest speaker.

St. Luke's is located across the street from Hoover Elementary school.

St. Luke's Methodist Church

Welcomes You To Its Services

Sunday School — 9:45 A.M.
3-Year-Olds Through Mature Years

Worship Service 11:00 A.M.

Youth 5:00 and 7:00 P.M.

2000 East Main Street
(Corner of East Main and Hoover Streets)

Minister: Melvin Dixon

St. Mark's To Hold Annual Meeting Sunday

The annual meeting of the parishioners of St. Mark's Episcopal church is scheduled to follow a parish-wide potluck dinner in the guild hall Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

Entertainment during dinner will include vocal selections by the "Margollimarrans," a women's quartet which includes Mrs. William F. Herman, Mrs. W. H. Fischer, Mrs. Jake Welch, and Mrs. Ann Wirkkula.

The rector of St. Mark's, the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, will preside over the assembly for the twelfth successive year, and will introduce the Rev. Theodore J. Ehrlich, assistant priest, and director of religious education, who joined the clergy staff in July of 1960.

Also to be presented will be the Rev. John S. Power, vicar of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Prospect, and St. Martin's church, Shady Cove, who is expected to attend with parishioners from both missions, and the Rev. Eric O. Robathan, who, although retired from the regular ministry, holds an honorary position on St. Mark's staff.

Three Churches List Activities For Coming Week

Central Point—The annual congregational meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian church, Central Point, Sunday immediately following the 11 a.m. worship service. Reports of the various church organizations will be read and officers elected and the 1961 budget presented for adoption.

The Rev. Robert W. Olmsted will preach Sunday morning on the subject "Dealing With Doubt."

Bible Study classes are continuing both on Sunday at 9:45 a.m. and Monday at 7 p.m. The classes are being held in the pastors' home at 20 Crater lane. All interested persons are invited to attend. Church school is held for all classes at 9:45 a.m. Sunday with Junior church being conducted during the 11 a.m. church service.

A communicants class for all who are interested in uniting with the church is to be held from 3 to 5 p.m. at the church, beginning Sunday and continuing three consecutive Sundays through Jan. 29.

The Westminster Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olmsted. Dave Foote, Rena Offutt and Judy Patterson will have charge of the program.

Jacksonville—The Rev. King K. Jones, minister, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, on "Almost Persuaded." The choir will sing the anthem "My Savior Leads Me."

Following the worship service a coffee hour will be held in the Fellowship hall in honor of new members and the newly elected church officers.

The Jacksonville Westminster Fellowship will meet in the church at 7 p.m. Sunday. The program will be another in the current series "Christ in the Arts." The program will deal with "A Christian View of Science-Fiction."

The cub scout pack sponsored by the church will meet in the Fellowship hall on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday at 8:15 p.m. there will be a Sunday School teachers' meeting in the church.

Phoenix—The Rev. William Saladin will speak on "Meeting Christ Outside the Camp" as his sermon topic for the 11 a.m. services Sunday at First Presbyterian church in Phoenix.

Sunday is evangelism Sunday and church members will visit persons in the community who do not attend church. This week the deacons will begin work on visitation teams and on a calling list. Those who wish to help should so indicate on the covenant card in the bulletin.

New church officers will be installed and ordained Sunday morning during the worship service.

First session meeting will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the church parlors.

The Junior High youth group will hold its second meeting Sunday at 6:30 p.m. This group is sponsored by the high school youth. Miss Jeannie Thorpe is advisor. Adult sponsors are needed for both high school and junior high school youth groups.

Nazarenes Tell Series Theme

The pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, will start a series of messages Sunday. Theme of the series is "Why the Church?"

The topic for the 7 p.m. service Sunday will be "The Ministry of the Master." Music for the morning worship will be provided by the sanctuary choir and a mixed quartet including Mrs. William Brewster, Mrs. Rex, Vowell, George McUne and Mrs. Dean von Stein.

The church is located at 520 North Holly st.

The missionary program of the church will hold an open house Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the activity building. Exhibits will portray the several departments of the missionary work. Mrs. F. A. Monroe, president of the society, will be in charge. Names of the several missionary chapters in the local church are the Kathryn Dixon, Anne Stark, Leonard York, and Gladys Mosteller. Leaders of these chapters will participate in the open house.

Activities Told For Sunday School

Central Point—Aubrey Stith, superintendent of the Bible school of Church of Christ, Third and Oak sts., Central Point, will explain "how to cut a cake" during the opening exercises of Bible school Sunday.

The minister, Mr. Jean M. Shelley, will speak at the 10:45 a.m. worship service on "Why I Am a Member of the Church of Christ." His evening service topic will be "Remember Jesus Christ."

Wednesday, Jan. 18, the annual meeting of the church will be held. Department heads are to turn in their reports this week.

Gold Hill Minister To Start Series

Gold Hill—"What Is Pentecost" will be the title of the first in a series of sermons by the Rev. Charles Pearson, pastor of the Gold Hill Assembly of God church, during the evening Evangelistic service, Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The topic for his series of sermons is "Pentecostal Truths."

Mr. Pearson will deliver the worship message at 11 a.m. Sunday. Sunday school classes are slated for 9:45 a.m.

The Christ Ambassador's Youth group will meet Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

CHURCH NEWS

Thomas McCamant Resigns as Pastor

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church Monday evening the Rev. Thomas McCamant presented his resignation as pastor, which was accepted by the congregation.

Mr. McCamant arrived in Medford in October, 1953, to organize the Congregational church. First services were held Oct. 18 of that year with 32 members. Present membership is 177.

Mr. McCamant has accepted a call to the Community Congregational church, Hubbard, Ore. It is believed that he will remain in the valley for several more weeks. The Hubbard church recently received recognition for the remodeling of their old sanctuary and hall. The church is north of Salem between Woodburn and Aurora.

The second session of the School of Missions will begin at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. "The Church in Suburbia" is the topic for discussion with Ross Youngblood leader. There are classes for all age groups.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at 5:30 p.m. The Senior High MYF will attend the School of Missions at 5:30 p.m. and have their regular meeting at 7 p.m. Pat Myers, chairman of the outreach area, is in charge of the program. The OYF will attend the School of Missions at 5:30 p.m. and will be in charge of the snack supper at 6:30 p.m.

To day a Churchmanship school for all officers and members of commissions will be held at First Church. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The board of trustees will meet Tuesday at the Town House Cafe at 7 a.m. The official board meets Tuesday at 7:45 p.m.

Thursday the "River Runners" of Explorers Post 7 of First Church will put on a "trail" dinner for all Methodist men. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. and all Methodist men are invited.

Three Churches List Activities For Coming Week

Central Point—The annual congregational meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian church, Central Point, Sunday immediately following the 11 a.m. worship service. Reports of the various church organizations will be read and officers elected and the 1961 budget presented for adoption.

The Rev. Robert W. Olmsted will preach Sunday morning on the subject "Dealing With Doubt."

Bible Study classes are continuing both on Sunday at 9:45 a.m. and Monday at 7 p.m. The classes are being held in the pastors' home at 20 Crater lane. All interested persons are invited to attend. Church school is held for all classes at 9:45 a.m. Sunday with Junior church being conducted during the 11 a.m. church service.

A communicants class for all who are interested in uniting with the church is to be held from 3 to 5 p.m. at the church, beginning Sunday and continuing three consecutive Sundays through Jan. 29.

The Westminster Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olmsted. Dave Foote, Rena Offutt and Judy Patterson will have charge of the program.

Jacksonville—The Rev. King K. Jones, minister, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, on "Almost Persuaded." The choir will sing the anthem "My Savior Leads Me."

Following the worship service a coffee hour will be held in the Fellowship hall in honor of new members and the newly elected church officers.

The Jacksonville Westminster Fellowship will meet in the church at 7 p.m. Sunday. The program will be another in the current series "Christ in the Arts." The program will deal with "A Christian View of Science-Fiction."

The cub scout pack sponsored by the church will meet in the Fellowship hall on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday at 8:15 p.m. there will be a Sunday School teachers' meeting in the church.

Phoenix—The Rev. William Saladin will speak on "Meeting Christ Outside the Camp" as his sermon topic for the 11 a.m. services Sunday at First Presbyterian church in Phoenix.

Sunday is evangelism Sunday and church members will visit persons in the community who do not attend church. This week the deacons will begin work on visitation teams and on a calling list. Those who wish to help should so indicate on the covenant card in the bulletin.

New church officers will be installed and ordained Sunday morning during the worship service.

First session meeting will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the church parlors.

The Junior High youth group will hold its second meeting Sunday at 6:30 p.m. This group is sponsored by the high school youth. Miss Jeannie Thorpe is advisor. Adult sponsors are needed for both high school and junior high school youth groups.

'Freedom From Fear' To Be Series Topic

Gold Hill—"Freedom From Fear" will be the title of the second in a series of sermons on the subject "Because Christ Came," by the Rev. Lochlen L. Gregory, pastor of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, Sunday at 11 a.m.

In conjunction with Missionary Emphasis, a film strip entitled, "About People" will be shown during the church school hour at 9:45 a.m.

The evening meeting will be held at the church Sunday at 7:30 o'clock. It will be the second in a series of meetings in keeping with Missionary Emphasis throughout the church and church school. The pastor will be in charge of the lesson from the study book entitled "One World - One Mission." "Brother's All" will be the topic of the film strip.

'God's Love' To Be Sermon Subject

Ashland—Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister of First Methodist church, Ashland, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service on "Prayer and God's Love." The junior sermon will be titled "Toothpicks."

An informal reception will be held Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 8 p.m. to welcome new members of the church. It will be held at the parsonage.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main

Sermon: "Life"

Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.

Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.

You Are Always Welcome

Listen to "How Christian Science Heals"

Station K-BOY • SUNDAYS — 9:45 A.M.

Sunday Music And Topics Listed By Methodists

"The House that Prayer Built" is the sermon topic of Dr. George Roseberry, minister of First Methodist church, for both worship services on Sunday.

The anthem for the 9:30 a.m. worship service by the youth choir will be, "Vesper Hymn." The chancel choir will sing "Be Still and Know" at the 11 a.m. worship service. Mrs. Howard Bush is the soloist for both worship services and she will sing "Behold the Master Passeth By."

The second session of the School of Missions will begin at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. "The Church in Suburbia" is the topic for discussion with Ross Youngblood leader. There are classes for all age groups.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at 5:30 p.m. The Senior High MYF will attend the School of Missions at 5:30 p.m. and have their regular meeting at 7 p.m. Pat Myers, chairman of the outreach area, is in charge of the program. The OYF will attend the School of Missions at 5:30 p.m. and will be in charge of the snack supper at 6:30 p.m.

To day a Churchmanship school for all officers and members of commissions will be held at First Church. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The board of trustees will meet Tuesday at the Town House Cafe at 7 a.m. The official board meets Tuesday at 7:45 p.m.

Thursday the "River Runners" of Explorers Post 7 of First Church will put on a "trail" dinner for all Methodist men. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. and all Methodist men are invited.

First Assembly Holds Meeting

The annual business meeting of the First Assembly of God church, 1108 West Main st., was held Jan. 10, and all departments reported progress during the past year.

Alfred Bendickson was elected to a three year term as deacon, and Fred Nelson was reelected to serve as deacon for another three years. William McKinley was elected to the office of secretary - treasurer and Daniel Smelser was chosen to be general superintendent of the Sunday school department, Pastor Robert E. Cull announced today.

During the 9:45 a.m. Sunday school period, Black Buffalo will make a reappearance and speak to the general assembly of all departments, dressed in full ceremonial costume.

He will also be chief spokesman at the 11 a.m. Children's church hour.

Pastor Cull will speak at the morning worship service on "God's Tool - Dissatisfaction." Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jacobs Jr. will sing.

Ray Wilson will be the speaker at the evening service. Music will include a number from the Wilson family; a trumpet solo, "The Lily of the Valley," by Gary Bendickson, Jim Hicks, and Jerry Smith; a solo by Mrs. Thomas Hicks; and a male quartet by Donald Jacobs, Donald Rasmussen, Jerry Smith, and James Nilsen. The church orchestra will play the offertory.

Minister to Attend Seminary Board

The Rev. Harvey C. Covert of Zion Lutheran church, will leave Monday to attend the sixth annual Theological conference of the Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, to be held in Berkeley, Calif., Tuesday through Thursday.

Pastor Covert is a member of the board of the seminary.

The three-day meeting will feature urban church planning. Among the lecturers will be Dr. J. R. Bolewski, editor of the "Lutheran World" and director of the Evangelical Academy of Loccum, Germany and the Rev. Walter Kloetzl of Chicago, secretary for urban planning of the National Lutheran Council. Dr. Kloetzl's lectures will deal with "The Church and the Urban Challenge."

Pastor Covert will return to Medford Jan. 20.

Roundtable Topic Listed For Sunday

Sunday at 8:05 a.m. over radio station KMED a panel of ministers from the Medford Ministerial association will discuss a question sent in by an interested area resident.

This program, "The Minister's Roundtable," presents an opportunity to be better acquainted with the viewpoints of the different ministers of the area. Questions from listeners should be sent to "Minister's Roundtable" care of Radio KMED, Medford.

Sunday's question will be "Did the apostle Paul preach the same message to the Gentiles as Peter and the other apostles preached to the Jews? Were the requirements for salvation the same?"

Panelists will be the Rev. King Jones, Jacksonville Presbyterian; John V. Heberling, Central Church of Christ, Medford, and the Rev. Lawrence Krause, Bethel Assembly of God, Medford. Moderator will be the Rev. W. E. Martin, First Church of God.

First Church of God

W. E. Martin, Pastor - Phone SP 3-5449

Temporarily Worshipping at WILSON SCHOOL, Grand and Corone

Until New Building is Completed at Center Lake Avenue and Auburn Street

THE REV. D. L. MOSS Here From Woodburn

New Minister At Church of Christ

The Rev. Dennis L. Moss, Woodburn, Ore., has assumed duties as minister of West Main Church of Christ, 1701 West Main st.

Mr. Moss replaces the Rev. Rosse V. Long who is now minister of the Eugene Church of Christ.

The new minister arrives in the valley after spending three years in Woodburn. Prior to that time he was in mission work for two years in Portland. Although his home is in West Virginia he has spent a number of years on the west coast.

Mr. Moss is making his home at 32 Chestnut ave. with his wife, Wilma. The couple have a married daughter who is living in Clovis, N.M.

Music Told For Services At First Baptist

"The Look that Transformed" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. Edward C. Stauffer at First Baptist church, North Central ave. at Fifth st. Sunday at 11 a.m.

Maynard Hadley, minister of music, will direct the chancel choir and will also present the vocal solo, "Crowned or Crucified." Ned Landers, who recently completed his training at Western Conservative Baptist seminary, Portland, will play a trumpet solo. Mrs. Albert Gandt is organist.

Baptist Youth Leagues for those of junior through college age will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. At the same hour the adult Bible study led by Albert Gandt will meet in the north wing of the auditorium.

At the 7:45 p.m. gospel hour the pastor will speak on the subject, "His Fullness." Charles Church will direct the youth choir; a vocal solo will be presented by the Rev. John Roelfs, and a vocal duet by Lorraine and Pamela Hampton.

Wednesday, Jan. 18, at 7:30 p.m., the annual business meeting of the church will be held. Reports for 1960 will be given by the church officials, board and committees. The local expense and missionary budgets for 1961 will be presented for approval and officers for the coming year will be elected.

Roundtable Topic Listed For Sunday

Sunday at 8:05 a.m. over radio station KMED a panel of ministers from the Medford Ministerial association will discuss a question sent in by an interested area resident.

This program, "The Minister's Roundtable," presents an opportunity to be better acquainted with the viewpoints of the different ministers of the area. Questions from listeners should be sent to "Minister's Roundtable" care of Radio KMED, Medford.

Sunday's question will be "Did the apostle Paul preach the same message to the Gentiles as Peter and the other apostles preached to the Jews? Were the requirements for salvation the same?"

Panelists will be the Rev. King Jones, Jacksonville Presbyterian; John V. Heberling, Central Church of Christ, Medford, and the Rev. Lawrence Krause, Bethel Assembly of God, Medford. Moderator will be the Rev. W. E. Martin, First Church of God.

Minister to Attend Seminary Board

The Rev. Harvey C. Covert of Zion Lutheran church, will leave Monday to attend the sixth annual Theological conference of the Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, to be held in Berkeley, Calif., Tuesday through Thursday.

Pastor Covert is a member of the board of the seminary.

The three-day meeting will feature urban church planning. Among the lecturers will be Dr. J. R. Bolewski, editor of the "Lutheran World" and director of the Evangelical Academy of Loccum, Germany and the Rev. Walter Kloetzl of Chicago, secretary for urban planning of the National Lutheran Council. Dr. Kloetzl's lectures will deal with "The Church and the Urban Challenge."

Pastor Covert will return to Medford Jan. 20.

Day of Recollection For Women Planned

The day of recollection for women of Sacred Heart parish, originally scheduled for Sunday, has been advanced one week to Sunday, Jan. 22, it was announced recently.

The one-day spiritual retreat will be directed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund J. Murnane of Eugene, who among his many duties includes those of state chaplain of the Catholic Daughters of America and diocesan director of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. All women of the Medford area are invited to attend any or all of the conferences which Msgr. Murnane will conduct that day.

Tomorrow the third in the novena of devotions petitioning for religious vocations and for the general welfare of the parish will take place. Adoration Exercises Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will begin at 1 and continue until 9 p.m. with adoration exercises repeated hourly. All members of the parish are invited to keep one of these hours of prayer and meditation in the church.

From 9 p.m. until 6 a.m. Sunday the regular monthly adoration program of the men's Nocturnal Society will be continued. Men interested in becoming members of the Society may call Joseph Kindler, SPRing 2-2820, for further information about the organization.

It has also been announced that a new series of inquiry classes will begin Monday, Jan. 30, for persons interested in learning about the teachings and practices of the Roman Catholic church. Sessions will be held every Monday evening for a period of 22 weeks and will in no way obligate those attending any or all of the classes.

Medford Presbyterians Schedule Annual Meetings

In the beginning of his first epistle, the Apostle John writes, "That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you."

This verse is the theme for the worship service Sunday, Evangelism Sunday, at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Robert Jacks will speak at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

At the first serve the youth choir, under the direction of Mr. Jacks, will sing "Angels Holy, High and Lowly." The chancel choir will sing "I Will Praise Thee, O Lord" at the second service, directed by Lynn Sjolund. Miss Colleen Barr will sing "Because of Thy Great Bounty," at both services.

Junior High Fellowship meets at the church Sunday at 5 p.m. for the first part of a workshop entitled "The Protestant Meets the Roman Catholic," led by Miss Valerie Knights. Miss Marjorie Collier will be present to provide assistance and answer questions concerning the Roman Church.

Also at Sunday's Fellowship meeting, new officers will be elected for the year. Ninth graders will have a retreat Jan. 20 and 21. Reservations must be made with Miss Jane Stinson or Richard Ketchum by next Tuesday.

Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. at the church Sunday. David Irving will speak on "What Will You Do With Christ-Serve Him or Crucify Him?" There will also be a senior high Katydidd winter retreat Jan. 27 and 28. Reservations should be made for the week end as soon as possible.

Geneva Fellowship Geneva Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wolf, 1517 South Ivy st. The Fellowship is for all college-age young people and all single young people in business and professions. The group will continue Bible study in the fourth chapter of Matthew.

Junior High churchmanship classes have begun and are meeting Saturdays from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. Any students who are interested may still sign up for the class.

Senior highs interested in learning more about Christianity the Church, Protestantism, the Presbyterian Church, may register for a six-week churchmanship class which will begin Sunday, Jan. 29. This class will be taught during the 11 a.m. church school hour. For further information, contact Mr. Jacks.

A congregational meeting will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Election of new church officers will take place.

Westminster Westminster at the Westminster Presbyterian church the Rev. John O. Reynolds will speak on the theme "The Structure of Our Church."

Jacksonville Topics Listed by Pastor

Jacksonville—"Peace in Troubled Times" is the subject the Rev. W. Elwood Irby, pastor of the Assembly of God church, Jacksonville, will give Sunday at the 11 a.m. service.

Sunday Pastor Irby will continue the doctrine class, on "Salvation" at 8:45 p.m. The text for the Sunday evening service is found in Colossians chapter one. The subject is "Filled With God."

Eastwood BAPTIST CHURCH

Clifford J. Young, B.D. Pastor

945 a.m. Graded Church School

11:00 a.m. Morning Worship

Guest: Miss Kathleen Rounds Missionary from Cuba

6:30 p.m. Baptist Youth Fellowship

7:30 p.m. Popular Evening Service. Sermon: "Called By My Name."

You Are Invited TO WORSHIP WITH US

First Presbyterian Church

Eighth & Holly • Phone SP 2-2830

Dr. D. Kirkland West, Pastor

SERMON: "That Which We Have Seen and Heard..."

The Rev. G. Robert Jacks

A cordial welcome awaits you Sunday morning. Services 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Church School classes for all ages 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

UNITY

(New Location) Corner Holly and Haven Sts. Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.

REV. KATHERINE BOSWORTH, Minister

SUNDAY 11:00 A.M. "The New Birth"—John 3:17, 12:21

Sunday School, Youth of Unity, adult Bible Class 9:30 a.m. Office open daily, Mon. thru Fri., 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. 995 S. Oakdale Ave. - Phone SP 2-6902

EVERYONE IS WELCOME